Sasson, 2013 Consideration of children in the academic field of Religious Studies is taking root but Buddhist Studies has yet to take notice Little Buddhas brings together a wide range of scholarship and expertise to address the question of what role children have played in Buddhist literature in particular historical contexts and what role they continue to play in specific Buddhist contexts today The volume is divided into two parts one addressing the representation of children in Buddhist texts the other children and childhoods in Buddhist cultures around the world The ground breaking contributions in this volume challenge the perception of irreconcilable differences between Buddhist idealism and family ties Little Buddhas will be an indispensable resource for students and scholars of Buddhism and Childhood Studies and a catalyst for further research on the topic Unearthing Himalayan Treasures Volker Caumanns, Marta Sernesi, Nikolai Solmsdorf, 2019-04-08 The Festschrift celebrates Franz Karl Ehrhard Professor of Tibetan and Buddhist Studies at the Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich from 2003 to 2019 Offered on the occasion of his 65th birthday it comprises 26 papers by friends and colleagues to honour his outstanding and far reaching contributions to the field of Tibetan Studies Mirroring Franz Karl Ehrhard's research interests the papers centre on the religious and literary traditions of Tibet and the Himalayas including sacred geography religious history philosophy and studies in textual production and transmission Dissent with Love Parul Bhandari, 2024-08-30 This book presents a unique rendering of love in South Asia by reading love through the specific lens of dissent It presents multiple articulations of dissenting love in contemporary South Asia including negotiations with parents to assert choice of partner migration elopement live in relationships singlehood new ideas of masculinities and embracing diverse sexual identities It studies these forms of dissent in the context of changing legal discourses impact of media in everyday life and transforming social attitudes As such this book is the first of its kind to analyse the myriad ways in which love and dissent constitute each other shaping the social political and cultural mores and movements of South Asia The contributions are based on ethnographic research cutting across diverse religious ethnic and gender and sexual identities of South Asia Part of the Social Movements and Transformative Dissent series this book will be of interest to students and researchers of sociology anthropology history geography political science gender studies and media studies It will also appeal to academics who study South Asia with a special focus on love intimacy sexuality marriage migration history politics and media Hidden Lands in Himalayan Myth and History, 2020-11-30 In an era of environmental crisis narratives of hidden lands are resonant Understood as sanctuaries in times of calamity Himalayan hidden lands or sbas yul have shaped the lives of many peoples of the region Sbas yul are described by visionary lamas called treasure finders who located hidden lands and wrote guidebooks to them Scholarly understandings of sbas yul as places for spiritual cultivation and refuge from war have been complicated recently Research now explores such themes as the political and economic role of treasure finders the impact of sbas yul on indigenous populations and the use of sbas yul for environmental protection and tourism This book showcases recent scholarship on sbas yul from historical and contemporary perspectives From a Trickle to a Torrent Geoff Childs, Namgyal

Choedup, 2018-10-30 What happens to a community when the majority of young people leave their homes to pursue an education From a Trickle to a Torrent documents the demographic and social consequences of educational migration from Nubri a Tibetan enclave in the highlands of Nepal The authors explore parents motivations for sending their children to distant schools and monasteries social connections that shape migration pathways young people s estrangement from village life and dilemmas that arise when educated individuals are unable or unwilling to return and reside in their native villages Drawing on numerous decades of research this study documents a transitional period when the future of a Himalayan society teeters on the brink of irreversible change Waiting at the Mountain Pass Harmandeep Kaur Gill, 2025-03-25 An intimate meditation on aging and dying in exile among elderly Tibetans in Dharamsala India In a Tibetan saying the journey of life is likened to a climb up to a mountain pass Upon reaching it the journey concludes and one must cross over into death and the next rebirth The impermanence of life described by the Buddha as the nature of reality crystallizes at the mountain pass manifesting itself through the painful and arduous descent ahead and a series of sufferings In this book Harmandeep Kaur Gill offers an intimate meditation on the last part of the journey at the mountain pass through closely drawn portraits of elderly exiled Tibetans who aged in Dharamsala India far away from their beloved homeland of Tibet and often alone in the absence of family In Gill s work the mountain pass represents a borderland an in between world where the elderly found themselves living at the crossroad between life and death belonging fully to neither of them It was a time space where everyday life traversed between past and present in darkness and light and in dream and reality as the elderly attempted to come to terms with the realities of their old age By placing relational entanglements and sensations at the heart of its theorization Waiting at the Mountain Pass foregrounds an embodied knowing that is care ful hesitant and unresolved in its claims Aiming to bridge the gap between ethics and epistemology Gill invites the reader to see and listen in a relational and imaginative way where the other reflects back upon the self making the assumed separations between subject and object blurry and unsettling Through meditations on the interrelations of body and mind society and individual and the real and the imagined Waiting at the Mountain Pass provides a sensorial and compassionate understanding of the singularities of life and death in a Tibetan Buddhist world in exile Origins and Migrations in the Extended Eastern Himalayas, 2012-02-03 extended eastern Himalayas a region stretching from eastern Nepal through Arunachal Pradesh Nagaland and the hill tracts surrounding Assam to upland Southeast Asia and southwest China This book is the first to bring together contemporary research on Tibeto Burman speaking hill peoples in this region and the only multi disciplinary study of the closely related topics of origins and migration in this part of Asia presenting current research by anthropologists folklorists linguists and historians Through a series of case studies on local and regional populations the contributors explore origins and migration in relation to theoretical and methodological approaches language identity and narrative

The Return of Polyandry

Heidi E. Fjeld, 2022-08-12 Tibet is known for its broad range of marriage practices particularly polyandry where two or more brothers share one wife With economic development and massive Chinese social and political reforms including new marriage laws prohibiting plural marriages polyandry was expected to disappear from Tibetan communities This book takes as its starting point the surprising increase in polyandry in Panam valley from the 1980s
