When Television Was Young When Television Was Young:

When Television Was Young Ed McMahon, David C. Fisher, 2007-09-09 When television was young Legendary movie producer Darryl Zanuck declared People will soon get tired of staring at a plywood box every night Before 5 30 there were only test patterns Howdy Doody was the first show of the day CBS agreed to put I Love Lucy on film only if Desi and Lucy paid part of the production fee In return CBS gave them ownership of the shows including the right to rerun it forever Kukla Fran and Ollie was the first network show broadcast in color 50 000 fans showed up in a New Orleans department store to meet Hopalong Cassidy Movie studios would not let motion picture stars appear on television for fear that if people saw the stars on TV they wouldn't go to the movies Filled with fascinating stories When Television Was Young is a hilarious entertaining behind the scenes look at the world of the small screen Television and the Modernization Ideal in 1980s China Huike Wen, 2013-11-22 Television and the Modernization Ideal in 1980s China Dazzling the Eyes explores Chinese television history in the pivotal decade of the 1980s and explains the intellectual reception of television in China during this time While the Chinese media has often been a topic within studies of globalization and the global political economy scholarly attention to the history of Chinese television requires a more extensive and critical view of the interaction between television and culture Using theories of media technology globalization and gender studies supplemented by Chinese periodicals including Life Out of 8 Hours Popular TV Popular Cinema Modern Family and Chinese Advertising as well as oral history interviews this book re-examines how Western technology was introduced to and embedded into Chinese culture Wen compares and analyzes television dramas produced in China and imported from other nations while examining the interaction between various ideologies of Chinese society and those of the international media Moreover she explores how the hybridity between Western television culture and Chinese traditions were represented in popular Chinese visual media specifically the confusions and ambitions of modernization and the negotiation between tradition and modernity nationalism and internationalism in the intellectual reception of television in China Effects on young people of violence and crime portrayed on television United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1962 What Television Remembers Jennifer VanderBurgh, 2023-10-15 Television in Canada has been undervalued as a cultural form Despite being publicly funded Canadian television programs are also notoriously difficult to access once they go off the air which has compounded the problem In What Television Remembers Jennifer VanderBurgh intervenes in the story of the medium in Canada by exploring the long relationship between TV and the city of Toronto From the first demonstration of television at the Canadian National Exhibition in 1939 and the mass viewing of Queen Elizabeth II's coronation broadcast in 1953 to the late century installation of TV screens in public spaces around the city television has shaped Toronto's collective imagination and affirmed viewers in their multiple identities as local residents national citizens and transnational consumers In a close reading of Toronto based CBC dramas from the 1960s to 2010 VanderBurgh explains how the city has functioned as a strategic location in CBC programming reflecting dramatically changing ideas about Canadian identity community and citizenship At a time when many are suggesting that the era of television is over What Television Remembers sounds the alarm that we are in danger of forgetting TV in Canada without appreciating the complexities of its contributions and legacy Young Children's Literacy Development and the Role of Televisual Texts Naima Browne,2005-06-22 Explores and analyses the ways in which very young children s developing literacy can be supported by their experience of watching TV and videos This book addresses ways teachers can use children s experience of watching stories on video or TV to feed back into their own story writing reading story telling and role play in the classroom Explores areas specifically highlighted in the National Curriculum for English and will benefit teachers developing their literacy teaching in light of the government Literacy Hour initiative

The Young and the Digital Samuel Craig Watkins,2009 Timely and deeply relevant The Young and the Digital covers a host of provocative issues the influence of social sites like MySpace and Facebook the growing appetite for anytime anywhere media and fast entertainment how online digital gates reinforce race and class divisions how technology is transforming America s classrooms and takes a fresh look at the pivotal role technology played in the historic 2008 election Watkins also debunks popular myths surrounding cyberpredators Internet addiction and social isolation Tuning In to Young Viewers Tannis M. MacBeth,1996-05-07 This book provides a much needed overview of crucial topics concerning the uses and effects of television including diversity on television dependence diagnosis and prevention the socialisation of young children and children s fear Impact of Television on Children United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce. Subcommittee on Communications,1976 Competition in Television Production Act United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation. Subcommittee on Communications,1984 Applied Developmental Psychology Frederick J Morrison,Catherine Lord,Daniel P. Keating,2013-09-17 Applied Developmental Psychology is a collection of papers from different experts in the field of psychology in an attempt to put forth a vision of psychology as a developmental science through its applications in different studies The book covers topics such as the history the applied perspective and a research strategy for psychology rationale for the focus and the status of studying as well as societal and psychological trends related to studying and the study of the cognitive process related to watching of television Also covered are topics such as the development of peer relations in children with autism and the studies of stress resistant children The text is recommended to psychologists especially those who would like to research on how the field can be viewed as a developmental science
