Her feet are visible, and she is wearing sandals. The water is dark blue and reflects the light. Engaging readers with passionate and contemplative prose that resonates in today's tumultuous spiritual landscape, A W Tozer, a pastor and writer, is celebrated for his ability to articulate complex spiritual concepts with clarity and power. His humble beginnings and years of pastoral ministry fuelled his relentless quest for a deeper relationship with God, setting the stage for works that challenge both individual and corporate spiritual complacency. Engaging with Tozer's works not only enriches the reader's spiritual journey but also invites a renewal of heart and mind in the pursuit of a vibrant faith.

Unlearning God Philip Gulley, 2018-09-25 America's favorite Quaker storyteller explores the terrain of faith and doubt as shaped by family, church, and young love, finding his way to a less convenient but fully formed adult spirituality. Most of us grow up taking in whole belief systems with our mother's milk, only to discover later that what we received as being certain is actually nothing like it. And then we're faced with a choice: retreat to spiritual security and the community that comes with it, or strike out into the unknown. With his trademark humor and down-home wisdom, Philip Gulley serves as just the spiritual director a wayward pilgrim could warm to, inviting readers into his own, sometimes rollicking, sometimes daunting journey of spiritual discovery. He writes about being raised by a Catholic mother and a Baptist father across the street from a family of Jehovah's Witnesses, all three camps convinced the others are doomed. To nearly everyone's consternation, Philip grows up to be a Quaker and a pastor. In Unlearning God, Gulley showcases his well-loved gift as a storyteller and his acute sensibilities as a public theologian in conversations that will charm, provoke, encourage, and inspire.
