

A person wearing a bright red traditional Tibetan robe stands on a large, flat rock in the foreground. They are looking out over a vast, turquoise lake that stretches to the horizon. In the background, dark, rugged mountains rise steeply, their peaks partially shrouded in mist or low clouds. The sky is filled with heavy, grey clouds, creating a dramatic and somewhat somber atmosphere. The overall scene conveys a sense of solitude and the vastness of the Tibetan landscape.

Social Issues in China Zhidong Hao, Sheying Chen, 2013-08-23 Since 1978 the opening up and reform in China has brought tremendous economic and social changes While China's economic progress has been commendable the social problems that go with economic changes have raised serious concerns Some of those concerns are related to gender ethnic labor and environmental issues This book is about what has happened in these arenas in China since the opening up and reform in 1978 The study of gender ethnicity labor and environment touches on some of the fundamental problems of modernization especially the development of individuals and groups So even though gender ethnicity labor and environment seem to be separate issues they are in fact related in some fundamental ways That's what this book will explore as well To understand is one thing and to do is another This book also incorporates studies of NGO practices to see how NGOs have helped in transforming gender ethnic labor and environment interplay Our study of NGOs in helping improve such interplay sheds light on how specifically civil society can prod the state to transform social relations for the better This book is an attempt to assess the changes both positive and negative in gender ethnic ethnic and environmental relations in China especially in the past 30 years of opening up and reform especially regarding national identity formation Tibetan Nation Warren Smith, 2019-07-31 This detailed history offers the most comprehensive account available of Tibetan nationalism Sino-Tibetan relations and the issue of Tibetan self-determination Warren Smith explores Tibet's ethnic and national origins the birth of the Tibetan state the Buddhist state and its relations with China Tibet's quest for independence and the Chinese takeover of Tibet after 1950 Focusing especially on post 1950 Tibet under Chinese Communist rule Smith analyzes Marxist Leninist and Chinese Communist Party nationalities theory and policy their application in Tibet and the consequent rise of Tibetan nationalism Concluding that the essence of the Tibetan issue is self-determination Smith bolsters his argument with a comprehensive analysis of modern Tibetan and Chinese political histories Indigenous Knowledge Systems Satarupa Dutta Majumder, 2025-10-27 Although there has been in recent times a widespread interest in preservation and promotion of Indigenous Heritage or Knowledge Systems from a variety of disciplines and sectors from across the globe the design principles or modalities of a holistic conservation remains largely unexplored This volume explores this lacunae and proposes the concept of Eco-semiotic Community Museology ECM and a road map for it through theory and practice Based on the trajectories of conservation natural cultural and museological down time and indigenous epistemological premises brought forth from previous research the treatise proposes the concept of ECM as a paradigm for successful community based conservation of indigenous knowledge systems or indigenous biocultural heritage in its holistic wholeness While taking into cognizance the issues of interfacing namely cross cultural knowledge integration Information and Communication Technologies ICT and Intellectual Property Rights IPR the volume attempts to add value to its basic eco-semiotic museological proposition and strengthen its case through presentation of and comments on a diverse range of secondary case studies of ongoing conservational initiatives from across the globe that highlight the ingredients of success as well as non performance of such efforts The ultimate goal of the historical surveys intellectual exercises and the case studies in this volume are to capture the nuances that can help decolonize not just museology or conservation but development and sustainability itself And hopefully help make advances towards a decentralized museological governance for the invaluable indigenous biocultural heritage that still lies strewn across the globe in various stages of decimation
