The Oxford Handbook of Gender in Organizations Savita Kumra,Ruth Simpson,Ronald J. Burke,2014-03-13 The issue of gender in organizations has attracted much attention and debate over a number of years The focus of examination is inequality of opportunity between the genders and the impact this has on organizations individual men and women and society as a whole It is undoubtedly the case that progress has been made with women participating in organizational life in greater numbers and at more senior levels than has been historically the case challenging notions that senior and or influential organizational and political roles remain a masculine domain The Oxford Handbook of Gender in Organizations is a comprehensive analysis of thinking and research on gender in organizations with original contributions from key international scholars in the field The Handbook comprises four sections The first looks at the theoretical roots and potential for theoretical development in respect of the topic of gender in organizations The second section focuses on leadership and management and the gender issues arising in this field contributors review the extensive literature and reflect on progress made as well as commenting on hurdles yet to be overcome The third section considers the gendered nature of careers Here the focus is on querying traditional approaches to career surfacing embedded assumptions within traditional approaches and assessing potential for alternative patterns to evolve taking into account the nature of women s lives and the changing nature of organizations In its final section the Handbook examines masculinity in organizations to assess the diversity of masculinities evident within organizations and the challenges posed to those outside the norm In bringing together a broad range of research and thinking on gender in organizations across a number of disciplines sub disciplines and conceptual perspectives the Handbook provides a comprehensive view of both contemporary thinking and future research directions

A Cultural History of Work in the Age of Empire Victoria E. Thompson,2020-09-17 Winner of the 2020 PROSE Award for Multivolume Reference Humanities The period 1800 1920 was one in which work processes were dramatically transformed by mechanization factory system the abolition of the guilds the integration of national markets and expansion into overseas colonies While some continued to work in trades that were similar to those of their parents and grandparents increasing numbers of workers found their workplace and work processes changed often in ways that were beyond their control Workers employed a variety of means to protest these changes from machine breaking to strikes to migration This period saw the rise of the labor union and the working class political party It was also a time during which ideas about work changed dramatically Work came to be seen as a source of pride progress and even liberation and workers garnered increased interest from writers and artists This volume explores the multi faceted experience of workers during the Age of Empire A Cultural History of Work in the Age of

Empire presents an overview of the period with essays on economies representations of work workplaces work cultures technology mobility society politics and leisure The Cultural Study of Work Douglas A. Harper, Douglas Harper, Helene M. Lawson, 2003-11-11 A reader for a sociology course reprinting 23 articles from professional journals They cover work as social interaction socialization and identity experiencing work work cultures and social structure and deviance at work

Cultural Histories of Sociabilities, Spaces and Mobilities Colin Divall, 2015-10-06 For the majority of us the opportunity to travel has never been greater yet differences in mobility highlight inequalities that have wider social implications Exploring how and why attitudes towards movement have evolved across generations the case studies in this essay collection range from medieval to modern times and cover several continents Communicating Across Cultures at Work Maureen Guirdham, Oliver Guirdham, 2017-09-16 This revised and updated fourth edition of this core textbook builds on the text's established success It provides the basis of knowledge understanding and practice for developing skilled work communication in an intercultural world Using many illustrations and international examples the book analyses culture cultural diversity and cultural similarities and differences in how we interact at work and in the psychological factors that influence our communication It shows how to overcome impediments to intercultural communication and interact effectively with different others whether face to face or by email chat text phone or video It describes cultural differences in negotiating cooperation coordination knowledge sharing working in groups and leadership and demonstrates how to perform these activities skilfully in an intercultural setting This textbook is the ideal companion for students taking undergraduate modules in cross cultural management or managing diversity on international business or business administration degrees in addition to MBA courses and specialist postgraduate modules on international and comparative management New to this Edition New and improved pedagogical features including end of Part exercises activities and role plays Topic by topic coverage of computer mediated communication explaining how it is affected by culture and in turn affects intercultural communication Discussion of new developments in the field such as the increasing emphasis on language and discourses Focus on new types of research such as country by country studies and reports of realities on the ground Women, Culture, and

Development Martha C. Nussbaum, Jonathan Glover, 1995-11-30 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 3.0 IGO licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations BL Distinguished editors and contributors BL Addresses questions of some urgency for the question of women's quality of life BL Interdisciplinary ranging over philosophy economics political science anthropology law and sociology BL Combines theory with case studies BL Accessible to non specialist reader BL Sequel to The Quality of Life edited by Martha Nussbaum and Amartya Sen applying the capabilities approach outlined in that volume BL Topical challenges politically correct relativist approaches and discusses the validity of charges of cultural imperialism levelled at Western aid and intervention policies Women a majority of the world's population receive only a small proportion of its opportunities and benefits According to the 1993 UN Human Development Report there is no country in the world in which women's quality of life is equal to that of men This examination of women's quality of life thus addresses questions which have a particular urgency It aims to describe the basic situation of all women and so develops a universal account that can answer the charges of Western imperialism frequently made against such accounts The contributors confront the issue of cultural relativism criticizing the relativist approach which in its desire to respect different cultural traditions can result in indifference to injustice An account of gender justice and women's equality is then proposed in various areas in which quality of life is measured These issues are related throughout to the specific contexts of India Bangladesh China Mexico and Nigeria through a series of case studies Disciplines represented include philosophy economics political science anthropology law and sociology Like its predecessor The Quality of Life this volume encourages the reader to think critically about the central fundamental concepts used in development economics and suggests major criticisms of current economic approaches from that fundamental viewpoint Contributors Martha Nussbaum Marty Chen Susan Wolf Jonathan Glover Onora O'Neill David Crocker Hilary Putnam Linda Alcoff Amartya Sen Susan Moller Okin Ruth Anna Putnam Cass R Sunstein Christine M Korsgaard Catherine Lutz Xiaorong Li Margarita M Valdes Nkiru Nzegwu

Cultures of Masculinity Tim Edwards, 2004-08-02 Presenting a survey of the social cultural and theoretical issues which surround and inform our understanding of masculinity this book explores the interface between traditional sociological approaches and the work covered by more post structural media driven or cultural perspectives Edwards well known for his work on representations of masculinities uses grounded examples of the job market and domestic violence to set his theoretical discussion He argues that there is a need for more dialogue on men and masculinities between disciplines and considers the validity of the concerns and anxieties which surround masculinity in the contemporary world through a range of key topics including the new man the new lad and men's movements men masculinity and violence marginalized masculinities black masculinity and gay male sexuality queer theory performativity and fashion cinema representation and the body One of the most comprehensive and progressive studies of modern masculinity available this book will be essential reading for students of gender culture and sociology

The Sociology of Youth Culture and Youth Subcultures (Routledge Revivals) Michael Brake, 2013-10-08 First published in 1980 this book argues that subcultures are formed in defence of collectively experienced problems that arise from defects and contradictions in social structures Mike Brake looks at the development of post war youth culture in a sociological context and considers the class base of youth subcultures showing that they generate a form of collective identity from which an individual identity can be achieved outside that ascribed by class education or occupation Black youth and young females are two groups given special attention here since Brake notes they are prone to particular problems resulting from the racism and sexism inherent in much youth culture

Development of Culture, Welfare States and Women's Employment in Europe Birgit Pfau-Effinger, 2017-05-15 This refreshing volume introduces a theory for explaining cross national differences in the social practice of women and men in the areas of family and employment This provides a theoretical framework for the ensuing comprehensive cross national analysis of the degree and forms of labour market integration of women in three European countries Finland West Germany and the Netherlands from the 1950s until 2000 Cross national differences are explained with a focus on cultural change and the development of welfare state labour markets the family and social movements It is evident that change took place along different development paths that were based on deep rooted historical differences in the cultural ideals of the family Such historical differences and their explanations also form part of the analysis The results of this survey contribute to the further development of cross national sociology on social change social and gender inequality welfare state labour markets and family structures
