Dying Words Nicholas Evans, 2011-08-17 The next century will see more than half of the world's 6 000 languages become extinct and most of these will disappear without being adequately recorded Written by one of the leading figures in language documentation this fascinating book explores what humanity stands to lose as a result Explores the unique philosophy knowledge and cultural assumptions of languages and their impact on our collective intellectual heritage Questions why such linguistic diversity exists in the first place and how can we best respond to the challenge of recording and documenting these fragile oral traditions while they are still with us Written by one of the leading figures in language documentation and draws on a wealth of vivid examples from his own field experience Brings conceptual issues vividly to life by weaving in portraits of individual last speakers and anecdotes about linguists and their discoveries

From Perception to Meaning Beate Hampe, 2008-08-22 The 1987 landmark publications by G Lakoff and M Johnson made image schema one of the cornerstone concepts of the emerging experientialist paradigm of Cognitive Linguistics a framework founded upon the rejection of the mind body dichotomy and stressing the fundamentally embodied nature of meaning imagination and reason hence language Conceived of as the pre linguistic dynamic and highly schematic gestalts arising directly from motor movement object manipulation and perceptual interaction image schemas served to anchor abstract reasoning and imagination to sensori motor patterns in the conceptual theory of metaphor Being itself informed by preceding crosslinguistic work on semantic primitives in the linguistic representations of spatial relations carried out by L Talmy R Langacker and others the notion has inspired a large amount of subsequent research and debate on diverse issues ranging from the meaning structure and acquisition of natural languages to the embodied mind itself From Perception to Meaning is the first survey of current image schema theory and offers a collection of original and innovative essays by leading scholars many of whom have shaped the theory from the very beginning The edition unites essays on major issues in recent research on image schemas from aspects of their definition and linguistic formalization their psychological status and neural grounding to their role as semantic universals and primitives in language acquisition The book will thus not only be welcomed by linguists of a cognitive orientation but will prove relevant to philosophers psychologists and anthropologists interested in language and indeed to anyone studying the embodied mind

The New Partridge Dictionary of Slang and Unconventional English: J-Z Eric Partridge, 2006 Entry includes attestations of the head word s or phrase s usage usually in the form of a quotation Annotation 2006 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com On Cassette ,1990 Survivors Zalin Grant, 2008-10 This book may well be the most unusual document to come out of the Viet Nam war It is the moving story of nine American soldiers and pilots who were captured and held prisoner for five years It could only be told in their own words and so the author interviewed each of the nine men and edited and wove their accounts together to form a single compelling narrative of war and survival For three years these Americans were held in a Viet Cong jungle prison where they struggled against starvation and themselves They describe the details of their daily existence as the war ebbed and flowed around them the rats the terror of American bombing raids the sickness Through juxtaposition of their individual stories we see the subtle destructive tensions that operate on a group of men in such desperate circumstances Then they marched up the Ho Chi Minh trail to Hanoi where their physical ordeal gave way to an agonizing moral dilemma Should they join the Peace Committee a group of POW s protesting the war Or should they resist their captors by all possible means as ordered by the secret American commander of the Hanoi prison After three years in the jungle on the edge of survival each man had to answer the questions Who am I What do I believe These nine men form a cross section of the army we sent to Viet Nam Their words illuminate not only their individual background and experience but also the meaning of the war for us all
