Women Vietnam Veterans Our Untold Stories:

Women Vietnam Veterans Donna A. Lowery, 2015-09-24 Women Vietnam Veterans Our Untold Stories by Donna Lowery a Vietnam veteran chronicles the participation of American military women during the Vietnam War This little known group of an estimated 1 000 women from the Army Marine Corps Navy and Air Force left its mark in Vietnam from 1962 to 1973 They served in a myriad of duties from intelligence analysts flight controllers clerk typists translators physical therapists dietitians and communications specialists among many others Our Untold Stories allows the women to speak for themselves about their experiences and for the first time ever brings names facts and figures together in one literary work The purpose of the book is to be historically significant to future researchers The history of the military women in Vietnam began in 1962 with Army Major Anne Marie Doering She was born in what became North Vietnam Her father was a French officer her mother a German citizen When her father died her mother married an American businessman Her service in Vietnam as a Combat Intelligence Officer is a compelling story of the US military women in a war zone It was not until 1965 that the US Women s Army Corps WAC sent two women as advisors to assist the newly formed Vietnam Women s Armed Forces Corps The following year the Army authorized the establishment of a WAC Detachment in Vietnam Soon thereafter the Air Force Marine Corps and Navy also sent women to serve in various capacities In March 1973 under the Paris Peace Accords the last women left Vietnam along with the remaining men The impact they had in Vietnam set the stage for the expansion and integration of women into additional roles in the military Today women serve in areas of active combat demonstrating their abilities and dedication to the mission

Women Vietnam Veterans Catrice Bemiss, 2021-06-04 About 265 000 women served in the U S military during the Vietnam Era with as many as 11 000 deployed to the Vietnam theater of operations During the Vietnam era military women were not formally assigned combat roles Nonetheless they were deployed to combat zones where they experienced warzone stressors and hostile fire Most military women in Vietnam served as nurses in the Army Navy or Air Force Nurse Corps About 60% arrived with less than six months of active military duty service often without any civilian or military job experience and generally with little formal training for combat nursing To expand the current understanding of moral injury to deployed female nurses this book identified signs and symptoms of moral injury as reported by 100 randomly selected female veterans who served in the Vietnam War from the National Vietnam Veterans Readjustment Study NVVRS Major themes identified by coders were compared to those previously identified and results suggest that nurses in Vietnam experienced symptoms of moral injury consistent with those previously identified in male combat veterans and at a higher rate

Daily Life in the 1960s Counterculture Jim Willis, 2019-08-15 This book looks at daily life during a pivotal decade in American history the 1960s It covers the Vietnam War and the civil rights movement as well as counterculture and protest movements The 1960s saw the assassination of a popular president a confusing and unpopular war that claimed the lives of thousands of American combatants the passage of a national civil rights act that mandated equal rights across all races countless violent exchanges among Americans with polarized views on the Vietnam War and civil rights and through it all the rise of a counterculture movement that challenged long established American social and cultural traditions Daily Life in the 1960s Counterculture looks at the 1960s from the perspective of Americans who despite their best efforts to live normal lives could not escape the tension conflict and controversy that surrounded them The war and the violence associated with protests of it came at great personal cost to many American families This book looks those social and cultural changes examining such topics as the sexual revolution recreational drug culture the roles of film television and music and more

It's My Country Too Jerri Bell, Tracy Crow, 2017 This inspiring anthology is the first to convey the noteworthy experiences and contributions of women in the American military in their own words from the Revolutionary War to the present wars in the Middle East Serving with the Union Army during the Civil War as a nurse scout spy and soldier Harriet Tubman tells what it was like to be the first American woman to lead a raid against an enemy freeing some 750 slaves Busting gender stereotypes Inga Fredriksen Ferris describes how it felt to be a woman marine during World War II Heidi Squier Kraft recounts her experiences as a lieutenant commander in the navy deployed to Iraq as a psychologist to provide mental health care in a combat zone In excerpts from their diaries letters oral histories military depositions and testimonies as well as from published and unpublished memoirs generations of women reveal why and how they chose to serve their country often breaking with social norms and at great personal peril

Women, Peace and Security Joan Johnson-Freese, 2018-11-08 This book offers an accessible overview of the multiple interdependent issues related to the Women Peace and Security WPS global agenda The first introductory overview of the WPS agenda as articulated in multiple national and international resolutions statements and initiatives the book provides a link between the general public and security practitioners to an important but still largely unknown set of global objectives regarding gender equality and long term peace and stability Within the context of the changing nature of warfare and through consideration of empirical evidence the volume examines the definitions theoretical underpinnings and methodological challenges associated with WPS It then discusses with more specificity violence against women women civilians in war the role of women in peacemaking women in the military and in development and women politicians The book concludes with a look to the future and number of action items from the macro to the micro level While challenges and opportunities related to the WPS agenda are global US policy action and inaction related to WPS and gender equality are provided as examples of what politically needs to be done has been done and obstacles to WPS furtherance potentially to be encountered by all countries This book will be of much interest to students of peace studies security studies gender studies and IR
