The University Of Chicago The Campus Guide An Architectural Tour:

The University of Chicago Jay Pridmore, 2006 University of Chicago Jay Pridmore, 2006-02-02 The newest title in the Princeton Architectural Press Campus Guide series takes readers on a tour of the University of Chicago an institution that since its founding in 1890 has exerted a profound impact on American higher education This elegantly written guide shows the campus as a wonderfully eccentric and vastly underappreciated element of Chicagos revered built environment Designed in the English Gothic style of its time the original campus planned by Chicago architect Henry Ives Cobb had a commonality of vision that made it equal in quality to the finest in America As the traditional reliance on the Gothic gave way to modernist styles the campus was expanded with buildings by such notable architects as Eero Saarinen Mies van der Rohe Frank Lloyd Wright and Walter Netsch The university s most recent additions include Cesar Pelli s 2003 Gerald Ratner Athletics Center and Rafael Violy s Graduate School of Business complex Beautifully photographed in full color the guide presents an architectural walk of this campus distinguished by landmark buildings Northwestern University Jay

Pridmore, 2009-07-01 Northwestern University The Campus Guide takes readers on a vivid trip through this campus s compelling history from the 19th century to the present day This highly illustrated guide presents a wide variety of buildings ranging from Prairie style to Collegiate Gothic by historically important architects like Charles Coolidge Daniel Burnham and Company and Skidmore Owings Merrill and landscape designs by Jens Jensen Insightfully written by Jay Pridmore Northwestern University The Campus Guide reveals the stories behind the buildings residences and landscapes of the Northwestern campus Exquisitely painted three dimensional maps locate the buildings in nine architectural walks covering both the Evanston and Chicago sections of the campus and exploring Northwestern s unique relationship with its urban surroundings Building Ideas Jay Pridmore, 2013-07-22 Many books have been written about the University of Chicago over its 120 year history but most of them focus on the intellectual environment favoring its great thinkers and their many breakthroughs Yet for the students and scholars who live and work here the physical university its stately buildings and beautiful grounds forms an important part of its character Building Ideas An Architectural Guide to the University of Chicago explores the environment that has supported more than a century of exceptional thinkers This photographic guide traces the evolution of campus architecture from the university s founding in 1890 to its plans for the twenty first century When William Rainey Harper the university s first president and the trustees decided to build a set of Gothic quadrangles they created a visual link to European precursors and made a bold statement about the future of higher education in the United States Since then the university has regularly commissioned forward thinking architects to design buildings that expand or explode traditional ideals while redefining the contemporary campus Full of panoramic photographs and exquisite details Building Ideas features the work of architects such as Frank Lloyd Wright Henry Ives Cobb Holabird Roche Eero Saarinen Ludwig Mies van der Rohe Walter Netsch Ricardo Legorreta Rafael Violy C sar Pelli Helmut Jahn and Tod Williams Billie Tsien

Architects The guide also includes guest commentaries by prominent architects and other notable public figures It is the perfect collection for Chicago alumni and students Hyde Park residents and visitors and anyone inspired by the institutional ideas and aspirations of architecture
