Women Warriors Of The Afro Latina Diaspora:

Women Warriors of the Afro-Latina Diaspora Marta Moreno Vega, Marinievas Alba, Yvette Modestin, 2012-04-30 Hers is one of eleven essays and four poems included in this volume in which Latina women of African descent share their stories The authors included are from all over Latin America Brazil the Dominican Republic Haiti Panama Puerto Rico Venezuela and the United States They write about the African diaspora and issues such as colonialism oppression and disenfranchisement Diva Moreira a Brazilian writes that she experienced racism and humiliation at a very young age The worst experience she remembers was her mother s bosses conviction that Diva didn t need to go to school after the fourth grade because blacks don t need to study more than that

Latinx Representation in Contemporary Popular Culture and New Media

,2024-08-19 This volume provides a partial mapping of the ambivalent representational forms and cultural politics that have characterized Latinx identity since the 1990s looking at literary and popular culture texts as well as new media expressions The chapters tackle themes related to the diversity of Latinx culture and experience as represented in different media the borderland context issues related to gender and sexuality the US Mexico borderland context and the connections between spatiality and Latinx self representation sketching the now of Latinx representation and considering that Latinx is an unstable signifier and the present as well as culture and media are always in motion

Afro-Latin@s in Movement Petra R. Rivera-Rideau, Jennifer A. Jones, Tianna S. Paschel, 2016-06-29 Through a collection of theoretically engaging and empirically grounded texts this book examines African descended populations in Latin America and Afro Latin s in the United States in order to explore questions of black identity and representation transnationalism and diaspora in the Americas

The Afro-Descendant Woman in Latin American Diasporic Visual Art

Rosita Scerbo, 2024-07-05 By studying multiple cultural expressions of Blackness throughout different regions of the Americas the chapters of this book consider the relationship that social and historical processes such as sovereignty and colonialism have on cultural productions made by and about Black Latin American women Rosita Scerbo analyzes a range of power dynamics as represented in different artistic media of the Afro Latin x American community including photography muralism performance paintings and digital art The book acknowledges that racial and gender equity cannot exist without Intersectionality and that is why the entirety of the chapters focus on cultural and visual productions exclusively created by Afro descendant women The Black Latin American women featured in the various chapters spanning multiple artistic mediums and originating from various Latin American and Caribbean nations including Mexico Colombia the Dominican Republic Puerto Rico Brazil and Cuba collectively pursue the central aim of foregrounding the Afro descendant woman s experience Simultaneously they strive to enhance the visibility and acknowledgment of gendered Afro diasporic culture within the Latin American context The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history gender studies women s studies Latin American studies African diaspora studies and race and ethnic studies

The Afro-Latin@ Experience in Contemporary American Literature and Culture Jill Toliver

Richardson,2016-09-21 This book examines contemporary Afro Latin literature and its depiction of the multifaceted identity encompassing the separate identifications of Americans and the often conflicting identities of blacks and Latin s The Afro Latin Experience in Contemporary American Literature and Culture highlights the writers aims to define Afro Latin identity to rewrite historical narratives so that they include the Afro Latin experience and to depict the search for belonging Their writing examines the Afro Latin encounter with race within the US and exposes the trauma resulting from the historical violence of colonialism and slavery The Afro-Latino Memoir Trent Masiki,2023-08-29 Despite their literary and cultural significance Afro Latino memoirs have been marginalized in both Latino and African American studies Trent Masiki remedies this problem by bringing critical attention to the understudied African American influences in Afro Latino memoirs published after the advent of the Black Arts movement Masiki argues that these memoirs expand on the meaning of racial identity for both Latinos and African Americans Using interpretive strategies and historical methods from literary and cultural studies Masiki shows how Afro Latino memoir writers often turn to the African American experience as a model for articulating their Afro Latinidad African American literary production expressive culture political ideology and religiosity shaped Afro Latino subjectivity more profoundly than typically imagined between the post war and post soul eras Masiki recovers this neglected history by exploring how and why Black nationalism shaped Afro Latinidad in the United States This book opens the border between the canons of Latino and African American literature encouraging greater intercultural solidarities between Latinos and African Americans in the era of Black Lives Matter Fractal Families in New Millennium Narrative by Afro-Puerto Rican Women John T. Maddox IV,2022-11-15 Fractal Families in New Millennium Narrative by Afro Puerto Rican Women is the first volume to treat Mayra Santos Febres as a cultural theorist It is the first book of criticism to include interviews with Afro Puerto Rican women authors and critics This is the first critical study to chronicle this new generation of Afro Puerto Rican authors Invisibility and Influence Regina Marie Mills,2024-06-04 Invisibility and Influence is the first study of writings depicting Afro Latinx life in the US and the Hispanophone Caribbean It demonstrates how a century s worth of Afro Latinx writers in both places helped shape life writing including autobiography memoir collective autobiography and other formats Mills s work explores the tensions these writers experienced in being viewed by others as only either Latinx or Black not as a distinctive community that embodies both and should not be seen as simply a bridge between them This is not only a story of this specific and overlooked community but is also a history of how its work shaped and complicated discourses on race and colorism in the western hemisphere In doing so these writers created a literary history of themselves within the broader literary history of the Americas The first chapter looks at the life writings of Arturo Arthur Schomburg a writer who collected and recovered the voices of lost writers of the African Diaspora such as Phyllis Wheatley His collections of papers and art eventually created the core archive for the Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture Mills elucidates his own writings of his life in Harlem and shows how they were in deeper conversation with Ralph Waldo Emerson and Thomas

Carlyle's writings that had shaped a white American tradition of autobiography as well as with Black autobiographical writers such as W. E. B. DuBois. She extends the ties of Schomburg's Afro Puerto Rican background and life writings to Jesus Colón's sketches in the 1920s and even further to self depictions by members of The Young Lords through multiple medias such as photography, film, and poetry. She is particularly interested in the ways that The Young Lords created a model of observe and participate that permeates all of their activities from recruitment to writing among others. She uses the work of Afro Cuban and Puerto Rican writer Piri Thomas to think about the crucial role that violence against minority communities plays in the creation of self identity. Her final chapter considers the place of secrecy and spirituality in the work of mostly but not solely Afro Latina writers to re-center how the valuing of domesticity and spirituality can push back against the way their lives are marginalized to create their own Afro Latina feminisms.

AfroLatinas and LatiNegras Concetta Bondi, Rosita Scerbo, 2022-11-28 AfroLatinas as a subject of scholarship are woefully underrepresented and this edited volume AfroLatinas and LatiNegras: Culture, Identity, and Struggle from an Intersectional Perspective offers an important and timely intervention. The consistent attention to AfroLatinas' agency across all the chapters is empowering and attentive to the difficult circumstances of asserting that agency and to the tremendous breadth of what agency can look like. The authors argue for the analytical power of the concept of Intersectionality while considering the hegemonic pressures on AfroLatinidad and the essentializing moves that an intersectional approach enables: evading, overthrowing, and resisting systems of power. Through the study of multiple cultural expressions of Blackness such as photography, colonial inquisition records, dance, music, fiction, non-fiction, poetic memoir, and religious expression and throughout different regions of the Americas, the chapter contributors of this book consider the relationship that social and historical processes such as sovereignty and colonialism have on narrative and cultural production. Rosita Scerbo, Concetta Bondi, and the contributors acknowledge that racial and gender equity cannot exist without Intersectionality and the inclusion of activist voices broadens this volume's reach and links theory to praxis.

Gendered Aesthetics of Blackness Rosita Scerbo, 2025-07-01 Explores how Afro Cuban women's visual art challenges dominant narratives of race, gender, and identity. Gendered Aesthetics of Blackness delves deeply into the visual artistry and activism of Afro Cuban women in Cuba and the United States. Influential in their communities yet overlooked in the mainstream art world and academic discourse, Harmonia Rosales, María Magdalena Campos Pons, Belkis Ayón, and Susana Pilar practice what Rosita Scerbo calls Decolonial AfroARTivism. These women use their art to challenge and disrupt dominant narratives, reclaim their identities and cultural heritage, and advocate for social justice. In centering their voices and meticulously analyzing their works, Scerbo not only enriches our understanding of Afro Cuban visual culture but also pushes the boundaries of research. Groundbreaking in its decolonial approach and form, Gendered Aesthetics of Blackness engages a wide swath of sources and includes two interviews with Rosales and with curator and popular educator Diarenis Calderón Tartabull.
