Confronting Injustice without Compromising Truth

Thaddeus J. Williams, 2020-12-22 God does not suggest he commands that we do justice Social justice is not optional for the Christian All injustice affects others so talking about justice that isn't social is like talking about water that isn't wet or a square with no right angles But the Bible's call to seek justice is not a call to superficial kneejerk activism We are not merely commanded to execute justice but to truly execute justice The God who commands us to seek justice is the same God who commands us to test everything and hold fast to what is good Drawing from a diverse range of theologians sociologists artists and activists Confronting Injustice without Compromising Truth by Thaddeus Williams makes the case that we must be discerning if we are to truly execute justice as Scripture commands Not everything called social justice today is compatible with a biblical vision of a better world The Bible offers hopeful and distinctive answers to deep questions of worship community salvation and knowledge that ought to mark a uniquely Christian pursuit of justice Topics addressed include Racism Sexuality Socialism Culture War Abortion Tribalism Critical Theory Identity Politics Confronting Injustice without Compromising Truth also brings in unique voices to talk about their experiences with these various social justice issues including Michelle Lee Barnwall Suresh Budhaprithi Eddie Byun Freddie Cardoza Becket Cook Bella Danusiar Monique Duseon Ojo Okeye Edwin Ramirez Samuel Sey Neil Shenvi Walt Sobchak In Confronting Injustice without Compromising Truth Thaddeus Williams transcends our religious and political tribalism and challenges readers to discover what the Bible and the example of Jesus have to teach us about justice He presents a compelling vision of justice for all God's image bearers that offers hopeful answers to life's biggest questions

A Revitalization of Images

Gregory C. Higgins, 2019-03-05 The philosopher theologian and biblical scholar Austin Farrer 1904-1968 highlighted in his various writings the central role that images play in the interpretation of biblical writings the construction of theological arguments and the descriptions of the Christian spiritual life Theologians down through the centuries have sought to revitalize the central biblical images as they addressed the pressing theological moral and spiritual questions of their day A Revitalization of Images offers students the opportunity to participate in this ongoing creative engagement with ten dominant biblical images that continue to shape the church's beliefs and practices as well as each Christian's own spiritual journey Sound theology is rooted in Scripture conversant with past thinkers and engaged in the present life of the church This dynamic directly informs Revitalization In each chapter we begin with a biblical image that has figured prominently in the Christian theological tradition Next we examine two prominent voices from the Christian tradition who have drawn upon the image when crafting a compelling vision of the Christian life We then turn our attention to a contemporary thinker who has incorporated or critiqued the image in his or her own theological work This discussion is set within the current spectrum of theological positions including orthodox liberal postliberal and postmodern perspectives

A Feminist Companion to the Apocalypse of John Amy-Jill

Levine,2010-05-05 The thirteenth volume in this landmark series examines the Revelation of John through the categories of post colonial thought deconstruction ethics Roman social discourse masculinization virginity and violence The reach of this volume therefore goes beyond that of most feminist studies of Revelation which frequently focus on the female imagery the Thyatiran prophet called Jezebel the Woman Clothed with the Sun the Whore of Babylon and the Bride the Heavenly Jerusalem The symbols of Revelation remain open and interpretations continue Some readers will refuse to rejoice at the dismemberment of the Woman who is Babylon they will resist the masochistic infantile self abasement before this imperial Deity who rules by patriarchal domination Others will conclude that these descriptions are only metaphors separate from substance and worship the transcendent to which the metaphors imperfectly point Some readers will understand if not fully condone John s rhetoric by seeking his political and social location others will condone if not fully understand how the Apocalypse can provide comfort to those undergoing persecution or deprivation Some readers may reject the coercive aspects of a choice between spending eternity in praise of the divine or being tortured with fire and sulfur others may rejoice in their own salvation while believing that those being tortured deserve every pain inflicting upon them still others may use mimicry or parody or anachronistic analogy to challenge defang or replace John s message What we find behind the veil may be beautiful or terrifying or both but we cannot avert our eyes John s vision is too influential today in our own political climate not to look for ourselves The Feminist Companion to the Apocalypse of John includes contributions by David L Barr Mary Ann Beavis Greg Carey Adela Yarbro Collins Lynn R Huber Catherine Keller John Marshall Stephen Moore Jorunn Kland Hanna Stenström Pamela Thimmes and Carolyn Vander Stichele There is an introduction by Amy Jill Levine and a comprehensive bibliography
