Family Violence from a Communication Perspective Dudley D. Cahn, Sally A. Lloyd, 1996-04-16 Going beyond the traditional psychological and sociological approaches this ground breaking volume presents a new theoretical framework for understanding and resolving abusive family interactions it takes a communication perspective to examine the interactional processes at the core of domestic abuse aggression and violence Covering spouse child elderly parent and courtship abuse the contributors explore both commonalities and differences in emotional psychological verbal and sexual abuse They illustrate how these different types of abuse stem from problematic communication patterns integral to the power imbalance inherent in abusive relationships The contributors also suggest ways of modifying these patterns

Domestic Violence and Sexuality Catherine Donovan, Marianne Hester, 2015-10-07 The first detailed discussion of domestic violence and abuse in same sex relationships challenging the heteronormative model in domestic violence research policy and practice

The Dark Side of Families David Finkelhor, 1983-03 This series of articles portrays the state of the art on family violence and abuse research crystallizes the key interdisciplinary issues confronting family violence and abuse researchers and suggests a research agenda for the coming years Although the chapters cover a broad spectrum of issues and controversies in the areas of wife abuse child abuse the sexual abuse of children and marital rape a number of common themes and issues emerge First many chapters share the perspective that violence and abuse emerge from the nature of social arrangements Second even though many different forms of family violence and abuse are discussed several chapters explore their commonalities and important etiological differences A number of articles examine the common effects of victimization across various forms of family violence and abuse A third common theme of the papers is an expansion of research efforts to groups other than victims of family violence and abuse as there are chapters that examine the individual and social characteristics of male perpetrators of both wife abuse and child abuse as well as chapters that focus on the attitudes and behaviors of professional groups concerned with the treatment of victims of family violence and abuse The volume shows great methodological diversity and attention to theoretical detail the research presented reveals the possibility of a more comprehensive social science approach to the study of family violence and abuse In work related to theory building one chapter explains a number of findings in the child abuse and neglect literature using propositions derived from evolutionary biology another paper distills propositions from several theoretical traditions In conjunction with these efforts several chapters report research designed to test competing propositions Chapter references and research data are provided

Enhancing School Counseling With Technology and

Case Studies Çela, Eriona, Paliktzoglou, Vasileios, Sengar, Sandeep Singh, Eappen, Philip, Vajjhala, Narasimha

Rao, 2025-02-25 In today's educational landscape the integration of technology into school counseling has become a vital tool for enhancing student support and guidance. With advancements in digital platforms, school counselors can reach students effectively, streamline administrative tasks, and access valuable resources to address a wide range of academic, social, and emotional needs. Digital technology transforms school counseling practices, offering resources that enhance the effectiveness and accessibility of school counseling programs. Further research into school counseling technology may improve outcomes for students and contribute to a more inclusive, accessible, and responsive educational counseling environment. Enhancing School Counseling With Technology and Case Studies explores the integration of technology in school counseling as well as the various digital tools and platforms that enhance the effectiveness of school counseling. It presents detailed case studies that illustrate the successful implementation of these technologies in diverse school settings, providing best practices for integrating technology into counseling curricula, addressing ethical and legal considerations, and preparing for future trends in tech-enhanced counseling. This book covers topics such as digital technology, gamification, and telehealth and is a useful resource for educators, sociologists, psychologists, academicians, computer scientists, and researchers.

Domestic Violence

Law in India Shalu Nigam, 2021-07-08 This book examines the prevailing legal discourse surrounding domestic violence law in India. It investigates the myths, patriarchal stereotypes, and misconceptions that undermine the process of justice and dilute legal provisions to the detriment of survivors. The volume develops arguments based on legal case studies and draws extensively on knowledge from various fields of study as well as the experience of women survivors. Examines fallacies within the legal framework through a study of strategic lawsuits against public participation suits within the Indian context. Proposes measures for a fair and more gender-inclusive legal system that focuses on facilitating access to justice. Suggests that emphasis be laid on establishing the rule of law and eliminating the culture of violence. A key text on gender and law in India, this book will be indispensable to scholars and researchers of socio-legal studies, law, gender, human rights, women's studies, social science, political science, and feminist jurisprudence in South Asia. It will also be of interest to NGOs, activists, and lawyers.

Research Handbook on Domestic Violence and Abuse

Mandy Burton, Vanessa Bettinson, Kayliegh Richardson, Ana Speed, 2024-09-06 This Research Handbook examines the evolution of understandings and legal definitions of domestic abuse, illustrating the importance of expanding these beyond physical violence to encompass coercive control. Drawing on academic literature, legal doctrine, and the lived experiences of victims and survivors, it highlights how responses to domestic abuse can be improved in civil, family, and criminal justice systems.

Family Violence in the United States

Denise A. Hines, Kathleen Malley-Morrison, Leila B. Dutton, 2020-08-24 Family Violence in the United States takes an ecological approach to examining violence and abuse within the context of families. Easy-to-read chapters are organized by exploring the Scope of the Problem definitions of key terminology predictors and consequences of different forms of maltreatment Attention is paid to larger social systems that can contribute to abuse as well as community relationship and individual predictors of both perpetration and victimization Additionally there is an emphasis on both prevention and intervention of family violence at various levels of the ecological model Authors Denise A Hines Kathleen Malley Morrison and Leila B Dutton help students explore what family violence is and the reasons why it happens Their approach covers contemporary and controversial topics across the lifespan including maltreatment of male partners by women of parents within sexual minority relationships and on college campuses This 3rd edition is filled with chapter opening cases to prompt discussion within the classroom as well as considerations of context and application in the larger community Rich in scholarly references and case materials it is suitable for advanced undergraduates graduate students and professionals alike
