Walker Evans Decade by Decade James Crump, 2010 Walker Evans James Crump, 2012 The photographs of Walker Evans 1903-1975 altered the American consciousness many of his images are fixed in our collective memory His uncompromising documentation of poverty during the Great Depression is iconic in the history of photography yet his equally innovative works produced in the ensuing decades have been little known and underappreciated This monograph spanning all of Evans's work presents many photographs that are only rarely seen including his last images the Polaroids he shot in the early 1970s The photographer's rising influence in the 1970s and his symbiotic relationship with legendary Museum of Modern Art curator John Szarkowski are at the core of this revisionist volume Book jacket Walker Evans, 2013 The 40s: The Story of a Decade The New Yorker Magazine, 2015-05-12 This captivating anthology gathers historic New Yorker pieces from a decade of trauma and upheaval as well as the years when The New Yorker came of age with pieces by Elizabeth Bishop Langston Hughes Joseph Mitchell Vladimir Nabokov and George Orwell alongside original reflections on the 1940s by some of today's finest writers In this enthralling book contributions from the great writers who graced The New Yorker's pages are placed in historical context by the magazine's current writers Included in this volume are seminal profiles of the decade's most fascinating figures Albert Einstein Walt Disney and Eleanor Roosevelt Here are classics in reporting John Hersey's account of the heroism of a young naval lieutenant named John F Kennedy Rebecca West's harrowing visit to a lynching trial in South Carolina and Joseph Mitchell's imperishable portrait of New York's foremost dive bar McSorley's This volume also provides vital seldom reprinted criticism as well as an extraordinary selection of short stories by such writers as Shirley Jackson and John Cheever Represented too are the great poets of the decade from William Carlos Williams to Langston Hughes To complete the panorama today's New Yorker staff look back on the decade through contemporary eyes The 40s The Story of a Decade is a rich and surprising cultural portrait that evokes the past while keeping it vibrantly present Including contributions by W H Auden Elizabeth Bishop John Cheever Janet Flanner John Hersey Langston Hughes Shirley Jackson A J Liebling William Maxwell Carson McCullers Joseph Mitchell Vladimir Nabokov Ogden Nash John O'Hara George Orwell V S Pritchett Lillian Ross Stephen Spender Lionel Trilling Rebecca West E B White Williams Carlos Williams Edmund Wilson And featuring new perspectives by Joan Acocella Hilton Als Dan Chiasson David Denby Jill Lepore Louis Menand Susan Orlean George Packer David Remnick Alex Ross Peter Schjeldahl Zadie Smith Judith Thurman Maine Photography Libby Bischof, Susan Danly, Earle G. Shettleworth, 2023-11-22 Maine has always played a rich and varied role in the art of photography For hundreds of years photographers like other artists have made their way to Maine to capture the natural beauty and human culture of the state So too have many photographers come from Maine and many contributions by Mainers have been made to the medium Maine in Photography is the first comprehensive overview of the history of photography in the state Providing basic knowledge of the most important people and institutions to have promoted photography this volume also studies the ways in which photography has informed the understanding of the social and cultural history of Maine Beginning with the earliest daguerreotype portraits of the 1840s this history traces the growth of the medium emphasizing key contributions such as the Stanley brothers invention of the dry plate process through to the present Key topics addressed throughout the book include the importance of photography in documenting labor and economic life the close relationship between photography and the growth of tourism and the role of Maine photographers in advancing the medium as a fine art form Published in conjunction with the Maine Photo Project this is a unique and timely addition to the body of work on the importance of Maine to American art

Anxious Decades: America in Prosperity and Depression, 1920-1941 Michael E. Parrish, 1994-04-17 Impressively detailed An authoritative and epic overview Publishers Weekly In the convulsive years between 1920 and 1941 Americans were first dazzled by unprecedented economic prosperity and then beset by the worst depression in their history It was the era of Model T s rising incomes scientific management electricity talking movies and advertising techniques that sold a seemingly endless stream of goods But it was also a time of grave social conflict and human suffering The Crash forced Hoover and then Roosevelt and the nation to reexamine old solutions and address pressing questions of recovery and reform economic growth and social justice The world beyond America changed also in these years making the country rethink its relation to events in Europe Latin America and Asia The illusion of superiority slowly died in the 1930s sustaining a fatal blow in December 1941 at Pearl Harbor

Los Angeles Magazine, 2001-05 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian

American Photography and the American Dream James Guimond, 1991 Looks at how documentary photographers have contested the idea of the American dream and discusses the work of Francis Benjamin Johnston Lewis Hine Walker Evans Dorothea Lange William Klein Diane Arbus and Robert Frank

Documenting America, 1935-1943 Lawrence W. Levine, Alan Trachtenberg, 1988-10-27 Between 1935 and 1943 a group of photographers under the direction of Roy Emerson Stryker set out to photograph the United States for the Farm Security Administration and the Office of War Information Photographs taken by this celebrated group whose ranks included Dorothea Lange Ben Shahn Gordon Parks Russell Lee and Walker Evans have since become icons of the 1930s and 1940s In recent years however their work has been reproduced with little discussion of the particular circumstances surrounding its creation Documenting America takes a fresh look at these remarkable photographs The book opens with two incisive essays by Lawrence Levine and Alan Trachtenberg that examine issues central to photography and American culture While Levine explains how the pictures portray the complexity of life in the period balancing scenes of Depression hard times with images of the pleasures of life Trachtenberg analyzes the way in which viewers read photographs and the role of the government picture file that stands between the creation of the photographs and their use Both essayists raise important questions about Stryker's grand ambition of a photographic record of America about the ways of seeing that have grown up around the most famous of these photographs and about the whole enterprise of documentary photography and the conventions of realism The images themselves are presented in series selected from groups of pictures created by single photographers A documentary photographer often makes dozens of exposures to portray different elements of the subject experiment with camera angles and cover the stages of an event or steps of a process By studying these pictures in series we come closer to the photographer working in the field We see a tenant farming community in Gee's Bend Georgia the activities of the Salvation Army in San Francisco and the hubbub and commotion that filled Chicago's Union Railway Station in 1943 Texts accompanying each of the book's fifteen series describe the circumstances that gave rise to the creation of the pictures and discuss the relation between government policy and the subjects of the photographs The nearly three hundred images included vividly portray America in the last bitter years of the Great Depression and the first years of the Second World War

The Photographic Uncanny Claire Raymond, 2019-11-23

This book argues for a renewed understanding of the fundamentally uncanny quality of the medium of photography It especially makes the case for the capacity of certain photographs precisely through their uncanniness to contest structures of political and social dominance The uncanny as a quality that unsettles the perception of home emerges as a symptom of modern and contemporary society and also as an aesthetic apparatus by which some key photographs critique the hegemony of capitalist and industrialist domains The book's historical scope is large beginning with William Henry Fox Talbot and closing with contemporary indigenous photographer Bear Allison and contemporary African American photographer Devin Allen Through close readings exegesis of individual photographs and careful deployment of contemporary political and aesthetic theory The Photographic Uncanny argues for a re-envisioning of the political capacity of photography to expose the haunted homeless condition of modernity

Herb Ritts Herb Ritts, Paul Martineau, James Crump, 2012

Presents a collection of photographs by the iconic American artist whose career as a fashion and fine art photographer spanned a period of thirty years until his untimely death from AIDS in 2002

Robert Mapplethorpe Frances Terpak, Michelle Brunnick, 2016-03-15

Celebrated photographer Robert Mapplethorpe challenged the limits of censorship and conformity combining technical and formal mastery with unexpected often provocative content that secured his place in history Mapplethorpe's artistic vision helped shape the social and cultural fabric of the 1970s and 80s and following his death in 1989 from AIDS informed the political landscape of the 1990s His photographic works continue to resonate with audiences all over the world Throughout his career Mapplethorpe preserved studio files and art from every period and vein of his production including student work jewelry sculptures and commercial assignments The resulting archive is fascinating and astonishing With over 400 illustrations this volume surveys a virtually unknown resource that sheds new light on the artist s motivations connections business acumen and talent as a curator and collector Out of Time Robert Slifkin,2013-08-31 Focusing on the thirty three paintings that Philip Guston exhibited at the Marlborough Gallery in 1970 this in depth account reconsiders the history of postwar American art and the conception of figuration in modern art history Through a myriad of cultural touchstones including evidence from literary and musical vogues of the period Robert Slifkin examines the role of history as both artistic medium and creative catalyst to Guston s practice as a painter Slifkin employs a wealth of visual examples archival materials and original scholarship to situate Guston s paintings within broader artistic debates of the time using the cultural movement of the sixties as its orienting foreground This historical framework provides an interface between the notions of time in art and time in the material world Lively and edifying Slifkin s comprehensive text productively complicates the prescribed traditions of postwar art history and in turn shifts our perception of Guston and his place in the domain of modern art

Photography Books Index III Martha Kreisel,2006-01-12 While the Internet is an important source for locating photographic images there still are hundreds of photography books published each year for whose contents there is no external access This second supplement to Photography Books Index addresses this need by analyzing important photographic anthologies that were published since 1985 Accessing more than fifty photographic anthologies that are widely held in libraries across the country along with images from two critical annual compilations Best of Photojournalism and Graphis Annual this book identifies photographs that record the history of our times With nearly twice the number of works indexed in the first supplement Photography Books Index III A Subject Guide to Photo Anthologies cites a wider scope of publications This reference guide provides an important index to contemporary as well as historical photographers including those for whom full monographs have not been published Photographs of important individuals as well as photographic records of cataclysmic events such as war genocide and mass starvation also can be located through this index Extensive descriptions of the individual photographs from the commonplace to the extraordinary are identified in this volume Organized into three sections Photographers Subjects of Photographs and Portraits of Named Individuals these descriptions provide the researcher with important information on each photograph An essential volume for all public special and academic libraries this index will be an invaluable resource for reporters historians academics students and anyone wishing to research photographs and photographers Literature at the Barricades Ralph F.
