Transition 115 IU Press Journals, 2015-02-20 Published three times per year by Indiana University Press for the

Hutchins Center at Harvard University Transition is a unique forum for the freshest most compelling ideas from and about the black world Since its founding in Uganda in 1961 the magazine has kept pace of the rapid transformation of the African Diaspora and has remained a leading forum of intellectual debate This issue of Transition focuses on Mad The editors look at connections between blackness and psychology examining Richard Wright s attempts to bring clinical psychotherapy to Harlem and revealing the links between schizophrenia and fears of black psychos As Ferguson Missouri becomes the latest community to rage against the state sanctioned murder of unarmed black men we ask what James Baldwin and Stokely Carmichael might have to tell us about why African Americans continue to be pushed to the margins of American society The editors also examine the marginalized community of black Palestinians doubly imperiled by Israeli slaughter and internal racism And finally on a lighter note discover music and art that we re mad about from Otis Redding and Vijay Iyer to Kara Walker and Christopher Cozier

Runaway Genres Yogita Goyal, 2019-10-29 Winner 2021 Ren Wellek Prize given by the American Comparative Literature Association Winner 2021 Barbara Perkins and George Perkins Award given by the International Society for the Study of Narrative Honorable Mention 2020 James Russell Lowell Prize given by the Modern Language Association Argues that the slave narrative is a new world literary genre In Runaway Genres Yogita Goyal tracks the emergence of slavery as the defining template through which current forms of human rights abuses are understood The post black satire of Paul Beatty and Mat Johnson modern slave narratives from Sudan to Sierra Leone and the new Afropolitan diaspora of writers like Teju Cole and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie all are woven into Goyal s argument for the slave narrative as a new world literary genre exploring the full complexity of this new ethical globalism From the humanitarian spectacles of Kony 2012 and BringBackOurGirls through gothic literature Runaway Genres unravels for instance how and why the African child soldier has now appeared as the afterlife of the Atlantic slave Goyal argues that in order to fathom forms of freedom and bondage today from unlawful detention to sex trafficking to the refugee crisis to genocide we must turn to contemporary literature which reveals how the literary forms used to tell these stories derive from the antebellum genre of the slave narrative Exploring the ethics and aesthetics of globalism the book presents alternative conceptions of human rights showing that the revival and proliferation of slave narratives offers not just an occasion to revisit the Atlantic past but also for re narrating the global present In reassessing these legacies and their ongoing relation to race and the human Runaway Genres creates a new map with which to navigate contemporary black diaspora literature

Pan-African American Literature Stephanie Li, 2018-09-14 2019 Choice Outstanding Academic Title The twenty first century is witnessing a dynamic broadening of how blackness signifies both in the U S and abroad Literary writers of the new African diaspora are at the forefront of exploring these exciting approaches to what black subjectivity means Pan African American Literature is dedicated to charting the contours of literature by African born or identified authors centered around life in the United States The texts examined here deliberately signify on the African American literary canon to encompass new experiences of immigration assimilation and identification that challenge how blackness has been previously conceived. Though race often alienates and frustrates immigrants who are accustomed to living in all black environments, Stephanie Li holds that it can also be a powerful form of community and political mobilization. Under Construction Marie-Anne Kohl, 2021-01-14. While currently identitarian ideologies and essentialist notions of identity that tend to simplify and reduce life experience to simple factors are globally regaining massive attention, it becomes inevitable to recollect the thorough discussions of identity concepts of the past three decades. It also calls for an ever keener awareness of and capacity to deal with the complexity and diversity of the world we live in. Artists play a major role in the potential reflection and transformation of perceptions and conceptions of the world: musicians, dancers, choreographers, spoken word artists, performance artists, actors, also fine art installation media artists or photographers alike. Performing critical identity points to performative practices of artists that bring to the fore a critical self-awareness and self-positioning concerning identification and belonging. Social identities such as gender, sexuality, race, class, disability, age, or non-religiosity are closely linked to the historical, social, regional, and political dimensions of their formation. From this perspective, identities are hardly one-dimensional but complex and intersectional and are rather to be thought of as a process of identification and belonging than as a consistent essence. As different, maybe contradictory among themselves as they are, the performative works of artists such as Lerato Shadi Liad, Hussein Kantorowicz, Nora Chipaumire, Shu Lea Cheang, Zanele Muholi, Ohno Kazuo, Anohni, Hegarty, Neo Hlcker, We re Muslim, Don t Panic, or of theatre collectives such as RambaZamba and Thikwa Theater in Berlin or Theater Hora in Zurich, to name but a very small, quite random selection of artists, share a critical approach towards hegemonic norms or stereotyping of identities and their representations and empower diversity. This edition puts a specific focus on the performativity of the aesthetic practices and wants to explore different artistic approaches, strategies, tactics, and perspectives of artists when they address identity issues, when they target power relations and structures of oppression and inequality, when they empower concepts of diversity. This Call for Papers invites academic as well as artistic contributions that delve into case studies of artists performing critical identity or into more general theoretical reflections on the subject. Contributions can relate to but are not limited to following topics: intersectionality, subversion, self-empowerment, resistance, subalternity, exploitation, manipulation, anti-feminism, appropriation, cultural globalisation, transculturality, hybrid identities, collectives, body, stage, audience, deconstruction of the difference of aesthetic genres and of high popular culture, capitalism, colonialism, re-production of exclusion. Dr Marie Anne Kohl, Editor. The Contemporary Middle East in an Age of Upheaval James L. Gelvin, 2021-05-18. The US invasion of Iraq in 2003 and the Arab uprisings of 2010-11 left indelible imprints on the Middle East. Yet these events have not reshaped the region as pundits once predicted. With this volume, top experts on the region offer wide-ranging considerations of the characteristics, continuities, and discontinuities of the contemporary Middle East, addressing topics from international politics to political Islam, hip hop to human security. This book engages six themes to understand the contemporary Middle East the spread of sectarianism abandonment of principles of state sovereignty the lack of a regional hegemonic power increased Saudi Iranian competition decreased regional attention to the Israel Palestine conflict and fallout from the Arab uprisings as well as offers individual country studies With analysis from historians political scientists sociologists and anthropologists and up to date discussions of the Syrian Civil War impacts of the Trump presidency and the 2020 uprisings in Lebanon Algeria and Sudan this book will be an essential guide for anyone seeking to understand the current state of the region

World is Africa Eddie Chambers, 2020-12-10 World is Africa brings together more than 30 important texts by Eddie Chambers who for several decades has been an original and a critical voice within the field of African diaspora art history The texts range from book chapters and catalogue essays to shorter texts Chambers focuses on contemporary artists and their practices from a range of international locations who for the most part are identified with the African diaspora None of the texts are available online and none have been available outside of the original publication in which they first appeared The volume contains several new pieces of writing including a consideration of the art world fetishization of the 1980s as the manifestation of a reluctance to accept the majority of Black British artists as valid individual practitioners choosing instead to shackle them to exhibitions that took place three decades ago Another new text re examines the map paintings of Frank Bowling the Guyana born artist who was the subject of a major retrospective at Tate Britain in 2019 The third introduces the little known record sleeve illustrations of Charles White the American artist who was the subject of a major retrospective in 2018 at major galleries across the US Among the other new texts is a critical reflection on the patronage the Greater London Council extended to Black artists in 1980s London World is Africa makes a valuable contribution to the emerging discipline of black British art history the field of African diaspora studies and African diaspora art history

The Jews of Eighteenth-Century Jamaica Stanley Mirvis, 2020-05-01 An in depth look at the Portuguese Jews of Jamaica and their connections to broader European and Atlantic trade networks Based on last wills and testaments composed by Jamaican Jews between 1673 and 1815 this book explores the social and familial experiences of one of the most critical yet understudied nodes of the Atlantic Portuguese Jewish Diaspora Stanley Mirvis examines how Jamaica s Jews put down roots as traders planters pen keepers physicians fishermen and metalworkers and reveals how their presence shaped the colony as much as settlement in the tropical West Indies transformed the lives of the island s Jews

Gender, Governance and Islam Deniz Kandiyoti, 2019-08-05 Following a period of rapid political change both globally and in relation to the Middle East and South Asia this collection sets new terms of reference for an analysis of the intersections between global state non state and popular actors and their contradictory effects on the politics of gender The volume charts the shifts in academic discourse and global development practice that shape our understanding of gender both as an object of policy and as a terrain for activism Nine individual case studies systematically explore how struggles for political control and legitimacy determine both the ways in which dominant gender orders are safeguarded and the diverse forms of resistance against them The ^ADomestic Abroad Latha Varadarajan,2010-10-08 This book proposes a re consideration of both the meaning of transnationalism and the nature of national and state identity in global politics In order to do this the author draws from two literatures that are rarely brought into conversation with International Relations scholarship postcolonial theory and historical materialism developing her argument through an analysis of the post 1947 Indian state and the relationship between its emergent economic power and its diaspora Geographies of the Ear Tania Gentic,2025-08-15 Tania Gentic examines the soundscape of post Franco Barcelona to point out the difficulties of considering the contemporary city as either the product of a monolingual national identity or a lived space easily circumscribed by geographical categories African Women's Literature, Orature, and Intertextuality Susan Arndt,1998 Third International Handbook of Globalisation, Education and Policy Research Joseph Zajda,2021-09-17 This handbook presents a global overview of current research in education and education policy reforms during the last decade It provides an accessible practical and comparative source of current research that examines the intersecting and diverse discourses of this important issue It first examines globalisation education and policy research and reforms in higher education including coverage of main trends in education and policy reforms globally as well as specific policy issues such as gender equity minorities and human rights Next the handbook offers a comparative perspective that evaluates the ambivalent and problematic relationship between globalisation the state and education reforms globally It features coverage on curricula issues and education reforms in schools around the world the curriculum in the global culture as well as globalisation and education futures with respect to social justice and human rights The handbook contributes to a better and a more holistic understanding of the education reforms and research nexus offering possible strategies for the effective and pragmatic policy planning and implementation at the local regional and national levels It will serve as a vital sourcebook of ideas for researchers practitioners and policy makers in education The Road Taken Sung Hee Ru,2025-09-01 Traces China s transformations with a focus on China s incorporation process in the nineteenth century which help to grasp the historical origins of China s capitalism As Europe s colonial powers reached China in the nineteenth century they became so strong that China could no longer ignore them Given that the unprecedented geographical expansion of the European system undermined a China centered world order and brought unprecedented changes to Chinese society an intriguing question why and how the Chinese empire entered into the capitalist world economy has attracted increasing attention among historians historical sociologists and world systems researchers Yet there has been no comprehensive monograph touching on China s incorporation process into the capitalist world economy To rectify this The Road Taken investigates China s incorporation process Incorporation studies based on world systems analysis aims to illustrate the long term integration process of external arenas into the capitalist world economy Ru traces China s transformations with a focus on how incorporation process unfolded over the course of a century 1780s 1890s which represents a watershed era in the relations between China and the capitalist world The Black Chicago Renaissance Darlene Clark Hine, John McCluskey, 2012-06-25 The New Negro consciousness with its roots in the generation born in the last and opening decades of the 19th and 20th centuries replenished and nurtured by migration resulted in the Harlem Renaissance in the 1920s then reemerged transformed in the 1930s as the Black Chicago Renaissance The authors in this volume argue that beginning in the 1930s and lasting into the 1950s Black Chicago experienced a cultural renaissance that rivaled the cultural outpouring in Harlem The Black Chicago Renaissance however has not received its full due This book addresses that neglect Like Harlem Chicago had become a major destination for black southern migrants Unlike Harlem it was also an urban industrial center that gave a unique working class and internationalist perspective to the cultural work that took place here The contributors to Black Chicago Renaissance analyze a prolific period of African American creativity in music performance art social science scholarship and visual and literary artistic expression Each author discusses forces that distinguished and link the Black Chicago Renaissance to the Harlem Renaissance as well as placing the development of black culture in a national and international context by probing the histories of multiple sequential and overlapping Philadelphia Cleveland Detroit Los Angeles Memphis black renaissances Among the topics discussed in this volume are Chicago writers Gwendolyn Brooks and Richard Wright The Chicago Defender and Tivoli Theater African American music and visual arts as well as the American Negro Exposition of 1940 African Arts ,1993 Caribbean Life in New York City Constance R.
