Transnational Yearnings Transnational Yearnings:

Transnational Yearnings Jenny Burman, 2011-01-01 The global pathways that connect cities and nations are congested with people money and cultural transmissions Transnational Yearnings is about the migrations and uneven exchanges that bind postcolonial Jamaica to the diasporic city It is about the desires intimacies and power relations that at once inform and reflect transnational migration and the diasporization of urban space This innovative and provocative book maps out a new way to look at contemporary contact zones and global interconnections as it traces circuits of migration and leisure travel between the Caribbean and Toronto a city that has become for Jamaican Canadians both a place of promise and cultural vitality and a site of criminalization and exclusion through deportation Transnational Yearnings is an important addition to recent scholarship on Caribbean transnationalism and Canadian Caribbean relations one that paints a fuller portrait of Jamaican immigrants than we often see      Moving Islands Diana Looser, 2021-09-30 Moving Islands reveals the international and intercultural connections within contemporary performance from Oceania focusing on theater performance art art installations dance film and activist performance in sites throughout Oceania and in Australia Asia North America and Europe Diana Looser s study moves beyond a predictable country specific or island specific focus to encompass an entire region defined by diversity and global exchange showing how performance operates to frame social artistic and political relationships across widely dispersed locations The study also demonstrates how Oceanian performance contributes to international debates about diaspora indigeneity urbanization and environmental sustainability The author considers the region s unique cultural and geographic dynamics as she brings forth the paradigm of transpacificity to suggest a way of understanding these intercultural exchanges and connections with the aim to rework the cartographic and disciplinary priorities of transpacific studies to privilege the activities of Islander peoples      The Kaleidoscope of Gender Joan Z. Spade, Catherine G. Valentine, 2011 An accessible timely and stimulating introduction to the sociology of gender The Kaleidoscope of Gender Prisms Patterns and Possibilities Third Edition provides a comprehensive analysis of key ideas theories and applications in this field as viewed through the metaphor of a kaleidoscope This collection of creative articles by top scholars explains how the complex evolving pattern of gender is constructed interpersonally institutionally and culturally and challenges students to question how gender shapes their daily lives Like the prior edition the Third Edition maintains a focus on contemporary contributions to the field while incorporating classical and theoretical arguments to provide a broad framework Integrating a cross cultural focus and intersectional inquiry this unique text reader vividly illustrates that gender is a malleable continuum of prisms patterns and possibilities      The Cambridge Companion to Contemporary African American Literature Yogita Goyal, 2023-12-21 African American literature has changed in startling ways since the end of the Black Arts Era The last five decades have generated new paradigms of racial formation and novel patterns of cultural production circulation and reception This volume takes up the challenge of mapping the varied and changing field of contemporary African American writing Balancing the demands of historical and political context with attention to aesthetic innovation it considers the history practice and future directions of the field Examining various historical forces shaping the creation of innovative genres the turn to the afterlife of slavery the pull toward protest and the impact of new and expanded geographies and methods this Companion provides an invaluable point of reference for readers seeking rigorous and cutting edge analyses of contemporary African American literature

North of El Norte Paloma E. Villegas,2020-09-15 North of El Norte provides an important counterpoint to the attention given to Mexican migration to the United States by examining a lesser known migration route that taken by contemporary Mexican migrants to Canada Paloma Villegas considers changing Canadian immigration policy and practice and the implications of these changes for Mexican migrants without permanent resident status Her analysis addresses the context in Mexico the experience of border crossing policies to restrict migration and migrants options to achieve secure status Villegas also provides an assessment of the barriers migrants encounter once in Canada specifically in the labour market in their creative pursuits and in accessing health care Drawing on interviews policy documents media accounts and literature from local social service organizations North of El Norte concludes that migration and by extension migrant illegalization is assembled produced and negotiated The comprehensive research in this book sheds light on how individuals and institutions work to illegalize migrants and on migrants active resistance to these efforts

Sport in the Black Atlantic Janelle Joseph,2017-01-31 This book outlines the ways sport helps to create transnational social fields that interconnect migrants dispersed across a region known as the Black Atlantic England North America and the Caribbean Many Caribbean men s stories about their experiences migrating to Canada settling in Toronto finding jobs and travelling involved some contact with a cricket and social club It offers a unique contribution to black diaspora studies through showing sport in Canada as a means of contending with ageing in the diaspora creating transnational relationships and marking ethnic boundaries on a local scale The book also brings black diaspora analysis to sport research and through a close look at what goes on before during and after cricket matches provides insights into the dis unities contradictions and complexities of Afro diasporic identity in multicultural Canada It will be of interest to students and scholars in sociology sport studies and black diaspora studies An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC licence

Moves - Spaces - Places Lisa Johnson,2021-10-01 In the complex and multi layered process of migration and identity building classical migration theories and approaches of transnationalism seem no longer able to grasp how belonging and home are to be found in movement This ethnography leads the reader into the lives of five Jamaican women in Montreal their daily practices and experiences their spaces of communion their memories and projections for the future Lisa Johnson sheds light on the mobile biographies and migratory agency of her interlocutors by following the intricate mental and physical trajectories of their deep rooted yearning to return home

The Routledge Companion to the American Landscape Chris W. Post,Alyson L. Greiner,Geoffrey L. Buckley,2023-03-31 The Routledge

Companion to the American Landscape provides a comprehensive overview of the American landscape in a way fit for the twenty first century not only in its topical and regional scope but also in its methodological and disciplinary diversity. Critically surveying the contemporary scholarship on the American landscape this companion brings together scholars from the social sciences and humanities who focus their work on understanding the polyphonic evolution of the United States landscape. It simultaneously assesses the development of the US landscape as well as the scholarly thought that has driven innovation and continued research about that landscape. Four broad sections focus on key areas of scholarship: environmental landscapes, social cultural and popular identities in the landscape, political landscapes, and urban economic landscapes. A special essay, American Landscapes Under Siege, and accompanying short case studies call attention to the legacies and realities of race in the American landscape, bridging the discussion of social and political landscapes. This companion offers an invaluable and up to date guide for scholars and graduate students to current thinking across the range of disciplines which converge in the study of place including Geography, Cultural Studies, and History, as well as the interdisciplinary fields of American Studies, Environmental Studies, and Planning.

Winged Faith Tulasi Srinivas, 2010-06-10 The Sathya Sai global civil religious movement incorporates Hindu and Muslim practices, Buddhist, Christian, and Zoroastrian influences, and New Age style rituals and beliefs. Shri Sathya Sai Baba, its charismatic and controversial leader, attracts several million adherents from various national, ethnic, and religious backgrounds. In a dynamic account of the Sathya Sai movement's explosive growth, Winged Faith argues for a rethinking of globalization and the politics of identity in a religiously plural world. This study considers a new kind of cosmopolitanism located in an alternate understanding of difference and contestation. It considers how acts of sacred spectating and illusion, moral stakeholding, and the problems of community are debated and experienced. A thrilling study of a transcultural and transurban phenomenon that questions narratives of self and being, circuits of sacred mobility, and the politics of affect, Winged Faith suggests new methods for discussing religion in a globalizing world and introduces readers to an easily critiqued yet not fully understood community.

Postcolonial Yearning A. Sen, 2013-02-20 Anglophone postcolonial studies has been characterized by its secular nature. Yet as the first generation of scholars grapples with mortality, a yearning for spiritual meaning is emerging in many texts. This study synthesizes the sacred language used in these texts with critical theory in order to create a holistic frame for interpretive analysis.

Consuming Cultures The Feminist Review Collective, 2005-07-20 Consuming Cultures is concerned with the interrelationship of gender and the circuits of consumption distribution production and reproduction The book looks at the ways in which gender intervenes in all parts of the circuit or the linkages between different elements      African Diasporic Women's Narratives Simone A. James Alexander,2014-06-03 Using feminist and womanist theory Alexander takes as her main point of analysis works that focus on the black female body as the physical and metaphorical site of migration in the process successfully demonstrating that diaspora has a different meaning for women than men      Imagining the Tropics Elizabeth S. Manley,Elizabeth Manley,2025 Imagining the Tropics is a history of the development of tourism in the Caribbean from the 1910s through the 1970s that focuses on the ways women s labors of hospitality writing and advocacy built the industry and its ubiquitous imagery of tropical island relaxation escape and romance By examining a range of sources engaging an array of women protagonists and looking broadly across multiple Caribbean island states including Jamaica Cuba the Bahamas Barbados the Dominican Republic Haiti Puerto Rico Trinidad and Tobago and the U S and British Virgin Islands it seeks to understand how the region came to be sold as a romantic escape from the troubles of the modern world By putting women at the center of Caribbean tourism history as both its ambassadors and objects of desire it seeks to explain some of the complicated contradictions that plague the business of pleasure but also to point toward ways of building alternative models to its present and past extractive realities      Canada and the Third World Karen Dubinsky,Sean Mills,Scott Rutherford,2016-03-31 Even though they are aware of the Third World in relation to their daily lives most Canadians know little about the historical foundations and complex nature of their country s entanglements with non Western societies Canada and the Third World provides a long overdue introduction to Canada s historical relationship with the Third World The book critically explores this relationship by asking four central questions how can we understand the historical roots of Canada s relations with the Third World How have Canadians individuals and institutions alike practiced and imagined development How can we integrate Canada into global histories of empire decolonization and development And how should we understand the relationship between issues such as poverty racism gender equality and community development in the First and Third World alike      Border Terrains: World Diasporas in the 21st Century Allyson Eamer,2020-05-06 Border Terrains examines 21st century diasporas through the lenses of identity negotiation religious faith language media and representations in fiction      Circulation and the City Alexandra Boutros,Will Straw,2010-02-21 A series of rich case studies examine a range of topics including neighbourhood gentrification subway busking yard sales electronic waste and language refining the touchstone principle of circulation for the study of urban culture both materially and theoretically Contributors employ a variety of disciplinary approaches to create a richly varied picture of the multiple trajectories and effects of movement in the city An engaging work that considers city planning urban culture and social behaviour Circulation and the City adds a new dimension that revitalizes the ways we have commonly looked at and thought about the city

Introduction to Middle Eastern Law Chibli Mallat,2007-07-12 This book provides an introduction to the laws of the Middle East defining the contours of a field of study that deserves to be called Middle Eastern law It introduces Middle Eastern law as a reflection of legal styles many of which are shared by Islamic law and the laws of Christian and Jewish Near Eastern communities It offers a detailed survey of the foundations of Middle Eastern Law using court archives and an array of legal sources from the earliest records of Hammurabi to the massive compendia of law in the Islamic classical age through to the latest decisions of Middle Eastern high courts It focuses on the way legislators and courts conceive of law and apply it in the Middle East It builds on the author's extensive legal practice with the aim of introducing the Middle Eastern law's main sources and concepts in a manner accessible to non specialist legal scholars and practitioners alike The book begins with an exploration of the depth and variety of Middle Eastern law introducing the concepts of shari'a fiqh and qanun which all mean law and dwelling on Islamic law as the common law of the Middle East It provides a historical introduction to the contemporary Middle East exploring political systems constitutional law judicial review the laws of tort and obligations commercial law including Islamic banking company law capital markets and commercial arbitration and examines legislative reform in family law and the position of women in the legal system The author considers the interaction between Islamic and Western laws and includes a bibliography designed for further research into the jurisdictions and themes explored throughout the book

Ebony Roots, Northern Soil Charmaine A. Nelson, 2010-10-12 Ebony Roots Northern Soil is a powerful and timely collection of critical essays exploring the experiences histories and cultural engagements of black Canadians Drawing from postcolonial critical race and black feminist theory this innovative anthology brings together an extraordinary set of well recognized and new scholars engaging in the critical debates about the cultural politics of identity and issues of cultural access representation production and reception Emerging from a national conference in 2005 the book records critiques and yet transcends this groundbreaking event Drawn from a range of disciplines including Art History Communication Studies Cultural Studies Education English History and Sociology the chapters examine black contributions to and participation within the realms of popular music television and film the art world museums academia and social activism In the process the burning issues of access to cultural capital the practice of multiculturalism definitions of black Canadianness and the state of Black Canadian Studies are dissected Attentive to issues of sexuality and gender as well as race the book also explores and challenges the dominance of black Americanness in Canada especially in its incarnation as hip hop Acknowledging a differently constituted and heterogeneous black Canadianness it contemplates the possibility of an identity in dialogue with and yet distinct from dominant ideals of African Americanness Ebony Roots also explores the deficit in Black Canadian Studies across the nation's universities drawing a line between the neglect of black Canadian populations histories and experiences in general and the resulting lack of an academic disciplinary infrastructure Poignant blends of the personal and the political the chapters are both scholarly in their critical insights and rigour and daring in their honesty Ebony Roots defiantly foregrounds the often disavowed issues of institutional racism against blacks in Canadian academia education and cultural institutions as well as the injurious effects of everyday racism In so doing the book challenges the myth of Canada as a racially benevolent and tolerant state the great white north free from racism and the legacy of colonialism Instead the very definitions of Canada and black Canadianness are unpacked and explored Ebony Roots is a necessary history lesson a contemporary cultural debate and a call to action It is a momentous and overdue contribution to Black Canadian Studies and a must read for academics students and the general public alike

The Global and Regional in China's Nation-Formation Prasenjit Duara, 2008-12-01 China's history tends to be studied from a national perspective only The Global and Regional in China's Nation Formation attempts to train our eyes to see the picture of China less as a self contained entity a geobody than as part of a broader set of global and regional processes from the outside in It covers the major historical problems of China in the twentieth century namely imperialism nationalism state building religion and the role of history Part I views imperialism and nationalism in China from the perspective of global and regional circulations and interactions It also examines the changing role of history over the twentieth century from the same perspective Part II focuses on how myth religion and Chinese conceptions of society and polity are re shaped by external influences and forces as well as how these internal practices themselves shape the external impact Part III is a comparative section examining how global processes become unique developments in China The Global and Regional in China's Nation Formation is an ideal resource for anyone studying China's history society and culture
