queerqueen Claire Maree, 2020-06-30. queerqueen examines the editing and writing of queer excess through the constructed character of the queerqueen. Through Japanese print digital and audiovisual media Claire Maree demonstrates how collaborative practices of commercial language labor configure queerqueen styles as crossing into popular media via the body of the authentically queer male. Maree shows how this process then re-produces stereotypes of gender sexuality and desire that are essential to mainstream entertainment.

Corpus-Based Translation Studies Alet Kruger, Kim Wallmach, Jeremy Munday, 2011-06-16. This is a collection of leading research within corpus based translation studies. CTS is now recognized as a major paradigm that has transformed analysis within the discipline of translation studies. It can be defined as the use of corpus linguistic technologies to inform and elucidate the translation process something that is increasingly accessible through advances in computer technology. The book pulls together a wide range of perspectives from respected authors in the field. All the chapters deal with the implementation of the basic concepts and methodologies providing the reader with practical tools for their own research. The book addresses key issues in corpus analysis including online corpora and corpus construction and covers both translation and interpreting. The authors look at various languages and utilize a variety of approaches qualitative and quantitative reflecting the breadth of the field and providing many valuable examples of the methodology at work.
