Traveling Heavy A Memoir In Between Journeys:

Traveling Heavy Ruth Behar, 2013-04-24 In Ruth Behar's intimate unconventional memoir poignant memories of growing up as an immigrant child come together with reflections on being a traveling anthropologist who cherishes the kindness of strangers

Traveling Heavy Ruth Behar, 2013-04-24 Traveling Heavy is a deeply moving unconventional memoir by the master storyteller and cultural anthropologist Ruth Behar Through evocative stories she portrays her life as an immigrant child and later as an adult woman who loves to travel but is terrified of boarding a plane With an open heart she writes about her Yiddish Sephardic Cuban American family as well as the strangers who show her kindness as she makes her way through the world Compassionate curious and unafraid to reveal her failings Behar embraces the unexpected insights and adventures of travel whether those be learning that she longed to become a mother after being accused of giving the evil eye to a baby in rural Mexico or going on a zany pilgrimage to the Behar World Summit in the Spanish town of Bjar Behar calls herself an anthropologist who specializes in homesickness Repeatedly returning to her homeland of Cuba unwilling to utter her last goodbye she is obsessed by the question of why we leave home to find home For those of us who travel heavy with our own baggage Behar is an indispensable guide full of grace and hope in the perpetual search for connection that defines our humanity

Women Writing Resistance Jennifer Browdy, 2017-10-10 Essays on Latinx and Caribbean identity and on globalization by renowned women writers including Julia Alvarez Edwidge Danticat and Jamaica Kincaid Women Writing Resistance Essays on Latin America and the Caribbean gathers the voices of sixteen acclaimed writer activists for a one of a kind collection Through poetry and essays writers from the Anglophone Hispanic and Francophone Caribbean including Puertorrique as and Cubanas grapple with their hybrid American political identities Gloria Anzald a the founder of Chicana queer theory Rigoberta Mench the first Indigenous person to win a Nobel Peace Prize and Michelle Cliff a searing and poignant chronicler of colonialism and racism among many others highlight how women can collaborate across class race and nationality to lead a new wave of resistance against neoliberalism patriarchy state terrorism and white supremacy

Lucky Broken Girl Ruth Behar, 2017-04-11 An unforgettable coming of age novel following a young Cuban Jewish immigrant girl in 1960s New York City who must overcome the sudden derailment of her American Dream WINNER OF THE PURA BELPRE AWARD A KIRKUS REVIEWS BEST MIDDLE GRADE BOOK OF THE CENTURY A book for anyone mending from childhood wounds Sandra Cisneros author of The House on Mango Street Based on acclaimed author Ruth Behar's childhood Lucky Broken Girl follows Ruthie Mizrahi a young Cuban Jewish immigrant who recently emigrated from Castro's Cuba to New York City with her family Just when she's finally beginning to gain confidence in her mastery of English and enjoying her reign as her neighborhood's hopscotch queen a horrific car accident leaves her in a body cast and confined to her bed for a long recovery As Ruthie's world shrinks her powers of observation and her heart grow larger as she comes to understand how fragile life is how vulnerable we all are as human beings and how friends neighbors and the power of the arts can sweeten even the worst of times A remarkable story of resilience poignancy and hope for a better life Ruthie's plight will intrigue readers and her strength will stay with them for years to come Detours M. Bianet Castellanos, 2019-11-05

Touring Seeing Knowing Travel often evokes strong reactions and engagements But what of the ethics and politics of this experience Through critical personal reflections the essays in Detours grapple with the legacies of cultural imperialism that shape travel research and writing Influenced by the works of anthropologists Ruth Behar and Renato Rosaldo the scholars and journalists in this volume consider how first encounters those initial awkward attempts to learn about a culture and a people evolved into enduring and critical engagements Contemplating the ethics and racial politics of traveling and doing research abroad they call attention to the power and privilege that permit researchers to enter people's lives ask intimate questions and publish those disclosures Focusing on Latin America and the Caribbean they ask Why this place What keeps us coming back And what role do we play in producing narratives of inequality uneven development and global spectacle The book examines the politics of return the experiences made possible by revisiting a field site over extended periods of time of scholars and journalists who have spent decades working in and writing about Latin America and the Caribbean Contributors aren't telling a story of enlightenment and goodwill they focus instead on the slippages and conundrums that marked them and raised questions of their own intentions and intellectual commitments Speaking from the intersection of race class and gender the contributors explore the hubris and nostalgia that motivate returning again and again to a particular place Through personal stories they examine their changing ideas of Latin America and the Caribbean and how those places have shaped the people they've become as writers as teachers and as activists Democracy and Time in Cuban Thought María de los Ángeles Torres, 2024-01-30 In this analysis of political discourse in Cuban culture María de los Angeles Torres focuses on how the concept of time has been employed by different political projects arguing that an emphasis on human actions in the present is important for a democratic political culture Dreams of Archives Unfolded Jocelyn Fenton Stitt, 2021-06-18 Introduction Archival dreams and Caribbean life writing Autobiography in a graveyard doors of no return and revolutionary failures Speculative autobiography ghosts and feminist fugitivity Repicturing the picturesque genealogical desire archives and descendant community autobiography Ashes to ashes dust to dust Indo Caribbean archival impossibility Put my mom in there Memorialization as Caribbean counter archive Coda Untelling history Four Books, One Latino Life Ignacio F. Rodeño Iturriaga, 2021-02-19 Acclaimed by many as one of the most gifted essayists and stylists in American letters these last few decades Richard Rodriguez has left an indelible imprint on the tradition of autobiographical writing of the nation Rodeo's study of the four installments of Rodriguez's self-writing offers an insightful and perspicacious analysis of the evolution and the most controversial elements in this Chicano writer's production so far Delving deeply into issues of racial and ethnic identity sexual orientation religious background various types of hybridity and different forms of socio-cultural adaptation this book presents all kinds of incisive observations about the contested spaces that minority self-writers are often pushed to occupy in the American tradition of the genre The Seventh Heaven Ilan Stavans, 2019-10-01

Internationally renowned essayist and cultural commentator Ilan Stavans spent five years traveling from across a dozen countries in Latin America in search of what defines the Jewish communities in the region whose roots date back to Christopher Columbus's arrival. In the tradition of V. S. Naipaul's explorations of India, the Caribbean, and the Arab World, he came back with an extraordinarily vivid travelogue. Stavans talks to families of the desaparecidos in Buenos Aires, to Indian Jews, and to people affiliated with neo-Nazi groups in Patagonia. He also visits Spain to understand the long-term effects of the Inquisition, the American Southwest habitat of secret Jews, and Israel, where immigrants from Latin America have reshaped the Jewish state. Along the way, he looks for the proverbial seventh heaven, which, according to the Talmud, is out of proximity with the divine. The meaning of life in general and Jewish life in particular becomes clearer. The Seventh Heaven is a masterful work in Stavans's ongoing quest to find a convergence between the personal and the historical. Ethnographies in Pan Pacific Research

Robert E. Rinehart, Elke Emerald, Rangi Matamua, 2015-06-26

The book is about exciting ethnographic happenings in the vibrant and growing global interface, which includes Australia, New Zealand, and some of the Asian geographical regions, as well as more broadly the global South. It explores ethnographic writing as culture's re-produced positionalities of authors, tensions between authors and others, multi-faceted groups, and as co-productions of these works. The contributors describe and discuss a variety of topical areas of interest, from Facebook to memory work, from children's sexuality to urban racism, from meanings of Indigenous knowledge to how communities can come together to retain what is valuable to themselves. The authors also manage to locate themselves and others' positionings in the research hierarchies and tensions. This is a valuable guide to the effects of 21st-century ethnography on the qualitative research project. Stavans Unbound

Bridget Kevane, 2019-08-27

Twenty-five years ago, Ilan Stavans published his first book, Imagining Columbus: The Literary Voyage (1993). Since then, Stavans has become a polarizing figure, dismissed and praised in equal measure, a commanding yet contested intellectual whose work as a cultural critic has been influential in the fields of Latino and Jewish studies, politics, immigration, religion, language, and identity. He can be credited for bringing attention to Jewish Latin America and issues like Spanglish; he has been instrumental in shaping a certain view of Latino Studies in universities across the United States, as well as abroad. He has anthologized much of Latino and Latin American Jewish literature, and he has engaged in contemporary pop culture via the graphic novel. He was the host of a PBS show called Conversations with Ilan Stavans and has had his fiction adapted into the stage and the big screen. The man, as one critic stated, clearly has energy to burn, and it does not appear to be abating. This collection celebrates twenty-five years of Stavans's work with essays that describe the good and the bad, the inspired and the pedestrian, the worthwhile and the questionable. Handmade in Cuba is an in-depth examination of Ediciones Vig, an artisanal press that published exquisite books crafted from simple supplies during some of Cuba's most dire economic periods Vividly illustrated this volume shows how the publishing collective responded to the nation's changing historical and political situation from the margins of society representing Cuban culture across the boundaries of race age gender and genre In this volume poets and scholars reflect on the unique artistic direction of Rolando Est vez who oversaw the creation of over 500 handmade books and magazines between 1985 and 2014 They highlight the beautiful designs and unusual materials selected including fabric metals wood feathers and discarded items Through diverse perspectives including an interview with Est vez himself the essays showcase the unlimited inventive possibilities of books as objects as sculptural pieces and as installations Even in the age of technology Est vez generated enormous excitement and admiration for these hand crafted books and this volume offers the first inside view of this important alternative publishing space Contributors Ruth Behar Juanamar a Cordones Cook Gwendolyn D az Erin Finzer William Luis Nancy Morej n Kim Nochi Carina Pino Santos Kristin Schwain Elzbieta Sklodowska Thank You for Dying for Our Country Chaim Noy,2015-06-01 The book examines a visitor book located in a national commemoration and heritage site in Jerusalem It brings together communicative discursive and performative approaches to understand how visitors co construct national identity through their public inscriptions on the surfaces the visitor book offers Reimagining the Academy Alison L Black,Rachael Dwyer,2021-11-19 This book explores the capacities and desires of academic women to reimagine and transform academic cultures Embracing and championing feminist scholarship the research presented by the authors in this collection holds space for a different way of being in academia and shifts the conversation toward a future that is hopeful kind and inclusive Through exploring lived experiences building caring communities and enacting an ethics of care the authors are reimagining the academy's focus and purpose The autoethnographic and arts based research approaches employed throughout the book provide evocative conceptual content which responds to the symbolic nature of transformation in the academy This innovative volume will be of interest and value to feminist scholars as well as those interested in disrupting and rejecting patriarchal academic structures

Matters of the Sea / Cosas del mar Richard Blanco,2015-09-03 Matters of the Sea Cosas del mar is a commemorative bilingual chapbook that beautifully reproduces Richard Blanco's stirring poem presented during the historic reopening ceremony of the United States Embassy in Havana Cuba on August 14 2015 Giving Voice to Exile in Literature Asher Z. Milbauer,James M. Sutton,2025-10-14 Giving Voice to Exile in Literature The Burdens and Privileges of Inheritance aims to provide undergraduate graduate and professional readers with a nuanced understanding of how the unique status of exile issues of displacement complexities of cultural identity formation the state of in betweenness liminality and alienation shape fundamental human experiences Its contributors prominent artists literary critics social scientists medical professionals students of exile and an acclaimed bookseller explore the origins and causes of uprootedness and examine its historical social cultural psychological intercultural political and linguistic consequences Their essays are informed by a constructive awareness of the tensions between a purist approach to exile as forceful violent banishment from one's native land as a result of intolerance and that of exile as a metaphor for all kinds of alienation societal estrangements and psychic dislocations Most of the essays in this volume bear the imprint of an experiential scholarly lyrical mode of composition and are further informed by the contributors acute awareness of the imbricated nature of their parents exilic experiences and their own creative and scholarly endeavors By acknowledging the burdensome traumatic travails of their ancestors the contributors find pleasure and privilege in their filial and professional responsibility to bear witness to the resiliency of the human spirit transcending exile which Joseph Conrad called an unnatural state of existence In so doing they testify to their efforts to metamorphose their inherited sense of exile into acts of commemoration education and creativity
