The Universe And The Mad Butterfly:

The Universe and the Mad Butterfly Pratish Mistry, 2006-01-01 Mistry takes the reader on a journey to explore different perspectives on life spirituality and the world The thought provoking book is written in a form of Haiku verse and stimulates the reader to discover a new outlook on past experiences and an increased self awareness Philosophy Eulba Michele Duva, 2015-06-23 Eulba a physicist and mathematician exploring modern theories on the universe is equally immersed in the myths of the Mayan culture She enjoys a unique romantic relationship with her boyfriend Beloved They are entangled in a relationship imbued with bliss love math myth and science which remarkably continues even after his ill fated death Through a series of life altering events Eulba shuttles between myth and science accepting the myths of the Maya and finally entering the myth itself through an act of self sacrifice at the end of the Mayan Long Count calendar She comes to understand that myth and science mirror each other while representing the same reality from different vantage points Nature remains the same while our beliefs and knowledge change Eulba and Beloved s everlasting unbounded love becomes an underlying powerful creative force that permeates everything embracing both the Mayan myths and parallel universes The New Real Jonathan E. Abel, 2023-01-31 Unlocking a vital understanding of how literary studies and media studies overlap and are bound together A synthetic history of new media reception in modern and contemporary Japan The New Real positions mimesis at the heart of the media concept Considering both mimicry and representation as the core functions of mediation and remediation Jonathan E Abel offers a new model for media studies while explaining the deep and ongoing imbrication of Japan in the history of new media From stereoscopy in the late nineteenth century to emoji at the dawn of the twenty first Abel presents a pioneering history of new media reception in Japan across the analog and digital divide He argues that there are two realities created by new media one marketed to us through advertising that proclaims better faster and higher resolution connections to the real and the other experienced by users whose daily lives and behaviors are subtly transformed by the presence and penetration of the content carried through new media Intervening in contemporary conversations about virtuality copyright copycat violence and social media each chapter unfolds with a focus on a single medium or technology including 3D photographs the phonograph television videogames and emoji By highlighting the tendency of the mediated to copy the world and the world to copy the mediated The New Real provides a new path for analysis of media culture and their function in the world The New Statesman, 1925 Class List ...: English prose fiction. 1897 St. Louis Public Library, 1903 The Oxford Handbook of Japanese Cinema Daisuke Miyao, 2014 The reality of transnational innovation and dissemination of new technologies including digital media has yet to make a dent in the deep seated culturalism that insists on reinscribing a divide between the West and Japan The Oxford Handbook of Japanese Cinema aims to counter this trend toward dichotomizing the West and Japan and to challenge the pervasive culturalism of today s film and media studies Featuring twenty essays each authored by a leading researcher in the field this volume addresses productive debates about where Japanese cinema is and where Japanese cinema is going at the period of crisis of national boundary under globalization It reevaluates the position of Japanese cinema within the discipline of cinema and media studies and beyond and situates Japanese cinema within the broader fields of transnational film history Likewise it examines the materiality of Japanese cinema scrutinizes cinema's relationship to other media and identifies the specific practices of film production and reception As a whole the volume fosters a dialogue between Japanese scholars of Japanese cinema film scholars of Japanese cinema based in Anglo American and European countries film scholars of non Japanese cinema film archivists film critics and filmmakers familiar with film scholarship A comprehensive volume that grasps Japanese cinema under the rubric of the global and also fills the gap between Japanese and non Japanese film studies and between theories and practices The Oxford Handbook of Japanese Cinema challenges and responds to the major developments underfoot in this rapidly changing field

Ghilea, 2018-09-02 Once upon a time I dreamed I was a butterfly This is how Chuang Tzu's famous anecdote begins It is a short parable about the relativity of perception written more than two thousand years ago Many of us have experienced similar situations and wondered at times if we could tell dreams from reality Butterfly's Dream expands Chuang Tzu's story into a surreal quest of adventure romance and self discovery at the end of the 18th century Despite the fantasy like atmosphere the novel accurately follows the laws of physics and would best fit into the hard sci fi category Alberto is the second lieutenant on Excelsior a military brig involved mostly on sea patrolling missions He has a keen interest in science and a mind inclined towards exploration and introspection Most of his sailing trips are uneventful with his ship transporting troops and ammunition to various locations managed by the navy But things are about to change When the ship encounters a magnetic storm the crew members find themselves sailing in uncharted waters The next day Excelsior casts anchor at the pier of a mysterious city that doesn't seem to be located on Earth Soon Alberto becomes involved in complex events that make him question the surrounding reality and even his sanity The fabulous world he gets to explore looks nothing like the world from his space and time And what are space and time after all In this place so different from Earth Alberto meets Nivit a beautiful and accomplished physician and falls in love with her Soon they are swept into an unexpected journey of adventure and self discovery that carries them through stranger and stranger realms and realities Can the rational mind defy the irrational Can love defend against extreme weather and death Does time always flow in the same direction What is real What is a dream A mirror reflecting itself What would it show A mirror reflecting another mirror What would it see Look inside the mirror open the door step onto the path stretching beyond its surface and you might find out Are you ready If you enjoy reading this story I have a favor to ask Please write a review
