The Treasure of the Humble Maurice Maeterlinck, 2015-12-31 INTRODUCTION WITH M Maeterlinck as a dramatist the world is pretty well acquainted This little volume presents him in the new character of a philosopher and an sthetician And it is in some sort an apology for his theatre the one being to the other as theory to practice

Reversing the course prescribed by Mr Squeers for his pupils M Maeterlinck having cleaned w i n d e r winder now goes and spells it He began by visualising and synthetising his ideas of life here you shall find him trying to analyse these ideas and consumed with anxiety to tell us the truth that is in him It is not a truth for all markets he is at no pains to conceal that He appeals as every mystic must to the elect M Anatole France would say to the mes bien n es If we are not sealed of the tribe of Plotinus he warns us to go elsewhere If plunging thine eyes into thyself it is this same Plotinus that he is quoting thou dost not feel the charm of beauty it is in vain that thy disposition being such thou shouldst seek the charm of beauty for thou wouldst seek it only with that which is ugly and impure Therefore it is that the discourse we hold here is not addressed to all men If we are to follow him in his expedition to a philosophic Ultima Thule we must have the mind for that adventure We are here as he tells us elsewhere of the stiff but it seems admirable Ruysbroeck all of a sudden on the borderland of human thought and far across the Arctic circle of the spirit There is no ordinary cold no ordinary dark there and yet you shall find there naught but flames and light But to those who arrive without having trained their minds to these new perceptions the light and the flames are as dark and as cold as though they were painted This means that the intelligence the reason will not suffice of themselves we must have faith There are passages in the book which may provoke a sniff from Mr Worldly Wiseman but we must beware of the Voltairean spirit or this will be a closed book to us We live by admiration hope and love said Wordsworth And we understand by them M Maeterlinck would add I fear we are not all of us found worthy of the mystical frame of mind But it is a psychological fact like another and if we can only examine it from the outside we can at least bring patience and placidity to the task The point is has M Maeterlinck anything to say It will be found I think that he has All men the world has long been assured are born Aristotelians or Platonists There cannot be a doubt about M Maeterlinck s philosophic birthright He may say as Paul Verlaine sang Moi j allais r vant du divin Platon Sous l il clignotant des bleus becs de gaz

of other Jewish intellectuals and artists in that his family converts to Catholicism in Los Angeles Unlike most of them he returns to Europe as an officer with the French forces and works on denazifying German literature The conversion narrative bridges the departure from and return to Europe To critic John Simon the latter part of the book often reads like a shrill piece of Christian homiletics But even this is not without interest as it traces the transformation of an anarchic outsider into a dogmatic insider The first part of Destiny's Journey about Dblin's departure from Paris in 1940 is magisterial acidly observed saturated in telling detail grimly comic and harrowing with an exemplary introduction by Peter Demetz an important nourishing book John Simon The New York Times behind that facade of his something that might very well be all she's been looking for in a man Treasure in the Trash J. Roger Tanga, 2009-08 Many people allow life blows to stop them from fulfilling their divine destiny Bombarded with negative opinions of men and tossed by life's tribulations they lose their purpose in life and forfeit their dreams Do you feel limited because of your race ethnicity color gender or national origin Are you crushed by failure and purposelessness Have people made you feel that you will never amount to anything In this riveting and compelling book J Roger Tanga uses biblical and contemporary examples to challenge you to discover your real worth and become all God meant you to be Your worst setback can set the stage for your best comeback God can turn the scars of your past into stars for your future He can turn your stumbling blocks into stepping stones People may see trash but God sees a valuable treasure in you You must read this book J Roger Tanga is pastor of Living Hope Omega Ministries in Columbus Ohio USA Over the past he has served as pastor national director of Children Ministries and national Pastor of Youth Ministry for Full Gospel Mission in Cameroon He has also been active in the ministry of Haggai Institute for leadership training serving as National Vice President of the Cameroon National Alumni Association and international faculty at the Mid Pacific Center in Maui Hawaii and Singapore J Roger Tanga earned a Master's degree in Christian education from the Assemblies of God Graduate School of Theology AGGST and a Bachelor in Theology from the West Africa Advanced School of Theology WAAST in Lome Togo He is also a conference speaker and a Bible school teacher Relocated to the USA he now lives in Columbus Ohio with his wife Becky and their four children Americans in the Treasure House Jason Ruiz, 2014-01-01 This study of American travel to Mexico from 1884 to 1911 examines how the influx of tourists and speculators altered perceptions of US influence When railroads connected the United States and Mexico in 1884 travel between the two countries became easier and cheaper Americans developed an intense curiosity about Mexico its people and its opportunities for business and pleasure Indeed so many Americans visited Mexico during the Porfiriato the long dictatorship of Porfirio Diaz that observers on both sides of the border called it a foreign invasion This as Jason Ruiz demonstrates was an especially apt phrase In Americans in the Treasure House Ruiz argues that this influx of travelers helped shape American perceptions of Mexico as a logical place to exert its cultural and economic influence Analyzing a wealth of evidence ranging from travelogues and literary representations to picture postcards and snapshots Ruiz shows how American travelers constructed an image of Mexico as a nation requiring foreign intervention to reach its full potential Most importantly he relates the rapid rise in travel and travel discourse to complex questions about national identity state power and economic relations across the US Mexico border The Treasure of the Magi James Hope Moulton, 1917 Apparitions of the Self Janet Gyatso, 2020-11-10 Apparitions of the Self is a groundbreaking investigation into what is known in Tibet as secret autobiography an exceptional rarely studied literary genre that presents a personal exploration of intimate religious experiences In this volume Janet Gyatso translates and studies the outstanding pair of secret autobiographies by the famed Tibetan Buddhist visionary Jigme Lingpa 1730-1798 whose poetic and self conscious writings are as much about the nature of his own identity memory and the undecidabilities of autobiographical truth as they are narrations of the actual content of his experiences Their translation in this book marks the first time that works of this sort have been translated in a Western language Gyatso is among the first to consider Tibetan literature from a comparative perspective examining the surprising fit as well as the misfit of Western literary theory with Tibetan autobiography She examines the intriguing questions of why Tibetan Buddhists produced so many autobiographies far more than other Asian Buddhists and how autobiographical self assertion is possible even while Buddhists believe that the self is ultimately an illusion Also explored are Jigme Lingpa s historical milieu his revelatory visions of the ancient Tibetan dynasty and his meditative practices of personal cultivation The book concludes with a study of the subversive female figure of the Dakini in Jigme Lingpa s writings and the implications of her gender her sexuality and her unsettling discourse for the autobiographical subject in Tibet
