Viktor E. Frankl Anthology Timothy Lent, 2004-08-30 Introduction to Viktor E Frankl The Man and His Message Philosopher of Meaning Viktor Emil Frankl was a philosopher of meaning Even from his childhood days and into his adolescent years Frankl was concerned with meaning At the early age of four he vividly remembered the thought of his own mortality In his autobiography he recalled one evening

just before falling asleep I was startled by the unexpected thought that one day I too would have to die What troubled me then as it has done throughout my life was not the fear of dying but the question of whether the transitory nature of life might destroy its meaning Even as a teenager Frankl was on a quest for meaning searching for the answer to the question What is the meaning of life He wrote I well remember how I felt when I was exposed to reductionism in education as a junior high school student at the age of thirteen Once our natural science teacher told us that life in the final analysis was nothing but a combustion process an oxidation process I sprang to my feet and said Professor Fritz if this is the case what meaning does life have In 1921 as a high school student at the age of 16 he gave his first public lecture to an adult education school It was entitled The Meaning of Life For Frankl all of life was imbued with meaning no matter what situation in which one may find oneself no how well of ill chronically or terminally ill one was no matter where one was along life's journey no matter how badly a person may have wrecked his or her life In all of its various conditions life still has meaning as Frankl often said every life in every situation and to the last breath has a meaning retains a meaning He was emphatic The so called life not worth living does not exist Frankl was an amazing man who had an amazing message to tell men and women in the 20th century He was an extremely gifted human being a physician psychiatrist and philosopher

Searching for Meaning in the Holocaust Sidney M. Bolkosky, 2002-07-30 Scholars survivors and other interested parties have offered over the years their own interpretations of the meaning of the Holocaust and the lessons we can learn from it However the quest to find a rational explanation for this seemingly irrational course of events has led to both controversy and continued efforts at assigning meaning to this most horrible of events Examining oral histories provided by survivors written accounts and explanations scholarly analysis and commonly held assumptions Bolkosky challenges the usual collection of platitudes about the lessons or the meanings we can derive from the Holocaust Indeed he argues against the kind of reductionism that such a quest for meaning has led to and he analyzes the nature of the perpetrators in order to support his position on the inconclusivity of the study of the Holocaust Dealing with the perpetrators of the Holocaust as manifestations of twentieth century civilized trends foreseen by the likes of Kafka Ortega y Gasset Arthur Koestler and Max Weber Bolkosky suggests a new nature of evil and criminality along the lines developed by Hannah Arendt Raul Hilberg and Richard Rosenstein Woven into the fabric of the text are insights from literary and historical writers sociologists and philosophers This interdisciplinary attempt to shed new light on efforts to determine the meanings and lessons of the Holocaust provides readers with a challenging approach to considering the oral histories of survivors and the popular and professional assumptions surrounding this devastating moment in history Prisoners of Our Thoughts (EasyRead Super Large 24pt Edition),

Sin and Mental Ailments Paul Ungar, 2020-03-31 In Romans 7 15 St Paul expressed frustration with something all of us can relate to saying I do not understand what I do For what I want to do I do not do but what I hate I do Despite our best efforts to live our lives as we ought to we repeatedly fall into the trap of not understanding what we do and constantly perpetrating the same missteps we have previously vowed never to take again What is the reason of our deeply ingrained fallibility Christians do what they hate either because they consciously deliberately and sinfully transgress Jesus commands or because they are experiencing unintended and often unconscious symptoms of mental ailments The interconnectedness of sinful and psychologically disordered behaviors is undeniable Malignant selfishness which we recognize as sin is often linked to narcissistic character features Repeated belligerent acting out may be rooted in a paranoid mindset Emotional cruelty may be not freely chosen but tied to antisocial personality traits sinning against the sixth commandment can be driven by the illness of pedophilia The reverse is also true most mentally disordered behaviors involve some form of intentional and sinful violation of Jesus command Though the boundary between sin and sickness may appear fuzzy at times a thorough understanding of their interplay is of utmost importance when faced with matters of freedom of choice conscience responsibility and most of all pastoral care This comprehensive handbook on pastoral care successfully integrates the biblical and medical scientific perspectives on human anthropology mental illness and sin It expounds on the signs of all major mental ailments and provides recommendations for their pastoral and medical treatment Problems from psychoses to mood disorders suicide to sexual disturbances anxiety to addictive behaviors and ailments in between are explained Readers will find new insights on the ways in which various personality disorders interfere with spiritual functioning Developmental stages in life are also discussed together with the spiritual challenges they pose and the pastoral answers they call for This work does not shy away from controversial topics such as post abortion syndrome euthanasia gender ideology or the psychological aspects of atheism Soundly faith based yet well grounded in contemporary psychiatric knowledge this handbook captures a lifetime of learning and healing by practicing psychologist who holds an MD PhD and a graduate theology degree It is an indispensable practical reference for all pastoral workers
