Yourself Happy Julia Bradbury, 2023-09-14 THE SUNDAY TIMES BESTSELLER It's hard not to be persuaded by Bradbury's enthusiasm and positivity THE TIMES Join Julia Bradbury as she leads you through the walk of our lifetimes There's a lot of talk about how we all must connect more with nature But what does that mean How do you do it And what does it do for you in return Can something as simple as going for a walk really improve your life The simple answer is YES Walk Yourself Happy will explain the elemental link between our own health both physical and mental and the natural world Julia knows first hand the profound impact of nature it has helped her survive breast cancer overcome infertility and continue through failed IVF treatments it balances the soul and acts as a confidante and therapist Through science backed information practical tips and Julia's own story Walk Yourself Happy will explore how nature can soothe anxiety and stress how a mountain or a tree can keep you company in times of grief and the importance of building nature into your everyday life so you eat well sleep better and move more Walking one of the most accessible activities for most of us is the fastest and easiest way to embed yourself in nature You don't need expertise or equipment you just need to put one foot in front of another You don't need an epic landscape either you can walk down the street or in your local green space Though as you will learn from this book a walk in the park is rarely just that We all have shocks and surprises that stop us in our tracks make us question who we are and why we are here In walking we have the power to change our pace And when we do that we can find union with nature camaraderie with friends and a form of intimacy with self We can walk ourselves happy and we can walk ourselves healthy and we can rekindle the innate bonds all but extinguished by modern living that we have always had to our natural environment We can start today

Walking Each Other Home Peter C. Wilcox, 2017-05-23 The English writer G. K. Chesterton once wrote Nothing taken for granted everything received with gratitude everything passed on with grace These reflections are the author s effort as an older father to pass on to his daughter with grace what he believes is truly important in life When his daughter was young he used to tell her that his constant prayer was to live long enough so that I can get you raised Thankfully that prayer has been answered But parenting is a life long process that evolves as we and our children grow older Through the years Dr Wilcox has discovered that being an older father has advantages and disadvantages If age gives one more life experience and wisdom then hopefully these reflections will be a way that he can share his life and wisdom with her and others Throughout thirty years as a psychotherapist and spiritual director Dr Wilcox counseled many fathers who were genuinely trying to be good parents This book is intended to help fathers influence in a positive way the life choices their daughters will make It is an invitation to explore how we can continue to help our daughters grow spiritually and psychologically into the person God is calling them to become

A Dictionary of the Biloxi and Ofo Languages James Owen Dorsey, John Reed Swanton, 1912 Walking in Your Shoes Christian Assel, 2012-12-04 This book provides a therapeutic method and a tool for transformation During a walking process it becomes possible to experience a movement a kind of shift of consciousness and give spontaneous expression to certain aspects of the behavior the emotional as well as mental condition and the life issues of the person one walks People who are being walked feel accepted and understood in unexpected ways while those who walk themselves experience liberation from restrictive concepts and a sense of enhanced self esteem This book combines the most recent findings of psychotherapy with proven systemic concepts of therapeutic self experience and provides simple solutions for deep seated conflicts

ENKINDLED Carmen Madera, 2014-03-03 Maria Carbella Buenotanco y Valderama a descendant of a Spanish missionary and a Malay warrior who died a Christian has inherited a vast fortune in landholdings and treasures of the East But even her vaunted wealth and reputed beauty could not hide the truth of her scandalous background When the parents of Florendo Medrano denounce his betrothal to 19 year old Carbella whose mother refuses to grant consent the lovers are forced to join two revolutions Married under the seal of the Philippine Revolutionary Republic and in the belief that only the triumph of both revolutions can validate his nuptial Florendo defies the American authorities even after orders to lay down arms are proclaimed throughout the Archipelago Convicted of treason only one person can save Florendo the American officer whose burning desire is to possess for himself the love and affection of his wife Restored to his high social status after one of the witnesses detracts his damning testimony he begins to dream of building a commercial empire After amnesty is declared for all political prisoners Don Florendo advocates statehood for the Philippines unaware of the growing closeness between his wife and the dashing Major Stewart McQueen Can love triumph over desire when all odds are against it
