STATEN ISLAND MEMOIRS John Latka, 2006-03-30 Lost love haunts many as they age but in Staten Island Memoirs Paris Polanski creates a fictitious love affair with a beautiful face from the past he cannot forget Paris has led a full life that lacks only one thing the love of a beautiful woman he met 43 years ago The woman in question is the real life equivalent to Helen the central character in the novel modeled after the Greek Goddess Helen of Troy The story opens with Paris Polanski in his home in Grant City Staten Island Not being able to find his long lost love Paris creates a work of fiction in which he recreates his life by falling in love with marrying and becoming part of Helen s life thus showing just how far one man s obsession will go to remove the sorrow of lost love The story then goes back in time and continues Paris Polanski as a young man secretly in love with a nameless beautiful young woman Shy and lacking self esteem he is unable to express his feelings for her and loses her to another man After serving in the US Navy Paris attends a New York City college and during one of his classes he dreams of his ideal woman in the image and likeness of Helen of Troy A year later Paris sees the same young woman Helen Jones a student at Wilson College She is smart beautiful and popular and comes from a wealthy family Paris on the other hand comes from a middle class family dresses poorly and is not blessed with the social graces Engaged to a handsome young Ivy League attorney Helen learns he has been cheating and ends the relationship A Game of Two Halves Archie Macpherson, 2009-10-08 For four decades Archie Macpherson has been one of Britain s finest football commentators Instantly recognisable he s never been short of an opinion or far from controversy After joining the BBC full time in 1969 he established himself not only as one of our foremost commentators but also as a cult figure in our national life In A Game of Two Halves Archie Macpherson gives us his unique perspective on his life and career As well as brilliant anecdotes including his battles with Jock Stein friendship and a spectacular falling out with Alex Ferguson interviewing Terry Wogan in LA in a Jacuzzi in an open top limousine and the Scotland football manager who took delivery of a plain white envelope Archie Macpherson also tackles tough issues like sectarianism the sad decline of commercial television and the future of the beautiful game A Game of Two Halves is a candid entertaining and thought provoking autobiography which brings Archie Macpherson s story and his passion for football to life with all his characteristic insight humour and honesty Organic Revolutionary Gershuny Grace Gershuny, 2020-03-01 An influential founding member of the American organic agriculture movement and a long time organic farmer Grace Gershuny gives us one of the most comprehensive and deeply personal accounts of adventures in that movement ever written A principal author of the USDA s first proposed National Organic rule Gershuny left the National Organic Program staff just before the final rule was published The complicated story of that movement for nationwide organic regulations which consumed Gershuny s life for five years is interwoven here with her own personal timeline before during and after the arduous federal process This memoir explores how the organic revolution became rooted well before the US federal government cared to notice Gershuny asks important ongoing questions about the organic movement that still aren t receiving enough attention such as whether organic standards should be consumer or farmer driven and if organic agriculture architecture will be able to maintain its principles as it becomes mainstream Entertaining yet urgent Organic Revolutionary thoughtfully details the personal political and practical struggles that ensued in the heroic effort to push the organic movement beyond farmers markets and into supermarkets Book Review Digest

Most of us take for granted the freedoms this country has been blessed with but freedom is not free This is my story a simple southern boy from Arkansas who at the age of eleven wanted to be a marine I found myself in the Vietnam War at the age of eighteen that pushed me to the limit physically and psychologically The images I carry in my mind are still horrifying at times and for many years I blamed myself for my fallen comrades Feelings of anger hate guilt and bitterness were trapped within my soul and ate at me a little each day until there was no more of me left Miraculously I was redeemed when I re found my faith in God and the soul mate who helped me through it all I truly hope you enjoy reading it as much as I enjoyed writing it Semper Fi America ,1938-04 The Use of Words in Context John W.
