The Things They Carried:

The Things They Carried Tim O'Brien, 1990 One of the first questions people ask about The Things They Carried is this Is it a novel or a collection of short stories The title page refers to the book simply as a work of fiction defying the conscientious reader's need to categorize this masterpiece It is both a collection of interrelated short pieces which ultimately reads with the dramatic force and tension of a novel Yet each one of the twenty-two short pieces is written with such care emotional content and prosaic precision that it could stand on its own The Things They Carried depicts the men of Alpha Company Jimmy Cross Henry Dobbins Rat Kiley Mitchell Sanders Norman Bowker Kiowa and of course the character Tim O'Brien who has survived his tour in Vietnam to become a father and writer at the age of forty-three They battle the enemy or maybe more the idea of the enemy and occasionally each other In their relationships we see their isolation and loneliness their rage and fear They miss their families their girlfriends and buddies they miss the lives they left back home Yet they find sympathy and kindness for strangers the old man who leads them unscathed through the mine field the girl who grieves while she dances and love for each other because in Vietnam they are the only family they have We hear the voices of the men and build images upon their dialogue The way they tell stories about others we hear them telling stories about themselves With the creative verve of the greatest fiction and the intimacy of a searing autobiography The Things They Carried is a testament to the men who risked their lives in America's most controversial war It is also a mirror held up to the frailty of humanity Ultimately The Things They Carried and its myriad protagonists call to order the courage determination and luck we all need to survive In 1979 Tim O'Brien's Going After Cacciato a novel about the Vietnam War won the National Book Award In this his second work of fiction about Vietnam O'Brien's unique artistic vision is again clearly demonstrated Neither a novel nor a short story collection it is an arc of fictional episodes taking place in the childhoods of its characters in the jungles of Vietnam and back home in America two decades later

War in Tim O'Brien's The Things They Carried Gary Wiener, 2011-06-13 This did not happen is a common refrain throughout the stories in The Things They Carried Tim O'Brien's account of the Vietnam War purposely blurs the line between fact and fiction to get closer to the truth of what soldiers actually experienced This compelling volume explores the life of Tim O'Brien and his attempts to wrestle with the trauma and shame of war in The Things They Carried A collection of related essays explore topics such as the moral complexity of war writing as a path to spiritual redemption and the novel's portrayal of gender Contemporary perspectives on war such as the need to help soldiers suffering from PTSD and not repeating the mistakes of Vietnam are also presented A Trauma Artist Mark A.

Heberle, 2001-04 Based on recent conversations with Tim O'Brien previously published interviews and new readings of all his works including Tomcat in Love this book is the first study to concentrate on the role and representation of trauma as the central focus of all O'Brien's works Book jacket Truth and Fiction in Tim O'Brien's "The things they carried" Larissa Pörtl, 2016-09-05 Seminar paper from the year 2011 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 2.7 University of Mannheim Anglistisches Seminar course In Times of Crisis Representations of War in American Literature and Film from the Civil War to Iraq language English abstract In the book The things they carried by Tim O'Brien the narrator says that a good war story is never true He admits that nearly everything in the book is made up after saying that it is true before However the reader learns that not until the 7th chapter in which O'Brien the narrator tells the reader that everything up to now has been invented Similarly he leaves open if some things are true or not Even the narrator who is named like the author himself is made up and has no or little similarity to the author e.g. the author O'Brien does not have a daughter whereas the narrator O'Brien does Reading The things they carried a question keeps coming up again and again Why does he do that Why does Tim O'Brien the narrator constantly tell the reader that everything is made up It does not make any sense The reader just gets confused In addition to this question I found myself wondering if there was a clear difference between truth and fiction in the book namely if you could say this is true and this is untrue and this is certain and this is uncertain And if yes was it O'Brien's intention to draw this clear line or did it just happen by accident Of course one cannot know everything for certain and no one can look into O'Brien's brain but you can make assumptions based on the knowledge you have In my paper I will focus mainly on the aspect why the principle of truth and fiction is used in The things they carried and which effects come out of that I think this is very interesting because in my opinion this is the main aspect of the whole book Someone who reads it will not be able to stop themselves from asking questions in their head The main process while reading is that you just keep asking yourself these questions again and again and you cannot find any answer to them My goal however is not to find any answers but to try to explain this aspect truth and fiction as a whole and to examine what it might contribute to describe the Vietnam war Tim O'Brien's The Things They Carried Harold Bloom, 2011 Presents a collection of critical essays that discuss the characters themes and plots of the composite novel The Things They Carried Rachel Nolan, 2009
