ABOUT THIS BOOK This book is intended as an introductory text for courses in English grammar at secondary and tertiary level It offers an outline account of the most important and central grammatical constructions and categories in English I have assumed only minimal prior familiarity with the structure of English all the grammatical terminology used is systematically explained The analysis draws on the descriptive and theoretical advances made in modern linguistics and for this reason the book could be used for an elementary course on English within a linguistics programme It is however intended for a wider audience for any course aiming to present a descriptive overview of the structure of English Significant departures from traditional grammar in analysis or terminology are pointed out normally in footnotes One distinctive feature of the book is that it discusses the major grammatical categories at both a language particular and a general level The language particular account gives the distinctive grammatical properties of the various categories as they apply to English it thus provides the criteria for determining whether some word is a noun verb adjective adverb or whatever whether some verb form is a past participle a past tense form etc whether some clause is declarative interrogative imperative exclamative and so on Analysis at the general level is concerned with what is common to the categories across languages thus providing criteria for the application of the same terms in the grammars of different languages Hope this book will remain as a friend in need in your daily life whenever you use English language as a communicative vehicle Prabir Rai Chaudhuri
