Transforming Masculinities Transforming Masculinities:

Transforming Masculinities Vic Seidler, 2006-03-20 Critically exploring the ways in which men and masculinities are commonly theorized this multidisciplinary text opens up a discussion around such relationships and shows that as with feminisms there is a diversity of theoretical traditions It draws on a variety of examples and explores new directions in the complexities of diverse male identities and emotional lives across different histories cultures and traditions This book considers the experiences of different generations explores connections between masculinity and drugs investigates men and masculinities in a post 9 11 world considers new ways of thinking about male violence recognizes the importance of culture and provides spaces to explore different class race and ethnic masculinities Written in a practical versatile manner by an established author in this field it points to new directions in thinking and makes essential reading for advanced undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in the fields of sociology gender studies politics philosophy and psychology

Transforming Managers Roy Moodley, Stephen Whitehead, 2005-06-23 In the 1990s considerable changes in the political and social world have impacted on the character of both public and private organizations At a time of increased uncertainty and insecurity in these organizations new ways of managing and being managed have emerged Recognising that organizational life is part reflective and determined by dominant social discourses factors of gender will inevitably be central to the dynamics of organizational change This book addresses theoretical ideas and mythologies in the examination of gendered organizations The need to examine men in relation to family law and society in general is growing and this book extends this interrogation to work and organizational life It will be of interest to students in management studies public sector management and those involved in public policy making as well as students and academics within gender studies and sociology

Theologies and Practices of Inclusion Nina Kurlberg, Madleina Daenhadt, 2021-10-08 Inclusion has recently become a high priority issue within the development sector brought to the fore by the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development s commitment to leave no one behind Practices within the remit of inclusion often focus on increasing access and meaningful participation with emphasis placed on bringing those at the margins to the centre Theologies and Practices of Inclusion challenges such centre focused practices from a global perspective based on research conducted within the Christian relief development and advocacy organisation Tearfund and beyond Offering inspiration for practitioners within the sector and faith based organisations in particular as well as an academic contribution to the fields of international development studies and theology the book aims to bridge theology and practice in an accessible way Consisting of 13 chapters and case studies this book draws on the wisdom of a diverse team of contributors at the forefront of international development working in a variety of contexts These include South Africa Malaysia Sri Lanka Ethiopia Nigeria Kenya Rwanda Ecuador Panama Bolivia the Philippines Iraq Egypt and the UK Highlighting journey change and belonging as three key aspects of inclusion the book explores the outworking of theologies of inclusion within organisational practice With a foreword by Ruth Valerio and an afterword by Catriona Dejean Transforming Masculinities York Matt, Mlibeni Skhumbuzo, 2015-10-19 A growing number of innovative gender transformative programmes targeting men and boys have been developed across sub-Saharan Africa. One such initiative is the Khanyisa Programme in rural KwaZulu Natal South Africa which utilises the concept of Ubuntu as a lens through which to explore subjects such as masculinity inequality gender violence and HIV AIDS. Focusing through transformative learning theory this book explores how socio-cultural processes construct societal patterns of masculine domination and related individual masculine identities and examines the use of gender transformative programmes towards the reconstruction of new more equitable gender identities. A Khanyisa Programme resource pack is included for facilitators Social Institutions and Gender Index Man Enough? Measuring Masculine Norms to Promote Women's Empowerment OECD, 2021-03-08 Masculinities can either support or hinder women's empowerment and greater gender equality. However, a lack of consistent and comparable data hinders efforts to understand and assess harmful restrictive masculinities. This report identifies and describes ten norms of restrictive masculinities to be urgently addressed within the political, economic and private spheres The Palgrave Handbook of African Men and Masculinities Ezra Chitando, Obert Bernard Mlambo, Sakhumzi Mfecane, Kopano Ratele, 2024-05-07 This handbook provides a comprehensive interdisciplinary overview of key theoretical and analytical approaches, topics and debates in contemporary scholarship on African masculinities. Refusing to privilege Western theoretical constructs but remaining in dialogue with them, contributors explore the contestations around and diversities within men, masculinities and sexualities in Africa, investigate individual and collective practices of masculinity and interrogate the social construction of masculinities. Bringing together insights from scholars across gender studies, sociology, anthropology, philosophy, history, literature and religion, this book demonstrates how recognizing and upholding the integrity of African phenomena, locating and reflecting on men and masculinities in varied African contexts and drawing new theoretical frameworks all combine to take the discourse on men and masculinities in Africa forward. Chapters examine a range of issues within the context of masculinities including embodiment, sport, violence, militarism, spirituality, gender roles, fatherhood, homosexuality, health and work. This handbook will be valuable reading for scholars, researchers and policymakers in Masculinity Studies and more broadly Gender Studies as well as Africana Studies Re-Thinking Men Anthony Synnott, 2024-05-31 Much writing on men in the field of gender studies tends to focus unduly almost exclusively on portraying men as villains and women as victims in a moral bi-polar paradigm. Re-Thinking Men reverses the proclivity which ignores not only the positive contributions of men to society but also the male victims of life including the homeless, the incarcerated, the victims of homicide, suicide, accidents, war and the draft, and sexism as well as those affected by the failures of the health, education, political and justice systems. Proceeding from a radically different perspective in seeking a more positive, balanced and inclusive view of men and women, this book presents three contrasting paradigms of men as heroes, villains and victims.

Revised and updated and presenting data and studies from the United States Canada and the United Kingdom it offers a comparative and revised perspective on gender that will be of interest to scholars across a range of social sciences

Making Sense of Fatherhood Tina Miller, 2010-11-18 As family and work demands become more complex who is left holding the baby Tina Miller explores men's experiences of fatherhood and provides unique insights into paternal caring changing masculinities and men's relations to paid work She focuses on the narratives of a group of men as they first anticipate and then experience fatherhood for the first time Her original longitudinal research contributes to contemporary theories of gender against a backdrop of societal and policy change The men's journeys into fatherhood are both similar and varied and they illuminate just how deeply gender permeates individual lives everyday practices and societal assumptions around caring for young children This book acts as a companion to Making Sense of Motherhood Cambridge University Press 2005 and together these innovative studies reveal how gendered practices around caring become enacted The Routledge Companion to Marketing and Feminism Pauline Maclaran, Lorna Stevens, Olga Kravets, 2022-02-25 This comprehensive and authoritative sourcebook offers academics researchers and students an introduction to and overview of current scholarship at the intersection of marketing and feminism In the last five years there has been a resurrection of feminist voices in marketing and consumer research This mirrors a wider public interest in feminism particularly in the media as well as the academy with younger women discovering that patriarchal structures and strictures still limit women's development and life opportunities The F word is back on the agenda made high profile by campaigns such as MeToo and TimesUp There is a noticeably renewed interest in feminist scholarship especially amongst younger scholars and significantly insightful interdisciplinary critiques of this new brand of feminism including the identification of a neoliberal feminism that urges professional women to achieve a work family balance on the back of other women's exploitation Consolidating existing scholarship while exploring emerging theories and ideas which will generate further feminist research this volume will be of interest to researchers academics and students in marketing and consumption studies especially those studying or researching the complex inter relationship of feminism and marketing Gender in Peacebuilding, 2021-11-01 Gender age class ethnicity religion and political ideologies all matter in peacebuilding Adopting a feminist approach the 13th volume of International Development Policy analyses such intersecting differences in local contexts to develop a better understanding of how intersectionally gendered dynamics shape and are shaped by peacebuilding In this volume findings are presented from a six year collaborative research project that involving scholars from Indonesia Nigeria and Switzerland investigated peacebuilding initiatives in Indonesia and Nigeria The authors identify a number of logics that highlight how gender is deployed strategically or asserts itself inadvertently through gender stereotypes gendered divisions of labour or identity constructions Contributors include Mimidoo Achakpa Ceren Bulduk Rahel Kunz Henri Myrntinen Joy Onyesoh Elisabeth Pr gl Arifah Rahmawati Christelle Rigual and Wening Udasmoro Research Handbook on Transitional Justice Cheryl Lawther, Luke

Making Sense of Brexit Victor J. Seidler, 2018-01-31 After the shock decision to leave the EU in 2016 what can we learn about our divided and increasingly unequal society and the need to listen to each other This engaging and accessible book addresses the causes and implications of Brexit exploring this moral anger against political elites and people feeling estranged from a political process and economic system that no longer expressed their will Seidler argues that we need new political imaginations across class race religion gender and sexuality to engage in issues about the scale and acceleration of urban change and the time people need to adjust to new realities He suggests we need to listen to people s concerns not only about the impact of immigration and globalisation on their lives but also about the injustice of a capitalist economy that makes them pay through austerity and cuts in social welfare for a financial crisis they were not responsible for He imagines alternative futures that will allow different generations to still appreciate themselves as Europeans with a future in Europe

Being a Man in a Transnational World Ernesto Vasquez del Aguila, 2013-10-08 This book explores the masculinity and sexuality of migration analyzing the complex processes of becoming a man and the strategies used by men to reconcile paradoxes and contradictions that co exist between multiple masculinities and contradictory models of being a man Vasquez del Aguila offers a number of conceptual contributions including the notion of masculine capital that provides men with the necessary masculine skills and cultural competence to achieve legitimacy and social recognition as men an analysis of male friendship where notions of solidarity and intimacy co exist with those of distrust competition and power relations and three social representations of being a man the winner the failed and the good enough man By analyzing heterosexual as well as gay masculinities and incorporating race and class relations this study shows the multiplicity and hierarchies of masculinities presented within a particular cultural context Through ethnographic research undertaken over more than four years in New York and Lima Peru this book also examines the role of the Internet and transnational romances and the ways in which migration can create new opportunities for male sexual intimacy while for others it creates loneliness and isolation

The ^AOxford Handbook of Transnational Feminist Movements Rawwida Baksh, Wendy Harcourt, 2015-03-25 The Oxford Handbook of Transnational Feminist Movements explores the historical political and economic context in which transnational feminist movements have emerged and spread and the contributions these movements have made to global knowledge policy and social change from the 1970s to the present As it includes contributions from scholars and practitioners from around the globe particularly from the Southern Hemisphere the chapters consider the interplay between the lived experience of transnational feminist movements and the way that women s rights and gender equality have been theorized in different locations and contexts

The Oxford Handbook of Transnational Feminist Movements Daniel Beland, Christopher Howard, Kimberly J. Morgan, 2015-02-25 The American welfare state has long been a source of political contention and academic debate This Oxford Handbook pulls together much of our current knowledge about the origins development functions and challenges of American social policy

After the Introduction the first substantive part of the handbook offers an historical overview of U S social policy from the colonial era to the present This is followed by a set of chapters on different theoretical perspectives available for understanding and explaining the development of U S social policy The three following parts of the volume focus on concrete social programs for the elderly the poor and near poor the disabled and workers and families Policy areas covered include health care pensions food assistance housing unemployment benefits disability benefits workers compensation family support and programs for soldiers and veterans The final part of the book focuses on some of the consequences of the U S welfare state for poverty inequality and citizenship Many of the chapters comprising this handbook emphasize the disjointed patterns of policy making inherent to U S policymaking and the public private mix of social provision in which the government helps certain groups of citizens directly e g social insurance or indirectly e g tax expenditures regulations The contributing authors are experts from political science sociology history economics and other social sciences

John Buchan and the Idea of Modernity Kate Macdonald, Nathan Waddell, 2015-10-06 Considered a quintessentially popular author John Buchan was a writer of fiction journalism philosophy and Scottish history By examining his engagement with empire psychoanalysis and propaganda the contributors to this volume place Buchan at the centre of the debate between popular culture and the modernist elite

Peace Processes John D. Brewer, 2013-04-25 Peace processes are mostly very fragile This engagingly written book takes a bold new approach to the topic by beginning from the premise that sociology can identify those factors that help to stabilize them The book draws a distinction between the political and social dimensions of peace processes arguing that each is dependent on the other Consideration of the social peace process neglected in conventional treatments of the subject is made central to this volume While complementing current approaches that emphasize institutional reform in politics law and economics it pays due attention to sociological factors such as gender civil society religion the deconstruction of violent masculinities restorative justice emotions hope forgiveness truth recovery social memory and public victimhood These important themes are fully illustrated with examples and in depth case studies from across the globe The book locates itself within the growing debate about the positive impact of global civil society on peace and identifies the new forms of peace work engendered by globalization It will be essential reading for students and scholars of peace studies in politics international relations and sociology departments
