The Unit Trade Paper Ninni Holmqvist:

The Publishers Weekly, 2009 The Aging-Disability Nexus Katie Aubrecht, Christine Kelly, Carla Rice, 2020-06-01 As the global population ages disability demographics are shifting Societal transformation and global health inequities have changed who is likely to reach old age who is likely to live with disability and the relationship between aging and disability in various socio cultural and geopolitical contexts The Aging Disability Nexus breaks new ground by bringing gerontology and disability studies into dialogue with each other through a variety of empirical conceptual and pedagogical approaches Contributors explore the tensions that shape the way disability and aging are understood experienced and responded to at both individual and systemic levels while avoiding the common tendency to conflate these overlapping elements and map them onto a normative faulty notion of the human life trajectory This perceptive work analyzes the distinction between aging with a disability and aging into disability and reveals how multiple identities socio economic forces culture and community give form to our experiences
