Multilateral Asian Security Architecture See Seng Tan, 2015-07-16 This book provides a comparative assessment of the material and ideational contributions of five countries to the regional architecture of post Cold War Asia In contrast to the usual emphasis placed on the role and centrality of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN in Asia's multilateral architecture and its component institutions this book argues that the four non ASEAN countries of interest here 3 4 Australia Japan China and the United States 3 4 and Indonesia have played and continue to play an influential part in determining the shape and substance of Asian multilateralism from its pre inception to the present The work does not contend that existing scholarship overstates ASEAN's significance to the successes and failures of Asia's multilateral enterprise Rather it claims that the impact of non ASEAN stakeholders in innovating multilateral architecture in Asia has been understated Whether ASEAN has fared well or poorly as a custodian of Asia's regional architecture the fact remains that the countries considered here notwithstanding their present discontent over the state of that architecture are key to understanding the evolution of Asian multilateralism This book will be of much interest to students of Asian politics international organisations security studies and IR more generally become less dependent on the United States more strategic towards Asia and more energetic towards international and regional institutions One of the main features is multilateralism in Japanese foreign policy as shown by Japan's active participation in the regional institutions In pursuing multilateralism Japan cooperated closely with the only durable regional body in Southeast Asia to wit the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN Given the fact that East Asian regionalism has been driven by ASEAN it is of utmost urgency to investigate the emerging partnership between Japan and ASEAN The central thesis of this study is thus to put Japan's ASEAN policy into a proper perspective by asserting that Japan's new policy initiatives towards ASEAN are not reactive nor are they exceptions in a broader framework of merely reactive foreign policy
