The Transatlantic Slave Trade Landmarks Legacies Expectations Proceedings Of The International Conference:

The Transatlantic Slave Trade James Anquandah, Michel Doortmont, Naana Jane Opoku-Agyemang, 2007 Unesco celebrated 2004 as the international year to commemorate the struggle against slavery and its abolition The Ghanaian Government's National Slave Route Project Committee held an international conference on transatlantic slave as part of that initiative These papers are largely the proceedings of that conference with the inclusion of a few papers from the National Conference on the Slave Trade in 2003 Supported by the Netherlands Embassy Unesco and an individual benefactor the conference brought together over 400 people Government Ministers Unesco and diplomatic representatives and scholars from Africa the Caribbean Australia Europe and the USA Twenty nine papers and statements are included The book is divided into opening statements followed by papers on three main themes landmarks legacies and expectations Unite or Perish Mammo Muchie, Vusi Gumede, 2015-03-26 This book is an outcome of the third conference in the successful Scramble for Africa International Conference series now renamed the African Unity for Renaissance International Conference The book provides an overview and contains profound analyses of the important issues pertaining to African Unity and African Renaissance The book is accessible to a wide variety of readers ranging from policy makers to researchers from teachers to students and for anyone concerned with the further development of the African continent and Africa's renewal The book outlines the various issues that animate Africa's stand in the global political socio economic cultural and technological arenas The chapters gathered in the book critically examine and evaluate the burning questions and challenges with which Africa is grappling This book is one of the vital texts for understanding how Africa will manage to navigate the tumultuous waters of globalisation as Africa has just recently emerged out of the horrors of slavery colonialism apartheid neo colonialism and genocide and is still wrestling with unceasing conflicts popular unrest neo imperialism coloniality and mushrooming insurgency The chapters provide a much needed insight into the issue of whether Africa has achieved genuine and meaningful independence after 50 years of the founding of the OAU and whether the baby steps Africa has taken towards unity are worth celebrating The contributors highlight these and allied issues with a view to capture more public attention in order to stimulate debate and usher in a new phase in the quest for African Unity and Renaissance The contributors are distinguished authors and established and emerging scholars in their own domains While a majority of the contributors are from the continent distinguished scholars from around the globe have joined their African fellows in dealing with the relevant issues regarding Africa's place in an ever changing world The Fante and the Transatlantic Slave Trade Rebecca Shumway, 2011 The first book length history of the Fante people of southern Ghana during the Atlantic slave trade Specifically this volume provides a historical framework for the relationship between Ghana's coastal forts and castles and local African societies during this complex period The Political Economy of the Interior Gold Coast Jarvis L. Hargrove, 2015-12-09 This book analyzes the Gold Coast and the Asante kingdom in the years following the abolition of the transatlantic slave trade and prior to the start of colonial rule The Asante state one of the largest in the Gold Coast and West Africa after the eighteenth century is the central focus of this work Studying their transition from a large scale supplier of captives to the transatlantic slave trade to traders in legitimate goods is a critical component that should be analyzed across West Africa This work highlights the political and economic relationships between the interior Asante state with surrounding African groups and Europeans chiefly British traders who entered the region in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries

Postcolonializing God Lartey Emmanuel Y,2015-04-21 Postcolonializing God examines how African Christianity can be truly a postcolonial reality and explores how people who were colonial subjects may practice a spirituality that bears the hallmarks of their authentic cultural heritage even if that makes them distinctly different from Christians from the colonizing nations

Current Perspectives in the Archaeology of Ghana Anquandah, James,Kankpeyeng, Benjamin,2015-04-26 This collection of essays on archaeology and heritage studies is authored by local and expatriate scholars who are either past or current practitioners in archaeological work in Ghana They are from Ghana UK US and Canada The subject matter covered includes the history and evolution of the discipline in Ghana the method and theory or how to do it in archaeology field research reports and syntheses on findings from past and recent investigations The eclectic or multidisciplinary strategy has been the research vogue in Ghanaian archaeology recently and this is reflected in the various chapters The essays engage with current theoretical trends in global archaeology and also focus on the role and status of archaeology as a discipline in Ghanaian society today Archaeology is a relatively novel subject to many in Ghana This Reader will therefore be a huge asset to local students and experts alike Foreign scholars will also find it very useful

Africa's Development in Historical Perspective Emmanuel Akyeampong,Robert H. Bates,Nathan Nunn,James Robinson,2014-08-11 This edited volume addresses the root causes of Africa's persistent poverty through an investigation of its longue dur e history It interrogates the African past through disease and demography institutions and governance African economies and the impact of the export slave trade colonialism Africa in the world economy and culture's influence on accumulation and investment Several of the chapters take a comparative perspective placing Africa's developments aside other global patterns The readership for this book spans from the informed lay reader with an interest in Africa academics and undergraduate and graduate students policy makers and those in the development world

Cultural Heritage and Tourism in Africa Dallen J. Timothy,2023-03-13 Cultural Heritage and Tourism in Africa examines the multiple and diverse manifestations of cultural heritage based tourism in Africa from a regional social science and sustainability perspective This book delivers a comprehensive treatise on the interdependent concepts of cultural heritage and tourism Heritage is one of the most pervasive tourism assets worldwide and lies at the foundations of tourism in many localities including Africa However despite its salience there has not been a systematic examination of Africa's heritage resources markets policies practices successes and challenges in a tourism framework despite the continent's immense heritage value This book reviews the different types of heritages that pervade the cultural environment of Africa and comprises its vast heritagescapes It also examines the increasing potential for the growth of heritage tourism throughout the entire continent The contributions in this volume delve into current thinking about space and place and their effects on heritage mobilities globalization colonialism and indigeneity conflict identity and nation building connections with other regions through migration and the slave trade and a greater emphasis on the ordinary heritage of Africa which has long been ignored by tourism scholars and industry representatives The chapters herein are authored by Africa specialists most being from Africa offering a truly African perspective The chapters are conceptually rigorous and empirically rich with examples from all regions of the African continent This unparalleled interdisciplinary glimpse at cultural heritage and tourism in Africa delivers strong value and is a vital resource for all students and researchers of tourism cultural studies heritage studies geography anthropology sociology history and global studies

Shadows of Empire in West Africa John Kwadwo Osei-Tutu, Victoria Ellen Smith, 2017-09-06 These essays reexamine European forts in West Africa as hubs where different peoples interacted negotiated and transformed each other socially politically culturally and economically This collection brings together scholars of history archaeology cultural studies and others to present a nuanced image of fortifications showing that over time the functions and impacts of the buildings changed as the motives missions allegiances and power dynamics in the region also changed Focusing on the fortifications of Ghana the authors discuss how these structures may be interpreted as connecting Ghanaian and West African histories to a multitude of global histories They also enable greater understanding of the fortifications contemporary use as heritage sites where the Afro European experience is narrated through guided tours and museums Landscapes of Slavery in Africa Lydia Wilson Marshall, 2021-05-15 Slavery was a large scale process that put its mark on the African landscape in tangible ways for example through the capture transfer and imprisonment of captives and through the avoidance strategies that vulnerable communities used against slaving Certainly the expansion of trade routes the depopulation of slaved regions and an increased reliance on defensive architecture and places of concealment can all be linked to slaving and slavery in Africa But how do we view these landscapes of slavery today And can archaeology help us Encompassing studies from Senegal Ghana Mauritius Tanzania and Kenya this volume grapples with such essential questions The authors advocate for the power of archaeology as a tool to disentangle often lengthy and complex landscape histories that both begin before slavery and continue after abolition They also argue for archaeologists central role in reimagining how we might remember and commemorate slavery in places where its history has been forgotten obscured by European colonialism or sanitized and simplified for tourist consumption The chapters in this book were originally published in a special issue of the Journal of African Diaspora Archaeology and Heritage Slave Sites on Display Helena Woodard, 2019-08-23 At Senegal s House of Slaves Barack Obama s presidential visit renewed debate about authenticity belonging and the myth of return not only for the president but also for the slave fort itself At the African Burial Ground National Monument in New York up to ten thousand slave decedents lie buried beneath the area around Wall Street which some of them helped to build and maintain Their likely descendants whose activism produced the monument located at that burial site now occupy its margins The Bench by the Road slave memorial at Sullivan s Isle near Charleston reflects the region s centrality in slavery s legacy a legacy made explicit when the murder of nine black parishioners by a white supremacist led to the removal of the Confederate flag from the state s capitol grounds Helena Woodard considers whether the historical slave sites that have been commemorated in the global community represent significant progress for the black community or are simply an unforgiving mirror of the present In Slave Sites on Display Reflecting Slavery s Legacy through Contemporary Flash Moments Woodard examines how select modern day slave sites can be understood as contemporary flash moments specific circumstances and or seminal events that bind the past to the present Woodard exposes the complex connections between these slave sites and the impact of race and slavery today Though they differ from one another all of these sites are displayed as slave memorials or monuments and function as high profile tourist attractions They interpret a story about the history of Atlantic slavery relative to the lived experiences of the diaspora slave descendants that organize and visit the sites

Controversies in Tourism

Omar Moufakkir, Peter M. Burns, 2012 Tourism impacts on locations in many ways socially environmentally culturally and economically This book examines some well established controversies in tourism and some newly emerging controversial aspects associated with tourism as an activity and a business Controversies involving clashes between visitors and host communities the rights and wrongs of eco tourism the impacts of mega events the legitimacy of dark tourism and the costs and benefits of medical and wildlife tourism are assessed This book is an interesting and thought provoking work ideal for tourism students researchers and academics

Tourism and Memories of Home

Sabine Marschall, 2017-02-03 This book investigates home and homeland as destinations of touristic journeys and adds to recent scholarly interest in the intersection between tourism and migration It covers the temporary visits and journeys in search of home and homelands by migrants displaced people exiles and diasporic communities in a wide range of different geographical and historical contexts Personal and collective forms of memory are shown to play a key role in the motivation for and experience of such journeys The volume contributes to the investigation of the tourism memory nexus as it conceptualizes memory as underpinning touristic mobility experience and performativity Based on ethnographic case studies and other types of qualitative empirical research the chapters of this book foreground individual touristic experiences emotions memories perceptions the search for identity and a sense of belonging The book will be of interest to students and researchers in the fields of tourism heritage anthropology identity studies memory studies and migration diaspora studies Architecture and Empire in Jamaica Louis Nelson, 2016-03-15 Through Creole houses and merchant stores to sugar fields and boiling houses Jamaica played a leading role in the formation of both the early modern Atlantic world and the British Empire Architecture and Empire in Jamaica offers the first scholarly analysis of Jamaican architecture in the long 18th century spanning roughly from the Port Royal earthquake of 1692 to Emancipation in 1838 In this richly illustrated study which includes hundreds of the author's own photographs and drawings Louis P Nelson examines surviving buildings and archival records to write a social history of architecture Nelson begins with an overview of the architecture of the West African slave trade then moves to chapters framed around types of buildings and landscapes including the Jamaican plantation landscape and fortified houses to the architecture of free blacks He concludes with a consideration of Jamaican architecture in Britain By connecting the architecture of the Caribbean first to West Africa and then to Britain Nelson traces the flow of capital and makes explicit the material economic and political networks around the Atlantic
