Transforming Citizenship Transforming Citizenship:

Transforming Citizenship Isaac West, 2014 Transforming Citizenship engages the performativity of citizenship as it relates to transgender individuals and advocacy groups Instead of reading the law as a set of self-executing discourses Isaac West takes up transgender rights claims as performative productions of complex legal subjectivities capable of queering accepted understandings of genders sexualities and the normative forces of the law Drawing on an expansive archive from the correspondence of a transwoman arrested for using a public bathroom in Los Angeles in 1954 to contemporary lobbying efforts of national transgender advocacy organizations West advances a rethinking of law as capacious rhetorics of citizenship justice equality and freedom When approached from this perspective citizenship can be recuperated from its status as the bad object of queer politics to better understand how legal discourses open up sites for identification across identity categories and enable political activities that escape the analytics of heteronormativity and homonationalism

Migrant Women Transforming Citizenship Umut Erel, 2016-04-22 Migrant Women Transforming Citizenship develops essential insights concerning the notion of transnational citizenship by means of the life stories of skilled and educated migrant women from Turkey in Germany and Britain It interweaves and develops theories of citizenship identity and culture with the lived experiences of an immigrant group that has so far received insufficient attention By focusing on the British and German contexts it introduces a much needed European and comparative perspective whilst exploring the ways in which diverging concepts and policies of citizenship allow for a differentiated examination of ethnicity gender multiculturalism and citizenship in Europe Presenting a significant and welcome contribution to our understanding of the complexities of multiculturalism it challenges Orientalist images of women as backward and oppressed Through engagement with the changing realities of education work intimacy family and social activism this volume provides a situated account of how the concepts of citizenship transnationality and culture play out in actual social relations With its rich empirical material the book explores how migrant women create new practices and meanings of belonging across boundaries Critiquing dominant multiculturalist and anti multiculturalist accounts this book suggests how citizenship debates can be reframed to be inclusive of migrant women as actors As such it will appeal to those working across a range of social sciences including sociology and the sociology of work race and ethnicity citizenship cultural and gender studies as well as anthropology and social and public policy

Transforming Citizenship Raymond A. Rocco, 2014-07-01 In Transforming Citizenship Raymond Rocco studies the exclusionary inclusion of Latinos based on racialization and how the processes behind this have shaped their marginalized citizenship status offering a framework for explaining this dynamic Contesting this status has been at the core of Latino politics for more than 150 years Pursuing the goal of full equal and just inclusion in societal membership has long been a major part of the struggle to realize democratic normative principles This illuminating research demonstrates the inherent limitations of the citizenship regime in the United States for incorporating Latinos as full societal members and offers an alternative conception associative citizenship that provides a way to account for and challenge the pattern of exclusionary belonging that has defined the positions of the Latinos in U S society Through a critical engagement with key theorists such as Rawls Habermas Kymlicka Walzer Taylor and Young Rocco advances an original analysis of the politics of Latino societal membership and citizenship arguing that the specific processes of racialization that have played a determinative role in creating and maintaining the pattern of social and political exclusions of Latinos have not been addressed by the dominant theories of diversity and citizenship developed in the prevalent literature in political theory

The Demographic Transformations of Citizenship Heli Askola,2016-09-15 This book examines how demographic changes including low birth rates continuing immigration and population ageing are transforming ideas about citizenship and belonging

Debating Transformations of National Citizenship Rainer Bauböck,2018-09-12 This open access book discusses how national citizenship is being transformed by economic social and political change It focuses on the emergence of global markets where citizenship is for sale and on how new reproduction technologies impact citizenship by descent It also discusses the return of banishment through denationalisation of terrorist suspects and the impact of digital technologies such as blockchain on the future of democratic citizenship The book provides a wide range of views on these issues from legal scholars political scientists and political practitioners It is structured as a series of four conversations in which authors respond to each other This exchange of arguments provides unique depth to current debates about the future of citizenship

Mega Events, Urban Transformations and Social Citizenship Naomi C. Hanakata,Filippo Bignami,Niccolò Cuppini,2022-07-26 This book provides theoretical and empirical perspectives on the urban impact of mega events globally It takes mega events as an instance to analyse urban transformations and their effects on citizenship With contributions from leading scholars in the field the book presents innovative and multidimensional analyses of mega events with an international selection of case studies The work provides a grounded theorisation of mega events in the first part and scrutinizes its practices and processes in the second Each chapter explores mega events as crucial drivers and accelerators of urban and citizenship transformations Rather than just focusing on a staged momentum this book takes stock of the before and after that these events imply for the urban condition This book will be of interest to students and scholars in urban studies human geography economics architecture planning sociology political science It will also appeal to professionals and policy makers engaged in the planning hosting and management of mega events

Transformative Citizenship in South Korea Chang Kyung-Sup,2022-01-11 South Korea s postcolonial history has been replete with dramatic societal transformations through which it has emerged with a fully blown modernity or compressed modernity There have arisen the transformation oriented state society and citizenry for which each transformation becomes an ultimate purpose in itself its processes and means constitute the main sociopolitical order and the transformation embedded interests form the core social identity A distinct mode of citizenship has thereby arisen as transformative contributory rights namely effective or legitimate claims to national and social resources opportunities and respects that accrue to each citizen's contributions to the nation's or society's collective transformative goals South Koreans have been exhorted or have exhorted themselves to intensely engage in such collective transformations so that their citizenship is framed and substantiated by the conditions processes and outcomes of such transformative engagements This book concretely and systematically analyzes how this transformative dynamic has shaped South Koreans developmental social educational reproductive and cultural citizenship

Transformational Public Service Cheryl King, Lisa Zanetti, 2014-12-18 Everyone who aspires to more effective public service should read this book It provides a compelling antidote to the managerial focus of theory and practice in public administration Written with the aim of inspiring and rekindling a mission for public service Transformational Public Service weaves together theory and stories from actual practice to show that public service can and does advance the goals of democracy inclusiveness and social and economic justice Eight practitioners from government and non governmental organizations at all levels from the street to the executive office tell their personal stories of transformational public service Theory poetry and popular culture references are woven around the stories Both students and practitioners will discover new ways of thinking in this book that will enable them to transform their own administrative practices As the authors note in their prologue As we listened to these stories we heard people say that public service can be and is transformational transforms institutions practices and people's lives and experiences in ways that serve democracy engagement and social and economic justice The public service they practice is collaborative humanistic emancipatory inclusive and diverse

Theorizing Chinese Citizenship Zhonghua Guo, Sujian Guo, 2015-10-08 This volume theorizes the concept of citizenship in contemporary China by probing into the formation of Chinese citizenship and synthesizing the practices of citizenship by different social groups The first section Imagining Chinese Citizenship analyses how Chinese citizenship was first imagined by means of translation and education at the beginning of the twentieth century The Chinese citizenship was then compared with the concept of Western citizenship and that of other Asian countries The second section Citizenship of Chinese Migrant Workers explains the citizenship status of migrant workers by discussing the relationship between household registration hukou system and citizenship of the migrant workers showing how migrant workers contest their citizenship rights and categorizing the resistance of migrant workers from the perspective of citizenship Finally the last section Chinese Citizenship Education discusses the conditions and challenges of citizenship education in Chinese schools

Future Practices of Citizenship in Asia and the West Gregory Bracken, Paul Rabé, Nurul Azreen Azlan, 2025-10-01 Future Practices of Citizenship in Asia and the West investigates some of the greatest challenges facing society in the twenty first century including the struggle for rights and recognition by indigenous peoples women migrants and the young as well as the dampening effects some government responses to COVID 19 have had on artistic freedom and citizen participation The ill effects of digitisation on citizenship however are tempered by some more positive approaches from grass roots activities Perhaps the most acute challenge facing the world today is climate change an issue that can be both positive and negative depending on how we respond to it All the papers in this book share a people centred approach based around Michel Foucault's Care of the Self Prospects for Citizenship Gerry Stoker, Andrew Mason, Anthony McGrew, Chris Armstrong, David Owen, Graham Smith, Momoh Banya, Derek McGhee, Clare Saunders, 2011-02-25 Is citizenship in decline due to globalisation and an erosion of civic participation and democratic representation Or is it merely transformed and extended to new levels and larger scales Should we assess these challenges and changes primarily from a perspective of global justice or consider also membership in a democratic polity as itself a basic good Prospects for Citizenship addresses these broad questions in a unique collaborative effort The result is an impressive book that looks at the future of citizenship from multiple research perspectives while remaining coherent in its overall purpose Rainer Bauböck European University Institute Florence This book offers a perspicuous overview of the prospects for citizenship in our contemporary political context The authorial team draw on a wide range of empirical and normative research in order to offer an incisive analysis of the problems and pressures of citizenship in the twenty first century The authors focus in particular on the apparent decline of traditional forms of civic engagement the emergence of new forms of participation and the relationship between citizenship and globalization Diversity, Transformative Knowledge, and Civic Education James A. Banks, 2020-03-12 WINNER 2021 Society of Professors of Education Outstanding Book Award The essays collected in this book by James A Banks a foundational figure in the field of multicultural education illuminate the interconnection between the author's work on knowledge construction and civic education In pieces both poignant and personal Banks shares some of his most groundbreaking and innovative work Diversity Transformative Knowledge and Civic Education aims to unpack the citizenship education dilemma whereby education programs strive to teach students democratic ideals and values within social economic political and educational contexts that contradict justice equality and human rights For change to take place students need to internalize democratic values by directly experiencing them in transformative classrooms and schools that are envisioned and described in this book Drawn from Banks formidable canon this collection highlights the conceptual curricular and pedagogical issues related to this dilemma and signals a fundamental shift toward transformative citizenship education Students scholars and educators in the fields of multicultural education civic education social studies education comparative education and the foundations of education will find this book to be a valuable resource for discussion and discovery China's citizenship challenge Malgorzata Jakimów, 2021-05-11 China's citizenship challenge tells a story of how labour NGOs contest migrant workers citizenship marginalisation in China The book argues that in order to effectively address problems faced by migrant workers these NGOs must undertake citizenship challenge the transformation of migrant workers social and political participation in public life the broadening of their access to labour and other rights and the reinvention of their relationship to the city By framing the NGOs activism in terms of citizenship rather than class struggle this book offers a valuable contribution to the field of labour movement studies in China

The monograph also proves exceptionally timely in the context of the state's repression of these organisations in recent years which as the book explores were largely driven by their citizenship altering activism

Transforming Citizenships Transforming Citizenships: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Transforming Citizenships Transforming Citizenships : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Transforming Citizenships Transforming Citizenships : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Transforming Citizenships Transforming Citizenships : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
