Quechua de Huarás, en Español e Inglés: Glosario Menandra Mosquera, 2012-11-30. This glossary has been prepared in order to leave a record of the Quechua spoken by the people of Huarás and surrounding areas in the mid 20th century. Huarás capital of the Region Department of Ancash Peru has a distinct form of Quechua. That dialect was endangered due to a massive earthquake on May 31 1970. Tens of thousands of people died and the city was destroyed. Many of the survivors left the area. Once rebuilt Huarás was repopulated with people new to the area who use Spanish or a different dialect to communicate. Since then technological influences such as the Internet also reinforce the use of Spanish to the detriment of the local Quechua. Born in Huarás I was raised in a bilingual environment Spanish and Quechua Although I left the area to attend the university I could always feel at home upon returning until that earthquake Since then it seems strange to return to an unfamiliar city due to people language and environment I hope this glossary will help the newer generations better understand not only their grandparents and ancestors but the culture from which they come Language and culture are intimately tied and much more than words is lost when a language dies The Inca Empire Tahuantinsuyo was invaded by Spain in 1532 At that time Quechua was spoken never written throughout the Inca civilization with many dialects Since then the Spanish language has been imposed but in Huar s never did it replace Quechua to the extent that it did in 1970 This glossary contains words several verb forms and phrases It is written with the expectation that it may help to preserve the inherited Quechua so that Huar s may remain bilingual It is written for huarasinos the people of Huar s If others find it useful better yet The glossary is in Quechua To facilitate access to the Quechua indices in Spanish and in English are included M Mosquera Guide to the Cinema of Spain Marvin D'Lugo, 1997-11-25 This guide to Spanish film documents the film industry s interpretation of the isolating effects of the cultural traditionalism of the early twentieth century to the expanding international popularity of such films as Trueba s Belle Epoque Aranda s Amantes and Bigas Luna s Jam n Jam n and such actors as Victoria Abril Carmen Maura and Antonio Banderas This is the first volume in a new Greenwood series that discusses historically and critically films directors and actors in film industries throughout the world Each volume will include a detailed historical introduction and will provide an in depth treatment of the most important films and individuals involved in the industry End of entry bibliographies provide sources for further reading and appendixes provide additional useful information The Guides will be valuable to scholars students and film buffs Spanish cinema is in many ways a microcosm of the tensions and conflicts that have shaped the evolution of the nation over the course of this century Spanish film as a cultural institution is rarely divorced from the political and social currents that have shaped the larger Spanish culture torn as it was between tendencies of localism and internationalism It languished in industrial and artistic underdevelopment for many years under Franco it is now however experiencing international recognition while remaining rooted in the specificity of its own popular cultural styles The Publishers Weekly, 2004 Directory of Spanish and Portuguese Film-Makers and Films Rafael de España, 1994-11-29 This new book catalogues some 215 prominent film directors from both countries giving accurate bio filmographies and providing an in depth reference source Full attention is given to the propaganda cinema under dictators Franco and Salazar to film makers who left to work abroad especially in Latin America and to those filming in the regional languages mainly Basque and Catalan There is coverage not only of internationally well known figures Almodovar Bunuel Oliveira and Saura but also across the complete range of feature documentary and animation film making early pioneers Segundo de Chomon Catalans Jose Maria Codina Fructuoso Gelabert and Magi Muria and Portuguese Aurelio da Paz dos Reis experimentalists and avant garde figures such as Lorenzo Llobet Gracia Jose Val del Omar and Nemesio Sobrevila and documentarist Antonio Campos
