Understanding the Contemporary Caribbean Richard S. Hillman, Thomas J. D'Agostino, 2009 Teaching Politics

Beyond the Book Robert W. Glover, Daniel Tagliarina, 2012-11-22 To teach political issues such as political struggle justice interstate conflict etc educators rely mostly on textbooks and lectures However many other forms of narrative exist that can elevate our understanding of such issues This innovative work seeks new ways to foster learning beyond the textbook and lecture model by using creative and new media including graphic novels animated films hip hop music Twitter and more Discussing the opportunities these media offer to teach and engage students about politics the work presents concrete ways on how to use them along with teaching and assessment strategies all tested in the classroom The contributors are dedicated educators from various types of institutions whose essays span a variety of political topics and examine how non traditional texts can promote critical thinking and intellectual growth among students in colleges and universities The first of its kind to discuss a wide range of alternative texts and media the book will be a valuable resource to anyone seeking to develop innovative curricula and engage their students in the study of politics Understanding the Hospitality Consumer Alastair Williams, 2012-05-16 Understanding the Hospitality Consumer presents a unique perspective on consumer behaviour in the hospitality sector It seeks to focus on the role of consumption in hospitality and to investigate our understanding of its place in the contemporary industry Taking the view that successful marketing demands focusing on the customer this text concentrates on understanding and determining customer needs relevant factors in consumer buying behaviour and the effectiveness of today s marketing techniques Using industry based case studies and examples Understanding the Hospitality Consumer Introduces and explores the role of consumer behaviour theory in the context of hospitality management Discusses the principles and research of consumer behaviour and illustrates how they are used in the hospitality industry today Examines the value of consumer behaviour research as applied to the contemporary hospitality industry Explores the challenges to traditional approaches to consumption posed by the postmodern hospitality consumer The book s targeted focus and practical application ensures that it is well suited for both students and practising managers in the hospitality field

The Cambridge Companion to the Latin American Novel Efraín Kristal, 2005-05-26 The diverse countries of Latin America have produced a lively and ever evolving tradition of novels many of which are read in translation all over the world This Companion offers a broad overview of the novel s history and analyses in depth several representative works by for example Gabriel Garc a M rquez Machado de Assis Isabel Allende and Mario Vargas Llosa The essays collected here offer several entryways into the understanding and appreciation of the Latin American novel in Spanish speaking America and Brazil The volume conveys a real sense of the heterogeneity of Latin American literature highlighting regions whose cultural and geopolitical particularities are often overlooked Indispensable to students of Latin American or Hispanic studies and those interested in comparative literature and the development of the novel as genre the Companion features a comprehensive bibliography and chronology and concludes with an essay about the success of Latin American novels in translation

Atlantic Environments and the American South Thomas Blake Earle, D. Andrew Johnson, 2020-03 There is clear overlap in interests and influences for the fields of Atlantic environmental and southern history but scholarship in them has often advanced on parallel tracks This anthology places itself at the intersection pushing for a new confluence Editors Thomas Blake Earle and D Andrew Johnson provide a lucid introduction to this collection of essays that brings these disciplines together With this volume historians explore crucial insights into a self consciously Atlantic environmental history of the American South touching on such topics as ideas about slavery gender climate colonial ecological revolution manipulation of the landscape infrastructure resources and exploitation By centering this project on a region the American South defined as the southeastern reaches of North America and the Caribbean the authors interrogate how European colonizers Native Americans and Africans interacted in and with the sub tropics a place foreign to Europeans Challenging the concepts of Atlantic and southern and their intersection with environments is a discipline defining strategy at the leading edge of emerging scholarship Taken collectively this book should encourage more readers to reimagine this region its time periods climate s and ecocultural networks

Education and Social Development , 2008-01-01 The role of education in the development of societies is an important life perspective that is promoted by families institutions and governments In today s globalized world this reality may presume a worldwide platform where what is termed knowledge societies could gain at the expense of the educationally less endowed There is also the case where postcolonial systems of education in Africa Asia Latin America and other places did not lead to the expected social and technological progress that was promised with independence The 17 chapters in this volume attempt to analyze these complex and interlinked contexts of education and development The book contains important criticisms of the historical developments of education the meanings and changing intersections of development schooling citizenships and their exclusions and the important interplays of globalization knowledge culture and languages Beyond the theoretical focus the book examines learning systems and possibilities in specific regions and countries of the world These include Africa with a specialized focus on women s education and advancement as well as individual country studies on Ghana Burkina Faso Zimbabwe and Somalia In the Asian context the specific chapters analyze the training of teachers in China and women s education and education and the caste system in India These are complemented by select treatments of education and social development in Chile in South America postcolonial post communist Europe Russia and the Caribbean region Together the book s contents should selectively respond to some of the most important social and educational development ideas and debates in our world today
