training academic and voluntary settings negotiated and reflective learning assessment issues arising from the functions of groups experiences of being trainees first hand accounts from practitioners of the challenges they faced in their training The counsellors trainers and supervisors who share their research and experience as reflective practitioners provide a clear analysis of the balancing act involved in any adult learning The Hand of Addiction Weston Robins, 2024-08-12 The Hand of Addiction maps out addiction from an innovative and holistic perspective challenging the pervasive discourses surrounding addiction in many fields Using the metaphor of a hand the author examines addiction through five conceptual lenses biomedical psychological sociocultural developmental and spiritual The book successfully integrates Gregory Bateson's understanding of the human hand and further extends it to the study of addiction studying the relationships between the different fingers lenses to reveal how the study of addiction so far has been myopic and compartmentalized Using an autoethnographic approach the author constructs a transcontextual mapping of the potential of addiction and challenges what we claim to know about addiction aiming to understand addiction from a novel perspective The book also discusses practical strategies that can be used to support those with addiction in various forms An important contribution to the literature on addiction studies this book will be of great interest to academics and postgraduate students in the fields of psychology sociology cultural studies and other related disciplines It will also be relevant for those interested in the philosophy and ethnography of addiction or those working in mental health
