

The background of the slide is a deep space scene. It features a large, vibrant blue and green nebula on the left side. Scattered throughout the dark space are numerous stars of varying brightness. In the upper right, there is a small, reddish-brown planet. In the lower right, a comet with a bright white head and a long, faint tail is visible. The overall color palette is dominated by the blues, purples, and greens of the nebulae and the black of the void.

The Unobstructed Universe Stewart Edward White, 1941 Stewart Edward White 12 March 1873 September 18 1946 was an American writer novelist and spiritualist Starting in 1922 he and his wife Elizabeth Betty Grant White wrote numerous books that according to them were received through channelling with spirits Wikipedia The Unobstructed Universe Stewart Edward White, 1988-01-01 An undisputed classic in the field of psychic exploration The Unobstructed Universe is as important to human understanding as the tales of Marco Polo six hundred years ago This book records the discoveries of Stewart White as he explored the terrain and topography of the inner dimensions of life The Unobstructed Universe Stewart Edward White, 2020-04-06 Stewart Edward White gained famous author first in adventure stories and Western tales and then came the books about Betty his wife The Unobstructed Universe is based on communications White received through a medium from Betty who had died in 1939 A great masterpiece which borders on science giving tantalising views of what we might expect in a future life No angels not even bright white light at the end of a tunnel but thought provoking and challenging White beautifully summarises his work In answer to the desperate need of a stricken world this book offers a new pattern for individual and social living based on recapture of faith not in the there ness of immortality but in its here ness To all who wants to come to terms with their spiritual path and immortality The Unobstructed Universe Stewart Edward White, 2017-03-22 This is the third volume of The Betty Collection a series of books written by American author Stewart Edward White on his psychic experiences together with his wife Betty White An undisputed classic in the field of psychic exploration it records White s discoveries as he explored the terrain and topography of the inner dimensions of life

Handbook to the Afterlife Pamela Rae Heath, Jon Klimo, 2011-07-05 Two seasoned experts with decades of experience working with channeled material describe the various stages of life after death Just as life itself has different stages of growth and development so does the afterlife In this useful handbook authors Pamela Rae and Jon Klimo demonstrate how dying and rebirth are much like life continuous processes Beginning with the moment of death itself progressing through different transitional stages and ending with the return of spirits to the physical plane they define the purposes and pitfalls of each stage They look at the kinds of adjustment problems that occur in each phase and how spirits can be helped to move forward Questions of pain and emotional state at the time of death karma and reincarnation are sensitively addressed The book includes practical techniques for opening communication with those who have passed on to the other side While of interest to anyone seeking a general overview of the subject Handbook to the Afterlife is particularly useful for those dealing with spirits who have not moved on such as ghosts Javaphilia Henry Spiller, 2015-03-31 Fragrant tropical flowers opulent batik fabrics magnificent bronze gamelan orchestras and of course aromatic coffee Such are the exotic images of Java Indonesia s most densely populated island that have hovered at the periphery of North American imaginations for generations Through close readings of the careers of four javaphiles individuals who embraced Javanese performing arts in their own quests for a sense of belonging Javaphilia American Love Affairs with Javanese Music and Dance explores a century of American representations of Javanese performing arts by North Americans While other Asian cultures made direct impressions on Americans by virtue of firsthand contacts through immigration trade and war the distance between Java and America and the vagueness of Americans imagery enabled a few disenfranchised musicians and dancers to fashion alternative identities through bold and idiosyncratic representations of Javanese music and dance Javaphilia s main subjects Canadian born singer Eva Gauthier 1885 1958 dancer painter Hubert Stowitts 1892 1953 ethnomusicologist Mantle Hood 1918 2005 and composer Lou Harrison 1917 2003 all felt marginalized by the mainstream of Western society Gauthier by her lukewarm reception as an operatic mezzo soprano in Europe Stowitts by his homosexuality Hood by conflicting interests in spirituality and scientific method and Harrison by his predilection for prettiness in a musical milieu that valued more anxious expressions All four parlayed their own direct experiences of Java into a defining essence for their own characters By identifying aspects of Javanese music and dance that were compatible with their own tendencies these individuals could literally perform unconventional yet coherent identities based in Javanese music and dance Although they purported to represent Java to their fellow North Americans they were in fact simply representing themselves In addition to probing the fascinating details of these javaphiles lives Javaphilia presents a novel analysis of North America s first significant encounters with Javanese performing arts at the 1893 World s Columbian Exposition in Chicago An account of the First International Gamelan Festival in Vancouver BC at Expo 86 almost a century later bookends the epoch that is the focus of Javaphilia and sets the stage for a meditation on North Americans ongoing relationships with the music and dance of Java The

Jung, 2015-06-05 In May 1956 in his eighty second year Jung first discussed with Gerhard Adler the question of the publication of his letters Over many years Jung had often used the medium of letters to communicate his ideas to others and to clarify the interpretation of his work quite apart from answering people who approached him with genuine problems of their own and simply corresponding with friends and colleagues Many of his letters thus contain new creative ideas and provide a running commentary on his work From some 1 600 letters written by Jung between the years 1906 1961 the editors have selected over 1 000 Volume 1 published in 1973 contains those letters written between 1906 and 1950      Ponderings Jeanne O'Connor, 2011-04 By Warren Resen Ponderings is a book that explores personal relationships values morals and customs in a way that will direct the reader to a more meaningful more satisfying peaceful life The topics cover such things as Marriage vs Living Together a common occurrence in the Western World today The pros and cons of these two different yet in many ways similar lifestyles are discussed in a way that offers anyone pondering which way to go the ability to make an informed educated decision Divorce and separation are also common occurrences in today's world The writer offers examples of how to cope with these situations and move on with your life Personal growth life changing experiences and forgiveness are some of the other things this book deals with Whether you belong to a formal religion or not the segment on Spiritual Awareness is something anyone can benefit from This section explores the human predicament the nature of man and humanity's struggle as well as its unity and its growth How you live your life is important but the sections of the book starting with Death an Element of Life discusses the final part of our physical life and what death means how to handle it and the effects on those left behind Ponderings celebrates life in all its aspects with all its shadings the relationships between people their growth and their struggles and offers suggestions for self improvement The prose and poetry at the end of the book are for your pleasure and embody all the principles within its text

The Road I Know Stewart Edward White, 2017-03-22 This is the fourth volume of The Betty Collection a series of books written by American author Stewart Edward White on his psychic experiences together with his wife Betty White The history of this book is in itself an interesting and amusing narrative After the publication of THE UNOBSTRUCTED UNIVERSE Betty informed us that some time must elapse before she would be ready to give another divulgence So it occurred to me to examine once again the records of the work Betty did while she was still here Twice already they had been combed for material the extracts used in making THE BETTY BOOK and ACROSS THE UNKNOWN While those two books dealt to a large degree with Betty's training the effort had been to select material from a viewpoint of universal application Now another viewpoint might prove valuable that of Betty's own education irrespective of any concern with others than herself Perhaps it was largely for my own satisfaction in any case I did again go through the roughly million and a quarter words that were the records of Betty's work while here Passages directed at her personally and no one else I red penciled Next I cut them out and pasted them seriatim They totaled nearly two hundred thousand words For the first time I read them consecutively and realized that even with no further arrangement I had a NARRATIVE Furthermore it had growth interest it moved it climaxed most gloriously I thought Here was obviously a book to be written Therefore as I am a writer of books I set blithely about it No light job I realized I must tell the story as clearly and simply as possible I must be accurate for this sort of thing depends on its integrity I must use of those two hundred thousand words only about one fifth lest the reader be confused as well as bored by the repetition necessary for the perfection of Betty s instruction River of Life Marilyn J.
