Baudrillard, Youth, and American Film Kip Kline, 2016-05-26 Baudrillard Youth and American Film examines the portrayal of youth in American cinema with Jean Baudrillard's radical social theory and philosophical system Kline uses Baudrillard's corpus to analyze the troubling effects of the portrayal of youth in American teen films namely its contribution to discursive violence against young people which holds such a prominent place in many adult controlled modern institutions like schools This kind of violence has multiple iterations including the inability to imagine youth as meaningful political actors the insistence on taking teenagers to be morally impoverished and the propensity for viewing young people as thoroughly heteronomous While there are certainly pockets of exception violent discourses often animate institutional disregard for youth Kline promotes Baudrillard's fatal theory as a way for critical educators philosophers sociologists and other concerned pedagogues to argue for an alteration in the way that youth is portrayed in American films and to discourage the negative discourse that have colonized conceptions and treatment of young people

Liminality and the Short Story Jochen Achilles, Ina Bergmann, 2014-12-05 This book is a study of the short story one of the widest taught genres in English literature from an innovative methodological perspective Both liminality and the short story are well researched phenomena but the combination of both is not frequent This book discusses the relevance of the concept of liminality for the short story genre and for short story cycles emphasizing theoretical perspectives methodological relevance and applicability Liminality as a concept of demarcation and mediation between different processual stages spatial complexes and inner states is of obvious importance in an age of global mobility digital networking and interethnic transnationality Over the last decade many symposia exhibitions art and publications have been produced which thematize liminality covering a wide range of disciplines including literary geographical psychological and ethnicity studies Liminal structuring is an essential aspect of the aesthetic composition of short stories and the cultural messages they convey On account of its very brevity and episodic structure the generic liminality of the short story privileges the depiction of transitional situations and fleeting moments of crisis or decision It also addresses the moral transgressions heterotopic orders and forms of ambivalent self reflection negotiated within the short story s confines This innovative collection focuses on both the liminality of the short story and on liminality in the short story Narrative Innovation and Cultural Rewriting in the Cold War Era and After M. Cornis-Pope, 2016-04-30 Narrative Innovation and Cultural Rewriting undertakes a systematic study of postmodernism s responses to the polarized ideologies of the postwar period that have held cultures hostage to a confrontation between rival ideologies abroad and a clash between champions of uniformity and disruptive others at home Considering a broad range of narrative projects and approaches from polysystemic fiction to surfiction postmodern feminism and multicultural postcolonial fiction this book highlights their solutions to ontological division real vs imaginary wordly and other worldly sociocultural oppositions of race class gender and narratological dualities imitation vs invention realism vs formalism A thorough rereading of the best experimental work published in the US since the mid 1960s reveals the fact that innovative fiction has been from the beginning concerned with redefining the relationship between history and fiction narrative and cultural articulation Stepping back from traditional polarizations innovative novelists have tried to envision an alternative history of irreducible particularities excluded middles and creative intercrossings Crime Fiction and the Holocaust Eric Sandberg, 2025-07-02 This book explores a wide range of twentieth and twenty first century international fiction that engages with the Holocaust and its historical legacy It examines the use of tropes of crime and detection in the representation of historical atrocity in both explicit crime fiction and in literary fiction that relies on some of crime fiction s signature techniques Crime Fiction and the Holocaust asks why patterns of detection have become a favoured method of fictional engagement with the Holocaust considers the ethical and textual problematics of fictional encounters with real world suffering and delineates crime fiction s formal and thematic contributions to the broader project of Holocaust fiction Deconstruction and the Reminders of Phenomenology Tilottama Rajan, 2002 This book disentangles two terms that were conflated in the initial Anglo American appropriation of French theory deconstruction and poststructuralism Focusing on Sartre Derrida Foucault and Baudrillard but also considering Levinas Blanchot de Man and others it traces the turn from a deconstruction inflected by phenomenology to a poststructuralism formed by the rejection of models based on consciousness in favor of ones based on language and structure The book provides a wide ranging and complex genealogy of French theory from the 1940s onward placing particular emphasis on the largely neglected early work of the theorists involved and on deconstruction s continuing relevance The author argues that deconstruction is a form of radical antiscientific modernity an interdisciplinary reconfiguration of philosophy as it confronted the positivism of the human sciences in the 1960s By contrast poststructuralism is a type of postmodern theory inflected by changes in technology and the mode of information Inasmuch as poststructuralism is founded upon its constitutive loss of phenomenology in Judith Butler s phrase the author is also concerned with the ways phenomenology particularly Sartre s forgotten but seminal Being and Nothingness is remembered repeated in different ways and never quite worked through in its theoretical successors Thus the book also exemplifies a way of reading intellectual history that is not only concerned with the transmission of concepts but also with the processes of transference mourning and disavowal that inform the relationships between bodies of thought
