The Uncommon Life Of Common Objects:

The Uncommon Life of Common Objects Akiko Busch, 2005 In The Uncommon Life of Common Objects Akiko Busch devotes a chapter each to twelve objects looking at the reasons these items took the forms they did and discussing how everyday things acquire their significance through daily human experience Jacket

The Interiors Theory Primer William Mangold, 2025-07-31 In a world where life is increasingly defined by the spaces we inhabit understanding interiors is essential to understanding ourselves The Interiors Theory Primer maps the intellectual terrain of interior design and spatial experience introducing readers to key concepts that shape how people occupy interior spaces Organized into three parts this book begins with foundational concerns such as place identity materiality and atmosphere and then examines the boundaries and expertise of the discipline before turning to critical and emerging topics like biophilia virtuality and social justice Each chapter presents a focused literature review of a major theme in interiors theory supported by key design precedents and suggestions for further reading Drawing on a wide range of scholarship The Interiors Theory Primer offers a coherent framework for understanding interiors as a distinct interdisciplinary field deeply embedded in the human condition Accessible to students useful to professionals and provocative for scholars The Interiors Theory Primer argues that the designed environments in which we live work and gather deserve greater attention not only for their aesthetic and functional qualities but also for their powerful role in shaping contemporary life

Interacting with Objects Maurice Nevile, Pentti Haddington, Trine Heinemann, Mirka Rauniomaa, 2014-09-15 Objects are essential for how together people create and experience social life and relate to the physical environment around them Interacting with Objects Language materiality and social activity presents studies which use video recordings of real life settings to explore how objects feature in social interaction and activity The studies consider many objects e.g. paper documents food a camera art furniture and even the human body across various situations such as shopping visiting the doctor interviews and meetings surgery and instruction in dance craft or cooking Analyses reveal in precise detail how as people interact objects are seen touched and handled heard created transformed planned imagined shared discussed or appreciated With the companion collection Multiactivity in Social Interaction Beyond multitasking the book advances understanding of the complex organisation and accomplishment of social interaction especially the significance of embodiment materiality participation and temporality By focussing on objects in and for actual occasions of human action Interacting with Objects Language materiality and social activity will interest many researchers and practitioners in language and social interaction communication and discourse design and also more widely within anthropology sociology psychology and related disciplines

Objects and Materials Penny Harvey, Eleanor Casella, Gillian Evans, Hannah Knox, Christine McLean, Elizabeth B. Silva, Nicholas Thoburn, Kath Woodward, 2014-07-16 There is broad acceptance across the Humanities and Social Sciences that our deliberations on the social need to take place through attention to practice to object mediated relations to non human agency and to the affective dimensions of human sociality This Companion focuses on the objects and materials found at centre stage and asks what matters about objects Objects and Materials explores the field providing succinct summary accounts of contemporary scholarship along with a wealth of new research investigating the capacity of objects to shape unsettle and exceed expectations Original chapters from over forty international interdisciplinary contributors address an array of objects and materials to ask what the terms of collaborations with objects and materials are and to consider how these collaborations become integral to our understandings of the complex relational dynamics that fashion social worlds Objects and Materials will be of interest to students and scholars across the social sciences and humanities including in sociology social theory science and technology studies history anthropology archaeology gender studies women s studies geography cultural studies politics and international relations and philosophy limited language: rewriting design Colin Davies, Monika Parrinder, 2009-11-06 Limited Language is a web platform co founded in 2005 by Colin Davies University of Wolverhampton and Monika Parrinder Royal College of Art London for generating writing and discussion about the design process Over the last four years the site has collected a series of essays and commentary dealing with the key issues which effect and shape visual communication today limited language rewriting design examines the relationship between traditional printed formats the book and new digital ones blogging Hybrid media forms are already transforming design How might they be used to rethink design writing limited language rewriting design creates an alternative and innovative writing space the reflection and distance which can be offered only by a book Each of its sub sections comprises an article from the website followed by a reflection response to the topic by the responses raised on limitedlanguage.org while rich visual imagery in colour illustrates each article response This is a rare book about design that embraces ideas with as much enthusiasm as objects It illustrates its premise by showing feedback culture in action If you find yourself wanting to join in the dialogue with thoughts of your own and you will their website is ready and waiting Rick Poyner www.limitedlanguage.org

Terrestrial Lessons Sumathi Ramaswamy, 2017-10-03 Why and how do debates about the form and disposition of our Earth shape enlightened subjectivity and secular worldliness in colonial modernity Sumathi Ramaswamy explores this question for British India with the aid of the terrestrial globe which since the sixteenth century has circulated as a worldly symbol a scientific instrument and not least an educational tool for inculcating planetary consciousness In Terrestrial Lessons Ramaswamy provides the first in depth analysis of the globe s history in and impact on the Indian subcontinent during the colonial era and its aftermath Drawing on a wide array of archival sources she delineates its transformation from a thing of distinction possessed by elite men into that mass produced commodity used in classrooms worldwide the humble school globe Traversing the length and breadth of British India Terrestrial Lessons is an unconventional history of this master object of pedagogical modernity that will fascinate historians of cartography science and Asian studies Uncommon Beauty in Common Objects Nkiru Nzegwu,1993 Aesthetics of Care Yuriko

Saito,2022-07-14 Building upon her previous work on everyday aesthetics Yuriko Saito argues in this book that the aesthetic and ethical concerns are intimately connected in our everyday life Specifically she shows how aesthetic experience embodies a care relationship with the world and how the ethical relationship with others whether humans non human creatures environments or artifacts is guided by aesthetic sensibility and manifested through aesthetic means Weaving together insights gained from philosophy art design and medicine as well as artistic and cultural practices of Japan she illuminates the aesthetic dimensions of various forms of care in our management of everyday life Emphasis is placed on the experience of interacting with others including objects a departure from the prevailing mode of aesthetic inquiry that is oriented toward judgment making from a spectator s point of view Saito shows that when everyday activities ranging from having a conversation and performing a care act to engaging in self care and mending an object are ethically grounded and aesthetically informed and guided our experiences lead to a good life Qualitative Research Methods in Psychology:
