Tibet Through the Red Box Peter Sís, 2014-07-15 A father's diary an artist's memoir By the author of the best selling Three Golden Keys While my father was in China and Tibet he kept a diary which was later locked in a red box We weren't allowed to touch the box The stories I heard as a little boy faded to a hazy dream and my drawings from that time make no sense I cannot decipher them It was not until I myself had gone far far away and received the message from my father that I became interested in the red box again In New York Peter Sís receives a letter from his father The Red Box is now yours it says The brief note worries him and pulls him back to Prague where the contents of the red box explain the mystery of his father's long absence during the 1950s Czechoslovakia was behind the iron curtain Vladimir Sís a documentary filmmaker of considerable talent was drafted into the army and sent to China to teach filmmaking He left his wife daughter and young son Peter thinking he would be home for Christmas Two Christmases would pass before he was heard from again Vladimir Sís was lost in Tibet He met with the Dalai Lama he witnessed China's invasion of Tibet When he returned to Prague he dared not talk to his friends about all he had seen and experienced But over and over again he told Peter about his Tibetan adventures Weaving their two stories together that of the father lost in Tibet and that of the small boy in Prague lost without his father Sís draws from his father's diary and from his own recollections of his father's incredible tales to reach a spiritual homecoming between father and son With his sublime pictures inspired by Tibetan Buddhist art and linking history to memory Peter Sís gives us an extraordinary book a work of singular artistry and rare imagination This title has Common Core connections Tibet Through the Red Box is a 1999 Caldecott Honor Book and the winner of the 1999 Boston Globe Horn Book Award for Special Citation

Crossover Picturebooks Sandra L. Beckett, 2013-06-17 This book situates the picturebook genre within the widespread international phenomenon of crossover literature examining an international corpus of picturebooks including artists books wordless picturebooks and celebrity picturebooks that appeal to readers of all ages Focusing on contemporary picturebooks Sandra Beckett shows that the picturebook has traditionally been seen as a children's genre but in the eyes of many authors illustrators and publishers it is a narrative form that can address any and all age groups Innovative graphics and formats as well as the creative often complex dialogue between text and image provide multiple levels of meaning and invite readers of all ages to consider texts that are primarily marketed as children's books The interplay of text and image that distinguishes the picturebook from other forms of fiction and makes it a unique art form also makes it the ultimate crossover genre Crossover picturebooks are often very complex texts that are challenging for adults as well as children Many are characterized by difficult adult themes genre blending metafictional discourse intertextuality sophisticated graphics and complex text image interplay Exciting experiments with new formats and techniques as well as novel interactions with new media and technologies have made the picturebook one of the most vibrant and innovative contemporary literary genres one that seems to know no boundaries Crossover Picturebooks is a valuable addition to the study of a genre that is gaining increasing recognition and appreciation and contributes significantly to the field of children's literature as a whole

The Little Wing Giver Jacques Taravant, 2001-10 After giving wings to eagles owls nightengales pigeons ladybugs and all sorts of creatures a small boy is given an appropriate reward

The Tale of the Unknown Island José Saramago, 2000-10-05 A dreamer petitions his king for a boat and gets more than he bargained for in this richly enigmatic short story by the Nobel Prize winning author Kirkus A man went to knock at the king's door and said Give me a boat The king's house had many other doors but this was the door for petitions But the king spent all his time sitting at the door for favors favors being offered to the king you understand whenever he heard someone knocking at the door for petitions he would pretend not to hear So begins this beautifully illustrated and deceptively simple fable Why the petitioner required a boat where he was bound for and who volunteered to crew for him the reader will soon discover In a departure from his linguistically dense and sprawling historical novels Jose Saramago presents a philosophic love story worthy of Swift or Voltaire

Notable Americans of Czechoslovak Ancestry in Arts and Letters and in Education Miloslav Rechcigl Jr., 2021-11-02 As pointed out in my last two publications no comprehensive study has been undertaken about the American Learned Men and Women with Czechoslovak roots The aim of this work is to correct this glaring deficiency with the focus on immigration from the period of mass migration and beyond irrespective whether they were born in their European ancestral homes or whether they have descended from them Whereas in the two mentioned monographs the emphasis has been on scholars and social and natural scientists and men and women in medicine applied sciences and engineering respectively the present compendium deals with notable Americans of Czechoslovak ancestry in arts and letters and in education With respect to women although most professional fields were closed to them through much of the nineteenth century the area of arts and letters was opened to them as noted earlier and as this compendium authenticates The Happy Troll Max Bolliger,2005-06 Gus a troll who loves to sing makes everyone happy with his songs until his desire for gold becomes so strong that he no longer has time to use his beautiful voice Talk about Books! Liz Knowles,Martha Smith,2003-07-30 Book clubs literature circles and reading groups are great ways to promote literacy and books to young readers This new guide provides everything you need to run a dynamic no fuss book discussion group with elementary and middle school students Featuring 15 titles of diverse genres it offers discussion topics and activity ideas for some of the best new reads for kids Brought to you by the authors of the highly acclaimed Reading Rules Motivating Teens to Read this guide is an outstanding resource for starting and running a stellar literary discussion group whether it s in a school public library or community center Grades 4 8
