Special Issue: Soka Approaches in Education Vol 9 No SI (2020) JIS Contributors, Special Issue Soka Approaches in Education Vol 9 No SI 2020 The Verso Book of Feminism Jessie Kindig, 2020-10-20 An unprecedented collection of feminist voices from four millennia of global history. Throughout written history and across the world, women have protested the restrictions of gender and the limitations placed on women's bodies and women's lives. People of any and no gender have protested and theorized, penned manifestos and written poetry and songs, testified and lobbied, gone on strike and fomented revolution, quietly demanded that there is an I and loudly proclaimed that there is a we. The Book of Feminism chronicles this history of defiance and tracks it around the world as it develops into a multivocal and unabashed force. Global in scope, The Book of Feminism shows the breadth of feminist protest and of feminist thinking moving through the female poets of China's Tang Dynasty and accounts of indigenous women in the Caribbean resisting Columbus's expedition, British suffragists militating for the vote and the revolutionary petroleuses of the 1848 Paris Commune, the first century Trung sisters who fought for the independence of Nam Viet, to women in 1980s Botswana fighting for equal protection under the law, from the erotica of the 6th century and the 19th century to radical queer politics in the 20th and 21st. The Book of Feminism is a weapon, a force, a lyrical cry and an ongoing threat to misogyny everywhere. Women Writing Africa Margaret J. Daymond, 2003 Essential, this distinctive series presents 120 southern African texts that are rich, evocative. Library Journal

Postnational Feminisms Hena Ahmad, 2010 Postnational Feminisms Postcolonial Identities and Cosmopolitanism in the Works of Kamala Markandaya, Tsitsi Dangarembga, Ama Ata Aidoo and Anita Desai offers a significant contribution to the field of postcolonial and Third World feminist studies. It reevaluates the ways in which Third World women writers interrogate the relationship between woman and nation in the postcolonial context. Hena Ahmad brings forth the concept of postnational feminism, which she deploys to show how these major writers challenge the role of women as signifiers of national cultures in their works. This innovative concept illuminates the ambivalence of these uniquely positioned writers as Ahmad explores the connection between postnationalism and Third World feminism. BOOK JACKET Speaking Our Selves Asiimwe Deborah Kawe, Robert H. Vorlicky, 2025-03-04 Speaking Our Selves brings together eight remarkable plays by women writers from the underrepresented African countries of Tanzania, Mozambique, Ethiopia, Mali, Burundi, Benin, and Sudan, plus a play by award-winning Ugandan playwright and volume coeditor Asiimwe Kawe. Four of the plays are translated into English from Kiswahili, French, or Kirundi, and French, while most of the plays preserve African indigenous languages.

including Runyankore Lusoga Mina Fon Bambara Luganda Kiswahili and Kirundi Although the plays are united in presenting women as central figures who own their voices they also represent a rich diversity of story telling Each unique dramaturgy is rooted in African forms of story telling that occasionally merge with recognizable Western forms to create hybrid dramatic forms These hybrid methods emphasize the striking ways in which African women writers continue to experiment with form moving beyond Western influenced dramaturgy if and when it jeopardizes their authentic ways of artistic expression and creation through language movement and music centered in African Cosmology The plays within Speaking Our Selves confront a range of ideas and issues including women embracing the potential of agency in often contested subject positions confronting their historical object positions in worlds of devastating patriarchal authority resisting toxic masculinity and persistent oppressive binaries of gender roles finding power in communities of women increasing their acumen in financial business and economic spheres facing tensions between traditional religious tenets and efforts toward secularization living with perpetual acts of violence toward their bodies and the rising mental health issues among girls and women across the continent Readers and audiences are challenged by these plays not to be passive witnesses by observing from safe vantage points but rather to be active participants in the stories being told
