Ευφροσύνη Σπέντζου, Don Fowler

Unfeigned Inspiration Muses Path 1:

Endymion and the "labyrinthian Path to Eminence in Art" Christoph Loreck, 2005 Cultivating the Muse Ευφοσύνη Σπέντζου, Don Fowler, 2002 A variety of critical approaches from an international cast of contributors offer an original appreciation of creativity in classical literature Whereas previous scholarship has portrayed the Muses as religious and benign creatures the secularized muse figures explored here in a diverse corpus of Greek and Latin poetry are involved in a series of vibrant battles for inspiration The Consolation of Philosophy Boethius, 1999-01-28 Boethius composed the De Consolatione Philosophiae in the sixth century AD whilst awaiting death under torture condemned on a charge of treason which he protested was manifestly unjust Though a convinced Christian in detailing the true end of life which is the soul's knowledge of God he consoled himself not with Christian precepts but with the tenets of Greek philosophy This work dominated the intellectual world of the Middle Ages writers as diverse as Thomas Aquinas Jean de Meun and Dante were inspired by it In England it was rendered in to Old English by Alfred the Great into Middle English by Geoffrey Chaucer and later Queen Elizabeth I made her own translation The circumstances of composition the heroic demeanour of the author and the Menippean texture of part prose part verse have combined to exercise a fascination over students of philosophy and literature ever since ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more The Southern literary messenger, 1856

Pastoral and Ideology Annabel Patterson, 2023-11-15 Patterson follows the fortunes of Virgil's Eclogues from the Middle Ages to our own century She argues that Virgilian pastoral spoke to the intellectuals of each place and time of their own condition The study reinspects our standard system of periodization in literary and art history and challenges some of the current premises of modernism This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1987 Crossfire Roberta Johnson, 2014-07-11 The marriage of philosophy and fiction in the first third of Spain's twentieth century was a fertile one It produced some truly notable offspring novels that cross genre boundaries to find innovative forms and treatises that fuse literature and philosophy in new ways In her illuminating interdisciplinary study of Spanish fiction of the Silver Age Roberta Johnson places this important body of Spanish literature in context through a synthesis of social literary and philosophical history Her examination of the work of Miguel de Unamuno Pio Baroja Azorin Ramon Perez de Ayala Juan Ramon Jimenez Gabriel Miro Pedro Salinas Rosa Chacel and Benjamin Jarnes brings to light philosophical frictions and debates and opens new interpersonal and intertextual perspectives on many of the period's most canonical novels Johnson reformulates the traditional discussion of generations and isms by viewing the period as an intergenerational complex in which writers with similar philosophical and personal interests constituted dynamic groupings that interacted and constantly defined and redefined one another Current narratological theories including those of Todorov Genette Bakhtin and Martinez Bonati assist in teasing out the intertextual maneuvers and philosophical conflicts embedded in the novels of the period while the sociological and biographical material bridges the philosophical and literary analyses The result solidly grounded in original archival research is a convincingly complete picture of Spain's intellectual world in the first thirty years of this century Crossfire should revolutionize thinking about the Generation of 98 and the Generation of 14 by identifying the heterogeneous philosophical sources of each and the writers' reactions to them in fiction
