Understanding Deleuze Australian Cultural Studies:

Understanding Deleuze Claire Colebrook, 2002 An accessible introduction to the work of this influential and challenging French thinker Australian Cultural Studies John Frow, Meaghan Morris, 1993 Cultural studies has emerged as a major force in the analysis of cultural systems and their relation to social power Rather than being interested in television or architecture or pinball machines themselves as industrial or aesthetic structures cultural studies tends to be interested in the way such apparatuses work as points of concentration of social meaning as media literally according to John Frow and Meaghan Morris Here two of Australia's leading cultural critics bring together work that represents a distinctive national tradition moving between high theory and detailed readings of localized cultural practices Ethnographic audience research cultural policy studies popular consumption bad aboriginal art landscape in feature films style form and history in TV miniseries and the intersections of tourism with history and memory these are among the topics addressed in a landmark volume that cuts across myriad traditional disciplines Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari Francois Dosse, 2010-07-02 In May 1968 Gilles Deleuze was an established philosopher teaching at the innovative Vincennes University just outside of Paris Félix Guattari was a political militant and director of an unusual psychiatric clinic at La Borde Their meeting was unlikely and the two were introduced in an arranged encounter of epic consequence From that moment on Deleuze and Guattari engaged in a surprising productive partnership collaborating on several groundbreaking works including Anti-Oedipus What Is Philosophy? and A Thousand Plateaus Francois Dosse a prominent French intellectual examines the prolific if improbable relationship between two men of distinct and differing sensibilities Drawing on unpublished archives and hundreds of personal interviews Dosse elucidates a collaboration that lasted more than two decades underscoring the role that family and history particularly the turbulence of May 1968 played in their monumental work He also takes the measure of Deleuze and Guattari's posthumous fortunes and weighs the impact of their thought within intellectual academic and professional circles

Understanding Deleuze Claire Colebrook, 2020-07-23 The best introduction to Deleuze and to the collective writings of Deleuze and Guattari available yet Claire Colebrook has produced a truly accessible pathway into the labyrinthine enchantments offered for contemporary thought by Deleuzianism making concepts clear showing their political and theoretical complexity elaborating their social and artistic relevance A wonderful lucid opening onto the new worlds of Deleuze Elizabeth Grosz Rutgers University A wonderfully clear introduction to key Deleuzian concepts and to their effectiveness in fields ranging from ethics and politics to cinema literary and cultural studies Claire Colebrook provides a series of effortless transitions from Deleuze's philosophical concerns eg difference representation desire and affect to concrete problems in a variety of fields This book is an excellent guide to an important body of critical thought Paul Patton Professor of Philosophy University of NSW A genuine attempt to think differently Gilles Deleuze's work challenges provokes and frustrates Surprisingly practical as well as innovative it is now being seen as a must read for students and scholars across the humanities and social sciences Claire Colebrook's Understanding Deleuze offers a comprehensive and very accessible introduction to his work think differently It is built on the notion of an immanent ethics how can we have a political and ethical theory without some external foundation such as the subject or morality He argues that the only way we can do this is with a theory of the virtual and he sees all life not just cyberculture as virtual Deleuze goes further than Foucault or Derrida in questioning the boundaries of the subject and knowledge For Deleuze perception extends beyond the human to animals machines and microorganisms Deleuze's writing is challenging and hard to read and so far there is no introduction to his work Claire Colebrook's primer offers an accessible introduction to the whole Deleuzian oeuvre including the work he did with Guattari

The Johns Hopkins Guide to Literary Theory and Criticism Michael Groden, Martin Kreiswirth, Imre Szeman, 2005 Publisher Description What's Become of Australian Cultural Studies? Gerard Goggin, Anna Perterra, Mark Andrejevic, Melissa Gregg, 2018-04-19 Cultural studies face a complicated yet rich future proving both flexible and resilient in many countries Against this backdrop this book offers a fresh perspective on the state of the field of cultural studies via an evaluation of the work of one of its key thinkers Graeme Turner and the traditions of Australian cultural studies which have been influential on the formation of the field Thinking with Turner and being informed by his practice can help orient us in the face of new challenges and contexts across culture media and everyday life teaching and pedagogy the relation of research to the new politics of public engagement policy management and universities the internationalization of cultural studies and the reconfiguration of nationalism the changing concepts and relations of culture the development of important new areas in cultural studies such as celebrity studies and the emergence of digital media studies This lively and provocative volume is essential reading for anyone interested in where cultural studies has come from where it's heading to and what kinds of ideas not least from Graeme Turner will help scholars and students alike make sense of and reconfigure the discipline This book was originally published as a special issue of Cultural Studies

New Cultural Studies Clare Birchall, Gary Hall, 2006-01-01 New Cultural Studies is both an introductory reference work and an original study which explores new directions and territories for cultural studies A new generation has begun to emerge from the shadow of the Birmingham School It is a generation whose whole education has been shaped by theory and who frequently turn to it as a means to think through some of the issues and current problems in contemporary culture and cultural studies In a period when departments which were once hotbeds of high theory are returning to more sociological and social science oriented modes of research and 9 11 and the war in Iraq especially have helped create a sense of post theoretical political urgency which leaves little time for the elitist Eurocentric textual concerns of Theory theoretical approaches to the study of culture have for many of this generation never seemed so important or so vital New Cultural Studies explores theory's past present and most especially future role in cultural studies It does so by providing an authoritative and accessible guide for students and teachers alike to the most innovative members of this new generation the thinkers and theories currently influencing new work in cultural studies Agamben Badiou Deleuze Derrida Hardt and Negri Kittler Laclau Levinas and iek the new territories currently being mapped out across the intersections of cultural studies and cultural theory anti capitalism ethics the posthumanities post Marxism and the transnational Cultural Studies 10.3 Lawrence Grossberg,2005-08-08 Cultural Studies is an international journal committed to exploring the relationships between cultural practices and everyday life economic relations the material world the State and historical forces and contexts Queer and Deleuzian Temporalities Rachel Loewen Walker,2021-11-18 Rachel Loewen Walker s original study of Deleuze s theory of temporality advances a concept of the living present as a critical juncture through which novel meanings and activisms take flight in relation to new feminist materialisms queer theory Indigenous studies and studies of climate Drawing on literature philosophy popular culture and community research Loewen Walker unsettles the fierce linearity of our stories particularly as they uphold fixed systems of gender sexuality and identity Treading new ground for Deleuzian studies this book focuses on the non linearity of the living present to show that everything is within rather than outside of time Through this critical re evaluation which takes in climate change queer and trans politics and Indigenous sovereignty Queer and Deleuzian Temporalities thickens the present moment By opening up multiple pasts and multiple futures we are invited to act with a deepened level of accountability to all possible timelines Cosmological Readings of Contemporary Australian Literature Kathrin Bartha-Mitchell,2023-12-22 This book presents an innovative and imaginative reading of contemporary Australian literature in the context of unprecedented ecological crisis The Australian continent has seen significant rapid changes to its cultures and land use from the impact of British colonial rule yet there is a rich history of Indigenous land ethics and cosmological thought By using the age old idea of cosmos the order of the world to foreground ideas of a good order and chaos reciprocity and more than human agency this book interrogates the Anthropocene in Australia focusing on notions of colonisation farming mining bioethics technology environmental justice and sovereignty It offers cosmological readings of a diverse range of authors Indigenous and non Indigenous as a challenge to the Anthropocene s decline narrative As a result it reactivates cosmos as an ethical vision and a transculturally important counter concept to the Anthropocene Kathrin Bartha Mitchell argues that the arts can help us envision radical cosmologies of being in and with the planet and to address the very real social and environmental problems of our era This book will be of particular interest to scholars and students of Ecocriticism Environmental Humanities and postcolonial transcultural and Indigenous studies with a primary focus on Australian New Zealand Oceanic and Pacific area studies
