previously unseen archival materials such as letters song lyrics essays personal reflections photos and other manuscripts Woody Guthrie American Radical introduces a heretofore unknown Woody Guthrie the canny political strategist fitful thinker and cultural front activist practically buried in the general public's romantic celebration of the Dust Bowl Troubadour Publisher's website Wings, Women, and War Reina Pennington, 2002-01-22 The Soviet Union was the first nation to allow women pilots to fly combat missions During World War II the Red Air Force formed three all female units grouped into separate fighter dive bomber and night bomber regiments while also recruiting other women to fly with mostly male units Their amazing story fully recounted for the first time by Reina Pennington honors a group of fearless and determined women whose exploits have not yet received the recognition they deserve Pennington chronicles the creation organization and leadership of these regiments as well as the experiences of the pilots navigators bomb loaders mechanics and others who made up their ranks all within the context of the Soviet air war on the Eastern Front These regiments flew a combined total of more than 30 000 combat sorties produced at least thirty Heroes of the Soviet Union and included at least two fighter aces Among their ranks were women like Marina Raskova the Soviet Amelia Earhart a renowned aviator who persuaded Stalin in 1941 to establish the all women regiments the daredevil night witches who flew ramshackle biplanes on nocturnal bombing missions over German frontlines and fighter aces like Liliia Litviak whose twelve kills are largely unknown in the West She also tells the story of Alexander Gridnev a fighter pilot twice arrested by the Soviet secret police before he was chosen to command the women's fighter regiment Pennington draws upon personal interviews and the Soviet archives to detail the recruitment training and combat lives of these women Deftly mixing anecdote with analysis her work should find a wide readership among scholars and buffs interested in the history of aviation World War II or the Russian military as well as anyone concerned with the contentious debates surrounding military and combat service for women

A History of Women in Russia Barbara Evans Clements, 2021-12-22 A survey of the key political economic social and cultural developments in Russian women's history from 900 to 2010 and their impact on the nation Synthesizing several decades of scholarship by historians East and West Barbara Evans Clements traces the major developments in the history of women in Russia and their impact on the history of the nation Sketching lived experiences across the centuries she demonstrates the key roles that women played in shaping Russia's political economic social and cultural development for over a millennium The story Clements tells is one of hardship and endurance but also one of achievement by women who for example promoted the conversion to Christianity governed estates created great art rebelled against the government established charities built the tanks that rolled into Berlin in 1945 and flew the planes that strafed the retreating Wehrmacht This daunting and complex history is presented in an engaging survey that integrates this scholarship into the field of Russian and post Soviet history The product of a lifetime of engagement by one of the preeminent authorities on the history of Russian women the book reflects the author's deep expertise in primary sources as well as her familiarity with the secondary literature Choi

Chatterjee California State University Los Angeles A significant achievement in scholarship on Russian women and gender Among this text s many strengths are its lucidity readability and engaging synthesis of a large number of both primary and secondary sources Its erudite contextualization of the history of Russian women within a larger European framework ensures its interest for and accessibility to a wide readership especially those outside of the Slavic field Slavic and East European Journal Clements s writing is engaging clear and jargon free making this book easily accessible to a general audience Highly recommended Choice This daunting and complex history is presented in an engaging survey that integrates this scholarship into the field of Russian and post Soviet history Journal of Turkish Weekly Women Military Pilots of World War II Lois K. Merry,2014-01-10 More than 2000 women in the United States Great Britain and the Soviet Union flew military airplanes in organized units during World War II yet their stories are largely unknown These pilots ferried aircraft flew targets for ground artillery practice tested airplanes and equipment and many of them flew in combat The women pilots proved that they could manage bombers and fighters as well as their male counterparts and several later remarked that the airplanes didn t care who flew them Topics covered include the training of female pilots how female flight units were developed and structured the hazards of conflict and how these women reintegrated into civilian life following the war Blood Letters Lian Xi,2018-03-20 The staggering story of the most important Chinese political dissident of the Mao era a devout Christian who was imprisoned tortured and executed by the regime Blood Letters tells the astonishing tale of Lin Zhao a poet and journalist arrested by the authorities in 1960 and executed eight years later at the height of the Cultural Revolution The only Chinese citizen known to have openly and steadfastly opposed communism under Mao she rooted her dissent in her Christian faith and expressed it in long prophetic writings done in her own blood and at times on her clothes and on cloth torn from her bedsheets Miraculously Lin Zhao s prison writings survived though they have only recently come to light Drawing on these works and others from the years before her arrest as well as interviews with her friends her classmates and other former political prisoners Lian Xi paints an indelible portrait of courage and faith in the face of unrelenting evil
