Work Stress And Burn Out In Hiv aids:

Dying to Care David Miller, 2005-06-23 Based on major multi centre research in the UK Dying to Care identifies why work stress is a problem in health care generally and in HIV health care in particular The similarities and differences between work stress experienced in general health care settings and in HIV AIDS are explored in a state of the art review of research and experience in the field to date The book has a practical focus and goes on to explore ways in which the unique stresses of patient advocacy in HIV AIDS can be addressed identifying the best approaches for management Highlighting the practical importance of a clear distinction between the burnout and work stress for design of strategies for burnout prevention the emergence of the concept of burnout is described and the general historical confusion between work stress and burnout examined This will be a key handbook for managers physicians nurses social workers health advisors and counsellors working in or alongside healthcare Psycho Bio Int Hiv Infect Nott, 2000-05-01 HIV infection has more than any other event this century taught us that the biological psychological social and behavioural aspects of disease are inextricably linked This volume examines the interplay between these aspects of HIV disease using the conceptual framework provided by the biopsychosocial model of disease The broad spectrum of HIV symptomatology has necessitated the gathering together of a diverse body of health professionals who have sought to overcome the threat posed to both physical and emotional health by the infection Thus the disease has done much to shift the focus of medical care away from an exclusive orientation towards physical well being to one which includes emotional well being and quality of life Fresh

Perspectives: Industrial Psychology: Stellenbosch Custom Publication ,2008 Fresh Perspectives: Human Resource Management : UJ Custom Publication ,2009 The Culture of Mental Illness and Psychiatric Practice in Africa Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, Allan G. Hill, Arthur Kleinman, 2015-05-01 In many African countries mental health issues including the burden of serious mental illness and trauma have not been adequately addressed These essays shed light on the treatment of common and chronic mental disorders including mental illness and treatment in the current climate of economic and political instability access to health care access to medicines and the impact of HIV AIDS and other chronic illness on mental health While problems are rampant and carry real and devastating consequences this volume promotes an understanding of the African mental health landscape in service of reform Cancer Care for Adolescents and Young

Adults Daniel Kelly, Faith Gibson, 2008-04-30 Cancer in Adolescents and Young Adults is a practical guide to cancer care in adolescents and young adults It considers the impact of diagnosis on individuals and their families as well as examining the impact on the health professionals responsible for their care There are sections focussing on the adolescent s experience of cancer and ongoing care needs during treatment and on life after cancer including rehabilitation and palliative care Builds on the forthcoming NICE guidelines on Supportive Cancer Care for Children Young People and recent Department of Health guidelines policy initiatives Adopts an integrated inter professional approach Contains evidence based contributions from leading professionals in cancer care Cancer in Adolescents and Young Adults is an essential resource for all those involved with the provision of care and support for adolescents and young adults with cancer About the Editors Dr Daniel Kelly is Reader in Cancer Palliative Care Middlesex University London Dr Faith Gibson is Senior Lecturer in Children s Nursing Research Institute of Child Health Great Ormond Street Hospital and King s College London The Psychology of Sexual Health Dr. David Miller, Dr. John Green, 2008-04-15 There have been rapid developments in the psychological management of sexually transmitted diseases particularly HIV and AIDS However a significant proportion of those attending genitourinary clinics do not have a disease or infection but rather are seeking help with sexual health issues relating to behaviour prior sexual experiences and relationships Hence as clinics become more and more generalist there is a need to focus on behavioural aspects of disease This is the first text to draw together the knowledge base and expertise of clinicians and researchers from all disciplines in the psychological management of sexual health It presents advances in theory and practice in a practical way that will be accessible for all disciplines The International Journal of Indian Psychology, Volume 3, Issue 3, No. 5 IJIP.In, 2016-05-22 This gives me an immense pleasure to announce that RED SHINE Publication Inc is coming out with its third volume of peer reviewed international journal named as The International Journal of Indian Psychology IJIP Journal of Studies is a humble effort to come out with an affordable option of a low cost publication journal and high quality of publication services at no profit no loss basis with the objective of helping young genius scholars and seasoned academicians to show their psychological research works to the world at large and also to fulfill their academic aspirations
