The Uk Bullying And Hate Crime Handbook:

The Routledge International Handbook on Hate Crime Nathan Hall, Abbee Corb, Paul Giannasi, John Grieve, 2014-07-25 This edited collection brings together many of the world's leading experts both academic and practitioner in a single volume handbook that examines key international issues in the field of hate crime. Collectively it examines a range of pertinent areas with the ultimate aim of providing a detailed picture of the hate crime problem in different parts of the world. The book is divided into four parts: An examination covering theories and concepts of issues relating to definitions of hate crime; the individual and community impacts of hate crime; the controversies of hate crime legislation and theoretical approaches to understanding offending; An exploration of the international geography of hate in which each chapter examines a range of hate crime issues in different parts of the world including the UK, wider Europe, North America, Australia and New Zealand. Reflections on a number of different perspectives across a range of key issues in hate crime examining areas including particular issues affecting different victim groups; the increasingly important influence of the Internet and hate crimes in sport. A discussion of a range of international efforts being utilised to combat hate and hate crime. Offering a strong international focus and comprehensive coverage of a wide range of hate crime issues, this book is an important contribution to hate crime studies and will be essential reading for academics, students and practitioners interested in this field.
