Transvestism, Masculinity, and Latin American Literature B. Sifuentes-Jáuregui, 2002-02-22 This book is about transvestism and the performance of gender in Latin American literature and culture Ben Sifuentes Jáuregui explores the figure of the transvestite and his/her relation to the body through a series of canonical Latin American texts By analyzing works by Alejo Carpentier José Donoso Severo Sarduy and Manuel Puig author of Kiss of the Spider Woman alongside critical works in gender studies and queer theory Sifuentes Jáuregui shows how transvestism operates not only to destabilize but often to affirm sexual gender national and political identities The Avowal of Difference Ben.

Sifuentes-Jáuregui, 2014-11-19 Discusses how theories of queer performativity as articulated within the US Academy are unable to capture the whole of Latino American queer subjectivity and experience The Avowal of Difference explores the potentialities and limitations that queer theory offers in the context of Latino American texts and subjects Ben Sifuentes Jáuregui contrasts Latino American sexual genealogies with the Anglo European coming out narrative and interrogates the centrality of the coming out story as the regulating metaphor for gay lesbian or queer identities In its place the book looks at other strategies from silence to circumlocution from disavowal to indifference to theorize queer subject formation in a Latino American cultural context The analysis of texts by José Lezama Lima Luis Zapata Manuel Puig Severo Sarduy Junot Díaz and others offers a comparative approach to understanding how queer sexualities are shaped and written in other cultural contexts The Avowal of Difference is a delightful critical encounter between queer criticism and Latino American literature and culture I wish I had written it myself Ramón E Soto Crespo author of Mainland Passage The Cultural Anomaly of Puerto Rico Masquerade and Social Justice in Contemporary Latin American Fiction Helene Carol Weldt-Basson, 2017-05-01

Contemporary Latin American fiction establishes a unique connection between masquerade frequently motivated by stigma or trauma and social justice Using an interdisciplinary approach that combines philosophy history psychology literature and social justice theory this study delineates the synergistic connection between these two themes Weldt Basson examines fourteen novels by twelve different Latin American authors Mario Vargas Llosa Sergio Galindo Augusto Roa Bastos Fernando del Paso Mayra Santos Febres Isabel Allende Carmen Boullosa Antonio Benítez Rojo Marcela Serrano Sara Seifovich Luisa Valenzuela and Ariel Dorfman She elucidates the varieties of social justice operating in the plots of contemporary Latin American novels distributive postmodern feminist postcolonial transitional and historical justices The author further examines how masquerade and disguise aid in articulating the theme of social justice why this is important and how it relates to Latin American history and the historical novel Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Latin American and Caribbean Literature, 1900-2003 Daniel Balderston, Mike Gonzalez, 2004-02-12 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Latin American and Caribbean Literature 1900-2003 draws together entries on all aspects of literature including authors critics major works magazines genres schools and movements in these regions from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day With more than 200 entries written by a team of international contributors this Encyclopedia successfully covers the popular to the esoteric The Encyclopedia is an invaluable reference resource for those studying Latin American and or Caribbean literature as well as being of huge interest to those following Spanish or Portuguese language courses Latin American Fiction and the Narratives of the Perverse P. O'Connor,2004-12-02 Latin American Fiction and the Narratives of the Perverse contains analysis of sexual perversion and narrative creativity in fictions from the Latin American boom and post boom O Connor's main argument is that orthodox criticism of Latin American literature has neglected the eccentric singularities of other fictive trends in the corpus especially in the second half of the twentieth century At the same time by examining these eccentric singularities in their relationship to mainstream trends in the Latin American corpus O Connor forces his readers to view these master narratives and major trends such as modernismo or magical realism from surprisingly new angles Five of the authors discussed Puig Lezama Lima Cortazar and Sarduy have an established place in the Latin American literary canon A fifth one Rosario Ferre may have come close to achieving that status with her earlier fictions Others Felisberto Hernandez Alicia Borinsky Cristina Peri Rossi and Silvia Molloy are less well known but they are certainly highly significant authors for scholars and students of contemporary Latin American fiction

Macho Ethics Jason Cortés, 2014-12-18 Masculinity is not a monolithic phenomenon but a historically discontinuous one a fabrication as it were of given cultural circumstances Because of its opacity and instability masculinity like more recognizable systems of oppression resists discernibility In Macho Ethics Masculinity and Self Representation in Latino Caribbean Narrative Jason Cort s seeks to reveal the inner workings of masculinity in the narrative prose of four major Caribbean authors the Cuban Severo Sarduy the Dominican American Junot Díaz and the Puerto Ricans Luis Rafael Sánchez and Edgardo Rodríguez Juliá By exploring the relationship between ethics and authority the legacies of colonial violence the figure of the dictator the macho and the dandy the logic of the Archive the presence of Oscar Wilde and notions of trauma and mourning Macho Ethics fills a gap surrounding issues of power and masculinity within the Caribbean context and draws attention to what frequently remains invisible and unspoken

Translating the Queer Héctor Domínguez Ruvalcaba, 2016-11-15 What does it mean to queer a concept If queerness is a notion that implies a destabilization of the normativity of the body then all cultural systems contain zones of discomfort relevant to queer studies What then might we make of such zones when the use of the term queer itself has transcended the fields of sex and gender becoming a metaphor for addressing such cultural phenomena as hybridization resignification and subversion Further still what should we make of it when so many people are reluctant to use the term queer because they view it as theoretical colonialism or a concept that loses its specificity when applied to a culture that signifies and uses the body differently Translating the Queer focuses on the dissemination of queer knowledge concepts and representations throughout Latin America a migration that has been accompanied by concomitant processes of translation adaptation and epistemological resistance

Fathers, Fathering, and Fatherhood Adelaida R. Del Castillo, Gibrán Güido, 2021-04-29 Bringing together a unique collection of narrative accounts based on the lived experience of queer Chicano Mexicano sons this book explores fathers fathering and fatherhood In many ways the contributors reveal the significance of fathering and representations of fatherhood in the context of queer male sexuality and identity across generations cultures class and Mexican immigrant and Mexican American families They further reveal how father figures godfathers grandfathers and others may nurture and express love and hope for the queer young men in their extended family Divided into six sections the book addresses the complexity of father queer son relationships family dynamics the impact of neurodiverse mental health issues the erotic unsafe and taboo qualities of desire encounters with absent estranged or emotionally distant fathers and a critical analysis of father and queer son relationships in Chicano Latino literature and film

Coloniality of Diasporas Yolanda Martínez-San Miguel, 2014-07-24 Focusing on piracy in the seventeenth century filibustering in the nineteenth century intracolonial migrations in the 1930s metropolitan racializations in the 1950s and 1960s and feminist redefinitions of creolization and sexile from the 1940s to the 1990s this book redefines the Caribbean beyond the postcolonial debate

"This Shipwreck of Fragments" Li-Chun Hsiao, 2009-10-02 In the light of and in response to the popular perception of the Caribbean as an epitome of cultural hybridity and improvisation this book seeks to further examine Caribbean cultural identities along the lines of race class nationalism and history Drawing on a variety of genres of literature and popular music the present volume includes not only essays that stress the shaping and reshaping of Afro Caribbean cultural identities and the significance of hybridization but also those that think against the grain and pursue questions which have not received enough critical attention This latter task can be seen in the attempt to probe the phenomenon that the Caribbean's image as a tropical getaway in metropolitan popular imaginations tends to eclipse its troubled pasts traumatic memories and current and recurrent problems which elude the rhetoric of cultural hybridity presupposing instead a certain non conflictual diversity or racial equality in the relatively innocuous realm of culture Although nuanced among themselves on certain issues the individual chapters together highlight a body of work which is distinct from the bulk of Anglo American academic productions on the Caribbean as the majority of the textual and cultural materials treated here come from either the Hispanic or Francophone Caribbean

Brown on Brown Frederick Luis Aldama, 2009-07-21 Common conceptions permeating U S ethnic queer theory tend to confuse aesthetics with real world acts and politics Often Chicano a representations of gay and lesbian experiences in literature and film are analyzed simply as propaganda The cognitive emotional and narrational ingredients that is the subject matter and the formal traits of those representations are frequently reduced to a priori agendas that emphasize a politics of difference In this book Frederick Luis Aldama follows an entirely different approach He investigates the ways in which race and gay lesbian sexuality intersect and operate in Chicano a literature and film while taking into full account their imaginative nature and therefore the specific kind of work invested in them Also Aldama frames his analyses within today s larger globalized context of postcolonial literary and filmic canons that seek to normalize heterosexual identity and experience Throughout the book Aldama applies his innovative approach to throw new light on the work of authors Arturo Islas Richard Rodriguez John Rechy Ana Castillo and Sheila Ortiz Taylor as well as that of film director Edward James Olmos In doing so Aldama aims to integrate and deepen Chicano literary and filmic studies within a comparative perspective Aldama s unusual juxtapositions of narrative materials and cultural personae and his premise that literature and film produce fictional examples of a social and historical reality concerned with ethnic and sexual issues largely unresolved make this book relevant to a wide range of readers
