The Unsilvered Screen:

The Unsilvered Screen Graeme Harper, Rob Stone, 2007 Critics from the UK US Australia Canada and Japan discuss views on canonical surrealist works and the role of surrealism in modern cinema animation digital cinema and documentary

Cinemagritte Lucy Fischer, 2019-11-25 Examines the fascinating ties between Surrealist artist Ren Magritte and the cinema Cinemagritte Ren Magritte within the Frame of Film History Theory and Practice investigates the dynamic relationship between the Surrealist modernist artist Ren Magritte 1898 1967 and the cinema a topic largely ignored in the annals of film and art criticism Magritte once said that he used cinema as a trampoline for the imagination but here author Lucy Fischer reverses that process by using Magritte's work as a stimulus for an imaginative examination of film While Fischer considers direct influences of film on Magritte and Magritte on film she concentrates primarily on resonances of Magritte's work in international cinema both fiction and documentary mainstream and experimental These resonances exist for several reasons First Magritte was a lover of cinema and created works as homages to the medium such as Blue Cinema 1925 which immortalized his childhood movie theater Second Magritte's style though dependent on bizarre juxtapositions was characterized by surface realism which ties it to the nature of the photographic and cinematic image Third Magritte shares with film a focus on certain significant concepts the frame voyeurism illusionism the relation between word and image the face montage variable scale and flexible point of view Additionally the volume explores art documentaries concerning Magritte as well as the artist's whimsical amateur home movies made with his wife Georgette friends and Belgian Surrealist associates The monograph is richly illustrated with images of Magritte's oeuvre as well as film stills from such diverse works as The Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind Eyes Without a Face American Splendor The Blood of a Poet Zorns Lemma The Island of Dr Moreau The Draughtsman's Contract and many more Cinemagritte brings a novel and creative approach to the work of Magritte and both film and art criticism Students scholars and fans of art history and film will enjoy this thoughtful marriage of the two

Spanish Erotic Cinema Santiago Fouz-Hernandez, 2017-04-13 The first comprehensive scholarly study of Spanish erotic cinema from the 1920s until the present day This book covers a significant part of the history of Spanish film from the 1920s until the present day Starting with a study of the kiss in silent films the volume explores homoerotic narratives in the crusade films of the 1940s the commodification of bodies in the late Franco period and the so called destape literally aundressing period that followed the abolition of censorship during the democratic transition Reclaiming the importance of Spanish erotic cinema as a genre in itself a range of international scholars demonstrate how the explicit depiction of sex can be a useful tool to illuminate current and historic social issues including ageism colonialism domestic violence immigration nationalisms or women and LGBT rights Covering a wide range of cinematic genres including comedy horror and melodrama this book provides an innovative and provocative overview of Spanish cinema history and society in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Contributors Brad Epps Cambridge University Sally Faulkner University of Political Philosophy in Motion *.mkv Dan Dungaciu, 2019-01-18 This book approaches the visual clues acknowledged by political philosophy interested in the relationship of the philosophy and the politics of film It also expresses and highlights a precise way of looking at things indicating a frame able to verify the domain's themes and constructs in order not only to offer some illustrating insights but also to provide reflections able to re define the relationship between film and political philosophy It will appeal to the wider academic community PhD students professors and researchers with an interest in political philosophy postmodern philosophy media studies and cultural studies

Surrealism and film after 1945 Kristoffer Noheden, Abigail Susik, 2021-07-06 This is the first volume to focus on the diverse permutations of international surrealist cinema after the canonical interwar period The collection features eleven original contributions by prominent scholars such as Tom Gunning Michael Lwy Gavin Parkinson and Michael Richardson alongside other leading and emerging researchers An introductory chapter offers a historical overview as well as a theoretical framework for specific methodological approaches The collection demonstrates that renowned figures such as Leonora Carrington Maya Deren Alejandro Jodorowsky and Jan van Kesteren took part in shaping a vibrant and distinctive surrealist film culture following the Second World War Addressing highly influential films and directors related to international surrealism during the second half of the twentieth century it expands the purview of both surrealism and film studies by situating surrealism as a major force in postwar cinema

Dreams, Vampires and Ghosts Louise Child, 2023-07-13 Drawing from social theory and the anthropology of religion this book explores popular media's fascination with dreams vampires demons ghosts and spirits Dreams Vampires and Ghosts does so in the light of contemporary animist studies of societies in which other than human persons are not merely a source of entertainment but a lived social reality Films and television programs explored include Buffy the Vampire Slayer Twin Peaks Bram Stoker's Dracula Truly Madly Deeply and the films of Hitchcock Louise Child draws attention to how they both depict and challenge ideas and practices rooted in psychology while quality television has also facilitated a wave of programming that can explore the interaction of characters in complex social worlds over time In addition to drawing on theories of film from Freudian psychology and feminist theory Dreams Vampires and Ghosts uses approaches derived from a combination of Jungian film studies and anthropology that offer fresh insights for exploring film and television This book draws attention to explicit and subtle ways in which cinematic narratives engage with myth and religion while at the same time exploring collective dimensions to social and personal life It advances new developments in genre studies and gender as well as contributing to the growing field of implicit religion using in depth analyses of communicative dreaming the shadow and mystical lovers in film and television

Why Harry Met Sally Joshua Louis Moss, 2017-07-18 From immigrant ghetto love stories such as The Cohens and the Kellys 1926 through romantic comedies including Meet the Parents 2000 and Knocked Up 2007 to television series such as Transparent 2014 Jewish Christian couplings have been a staple of popular culture for over a century In these pairings Joshua Louis Moss argues the unruly screen Jew is the privileged representative of progressivism secular modernism and the cosmopolitan sensibilities of the mass media age But his/her unruliness is nearly always contained through romantic union with the Anglo Christian partner This Jewish Christian meta narrative has recurred time and again as one of the most powerful and enduring although unrecognized mass culture fantasies Using the innovative framework of coupling theory Why

Harry Met Sally surveys three major waves of Jewish Christian couplings in popular American literature theater film and television Moss explores how first wave European and American creators in the early twentieth century used such couplings as an extension of modernist sensibilities and the American melting pot He then looks at how New Hollywood of the late 1960s revived these couplings as a sexually provocative response to the political conservatism and representational absences of postwar America Finally Moss identifies the third wave as emerging in television sitcoms Broadway musicals and gross out film comedies to grapple with the impact of American economic globalism since the 1990s He demonstrates that whether perceived as a threat or a triumph Jewish Christian couplings provide a visceral easily graspable template for understanding the rapid transformations of an increasingly globalized world

Identity in Animation Jane Batkin,2017-02-17 Identity in Animation A Journey into Self Difference Culture and the Body uncovers the meaning behind some of the most influential characters in the history of animation and questions their unique sense of who they are and how they are formed Jane Batkin explores how identity politics shape the inner psychology of the character and their exterior motivation often buoyed along by their questioning of place and belonging and driven by issues of self difference gender and the body Through this Identity in Animation illustrates and questions the construction of stereotypes as well as unconventional representations within American European and Eastern animation It does so with examples such as the strong gender tropes of Japan s Hayao Miyazaki the strange relationships created by Australian director Adam Elliot and Nick Park s depiction of Britishness In addition this book discusses Betty Boop s sexuality and ultimate repression Warner Bros anarchic self aware characters and Disney s fascinating representation of self and society Identity in Animation is an ideal book for students and researchers of animation studies as well as any media and film studies students taking modules on animation as part of their course
