Francesca Woodman's Dark Gaze Claire Raymond,2016-05-20 Focusing on the later work of the American photographer Francesca Woodman 1958 1981 Claire Raymond takes up the question of the disintegrative condition of the art she produced in the last year of her life Departing from the techniques of her earlier compositions Woodman worked in the diazotype process for many of these late pieces most importantly the monumental Blueprint for a Temple Raymond shows that through her use of diazotype a medium that breaks down when exposed to light Woodman created art that is both supremely evocative aesthetically and inherently unstable physically Woodman Raymond contends was imaginatively responding to the end of the durable image a historical reality acknowledged in the way her work plays the ephemeral and evanescent against the monumental and enduring Raymond focuses on the theoretical and the curatorial issues surrounding Woodman s diazotypes a thematic and practical distress that haunts much of her later art especially the artist s book and photo series Some Disordered Interior Geometries and Portrait of a Reputation Rather than conceiving of Woodman herself as fragile an artist chronicling and seeming to yearn for her own disappearance Raymond juxtaposes Woodman s career spanning documentation of her own image against other post war witnesses of trauma an artist standing in the museum ruins where she emerges most distinctly as a figure of postmodernity Journeys Exposed Giorgia Alù,2018-09-03 Journeys Exposed Women s Writing Photography and Mobility examines contemporary literature written by women that are all in different ways related to Italy It argues that photography provides women with a means to expose aspects of their nomadic self and of the others mobile lives within and beyond the writing process By resorting to the visual women individualistically respond to forms of hegemonic power fragmentation displacement loss and marginality and make these experiences key to their creative production Industrias creativas: innovación y emprendimiento de mujeres en América Latina Sandra Sánchez López ,José Carlos Vázquez Parra,Jimena Zuluaga Trujillo,2022-05-31 Las industrias creativas en América Latina están en auge A pesar de que la creatividad la producción y la creación de valor en países como México y Colombia son un motor poderoso para el producto interno bruto el porcentaje de representación de las mujeres en este sector de la economía sigue siendo un gran reto Por este motivo el presente libro resultado de la colaboración entre investigadores de la Universidad de los Andes y el Tecnológico de Monterrey estudia emprendimientos de mujeres en la región reúne testimonios de empoderamiento femenino en industrias tales como el cine la fotografía la edición y la moda entre otros y muestra el camino para las nuevas generaciones que trabajan por conseguir mejores oportunidades y condiciones Fotografía imperial,
