The Twenty First Century Confronts Its Gods Globalization Technology And War:

The Twenty-first Century Confronts Its Gods David J. Hawkin, 2012-02-01 This book penetrates the assumptions of Western technological society and exposes the powers that govern it The contributors argue that it is a mistake to think that religion and belief have been relegated to the private sphere and are no longer important in the public and political domains They assert that the twenty first century has a set of new gods the powers of globalization technology the market and military might that reign alongside those of traditional religions These are the forces to which the modern era has granted ultimacy This book looks at how major religions such as Christianity Islam Judaism Hinduism and Buddhism play an important role in politics and society on both the global and local levels The new gods of technology globalization and war are shown to exacerbate the existing cultural divisions and religious strife that mark our time By understanding the importance of that which is held sacred whether traditional belief or modern practice not acknowledged as belief the contributors help us to comprehend our present situation and challenges

The Twenty-first Century Confronts Its Gods David J. Hawkin, 2004-10-14 Maintains that the secular West has its gods such as market capitalism and that veneration of these contributes to the cultural and religious unrest of our time

Just War in Religion and Politics Jacob Neusner, Bruce D. Chilton, R. E. Tully, 2013-04-18 The basis of this collection of essays is the reading of a common topic from different perspectives Half of the book is devoted to the comparative study of religions and the courses are offered by religion professors The other half is shaped by social science approaches and the seminars are given mainly by social science professors We aim to compare and contrast not only positions but also methods of learning We examine theories of the just war in diverse cultural contexts and their disciplinary settings Space is devoted to the study of papers prepared for this project by specialists in various disciplines mainly but not exclusively faculty of Bard College and the United States Military Academy at West Point

Theology and Human Flourishing Mike Higton, Christopher Rowland, Jeremy Law, 2011-11-04 This collection of essays is a celebration of the work of Timothy Gorringer Like his theology it is animated by a delighted and critical engagement with the diverse facets of human social life and by a passionate concern to wrestle with the Bible and the Christian tradition in pursuit of human flourishing The built environment politics education art these essays by leading Christian theologians ask what it means for Christian theology to concern itself with to immerse itself in and to risk critical commentary on each of these and more The collection follows the same rhythm that animates Gorringer's work insistent attention to the Christian tradition in the light of the particular contexts where human flourishing is imagined fought for embodied and betrayed and a critical constructive and celebratory examination of those contexts in the light of the Christian tradition The contributions are very diverse touching on everything from city life to human curiosity poverty to genocide but they are united by a passion to make theological sense of human flourishing

The Gospel and Pluralism Today Scott W. Sunquist, Amos Yong, 2015-10-06 This collection of essays explores the legacy of Lesslie Newbigin's classic work The Gospel

in a Pluralist Society critically analyzing the nature of Western pluralism and discussing the influence of Newbigin's work on the field of missiology By looking backward this volume advances a vision for Christian witness in the pluralistic world of the twenty first century The Cost of Globalization Julian E. Kunnie, 2015-03-27 The issues arising from rapid global integration have generally been treated in isolation by most academic works This volume examines the many pitfalls of globalization from the perspective of impoverished and indigenous peoples including the widening wealth gap the struggle for restoration of dispossessed lands and cultural rights global warming and ecological annihilation and the experiences of women in underdeveloped regions The United States growing prison industrial complex is discussed The author concludes with a call for reassessing current ways of living and proposes recreating cultures of conservation and sustainable economies Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Globalization, Spirituality, and Justice Revised Edition Daniel G. Groody, 2015-10-15 A theological reading of globalization and a global reading of theology This book offers a rigorously critical and yet inspiring vision of justice as an integral part of Christian spirituality in our complex globalized world At the same time Daniel Groody's analysis draws on the conviction that faith and spirituality have an integral role in the struggle to achieve a more just social order Beyond Cutting Edge? Paul C. Heidebrecht, 2014-03-10 A quick scan of any newsstand is enough to confirm the widespread preoccupation with technological change As a myriad of articles and advertisements demonstrate not only are we preoccupied with technology but we are bombarded with numerous reminders that the cutting edge is in constant motion Most often the underlying assumption of Christians is that we have no choice but to find ways to cope with the latest and greatest Indeed it is often assumed that the church has no choice but to find ways to cope with its new technological context This book does not make the same assumptions Building on the work of Mennonite theologian John Howard Yoder it argues that the practices of the church make it possible for Christians to conscientiously engage technology This happens when we recognize that marks of the church such as patience vulnerability and servanthood can put technological ideals such as speed control and efficiency in their proper place In the course of grappling with three examples of morally formative technologies automobiles genetically modified food and the Internet this book goes beyond Yoder's thought by emphasizing that the church also plays a crucial role in our moral formation Changing Human Nature James Peterson, 2010-10-22 Nature around us and indeed our own human nature are constantly changing The question before us then is not if there will be change but rather whether we will be conscious and conscientious about the course of that change In Changing Human Nature James Peterson helps us to think through what our part should be from a Christian perspective Deus in Machina: Religion, Technology, and the Things in Between Jeremy Stolow, 2013 This interdisciplinary volume explores how two domains of human experience and action religion and technology are implicated in one another Combining rich historical and ethnographic detail with extended theoretical reflection Deus in Machina challenges longstanding assumptions about religion and as technology and outlines

The Dialogical Spirit II Amos Yong, 2024-09-05 The Dialogical Spirit II is a second collection of essays that demonstrates the dialectical contours of Amos Yong s critical pentecostal theology It is a montage of constructive engagements with various thinkers and ideas in the promotion of theological plurality for the third millennium With essays on Hegelian dialectics Buddhist Christian dialogue pneumatic missiology etc voice is generated for the renewal of relationality and the revival of imagination Free from the imposition of traditional boundaries Yong makes his way across differing landscapes of truth in a global environment gleaned from the activities of reflection and understanding therein Providing snapshots of Yong s theological development over decades of work The Dialogical Spirit II further evidences the vitality of pentecostal theology to emerging conversations in constructive and comparative venues

Contextual Missiology of the Spirit Wessly Lukose, 2013-01-01 This book explores the identity context and features of Pentecostalism in Rajasthan India as well as the internal and external issues facing Pentecostals It argues for an indigenous origin of Pentecostalism in Rajasthan as it is a product of local Spirit revivals in the existing churches and the missionary activities of Indian Pentecostals It also reveals that both the intra church as well as extra church issues place Pentecostals in a missio ethical dilemma The book aims to suggest a contextual missiology of the Spirit as a new model of contextual missiology from a Pentecostal perspective It is presented as a global ecumenical transformational and public missiology

Defining Islam Andrew Rippin, 2016-04-08 Ever since a group of people came into existence who called themselves Muslims and followed Islam questions of what it means to be a member of this group who is to be included excluded and what the requirements for membership are have proven to be both divisive and defining For scholars and critics the issue of what constitutes or defines Islam whether examining the history of the religion its specific traditions sectarian politics or acts of terrorist is central to any understanding of issues cultures and ideas Defining Islam brings together key classic and contemporary writings on the nature of Islam to provide student readers with the ideal collection of both primary and critical sources Religious

Freedom in India Goldie Osuri,2013 Drawing on the critical and theoretical concepts of sovereignty biopolitics and necropolitics this book examines how a normative liberal and secular understanding of India s religious identity is translatable by Hindu nationalists into discrimination and violence against minoritized religious communities Extending these concepts to an analysis of historical political and legal genealogies of conversion the author demonstrates how a concern for sovereignty links past and present anti conversion campaigns and laws The book illustrates how sovereignty informs the making of secularism as well as religious difference The focus on sovereignty sheds light on the manner in which religious difference becomes a point of reference for the religio secular idioms of Bombay cinema for legal judgements on communal violence for human rights organizations and those seeking justice for communal violence This wide ranging examination and discussion of the trajectories of anti conversion politics through historical legal philosophical popular cultural archival and ethnographic material offers a cogent argument for shifting the stakes and rethinking the relationship between sovereignty and religious freedom The book is a timely contribution to broader theoretical and political discussions of post secularism and human rights and is of interest to students and scholars of postcolonial studies cultural studies law and religious studies
