Unforgivable Blackness The Rise And Fall Of Jack Johnson:

Unforgivable Blackness Geoffrey C. Ward, 2010-08-04 In this vivid biography Geoffrey C Ward brings back to life the most celebrated and the most reviled African American of his age Jack Johnson battled his way out of obscurity and poverty in the Jim Crow South to win the title of heavyweight champion of the world At a time when whites ran everything in America he took orders from no one and resolved to live as if color did not exist While most blacks struggled simply to exist he reveled in his riches and his fame sleeping with whomever he pleased to the consternation and anger of much of white America Because he did so the federal government set out to destroy him and he was forced to endure prison and seven years of exile This definitive biography portrays Jack Johnson as he really was a battler against the bigotry of his era and the embodiment of American individualism

When the Heavyweight Title Mattered

John G. Robertson, 2019-05-30 The world heavyweight boxing championship once transcended the sport conferring global renown This book gives detailed coverage to five legendary championship bouts that captivated audiences worldwide Coaxed out of retirement by the press former champ James J Jeffries challenged black titleholder Jack Johnson universally despised by white audiences in 1910 in hopes of returning the title to the white race In 1921 dapper World War I hero and light heavyweight champion Georges Carpentier hoped to upset heavyweight champ Jack Dempsey widely considered a draft dodger in a fight that garnered the first million dollar gate In perhaps the most politically charged bout ever Brown Bomber Joe Louis popular with both white and black America faced Nazi Germany's Max Schmeling the first ever to win the title by disqualification at a sold out Yankee stadium in 1938 A relentless brawler undefeated Rocky Marciano in 1952 sought to bludgeon the title away from the more experienced and savvy Joe Walcott at 38 the oldest heavyweight champ in history In a monumental clash of two undefeated world champions Muhammad Ali on the comeback trail after his title was stripped from him for refusing to be drafted during the Vietnam War squared off with titleholder Joe Frazier in 1971

Documenting the Black Experience Novotny Lawrence, 2014-11-19 History taught at the elementary middle high school and even college levels often excludes significant events from African American history such as the murder of Emmett Till or the murder of four black girls by the Ku Klux Klan in the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church bombing in Birmingham Such events are integral parts of history that continue to inform America's racial politics Their exclusion is a problem that this work addresses by bringing more visibility to documentary films focusing on the events Books treating the history of documentary films follow a similar pattern omitting the efforts of filmmakers who have continued to focus on African American history This book works to make documentary discourse more complete bringing attention to films that cover the African American experience in four areas civil rights sports electronic media and the contemporary black struggle demonstrating how the issues continue to inform America's racial politics
