A More Charitable Atheism James A. Metzger, 2019-10-04 This anthology consists of fourteen topically arranged essays that explore a form of humanism characterized by epistemic humility a progressive ethical orientation as well as a respect for the positive features of religion According to recent polls more Americans find themselves uncomfortable maintaining traditional religious beliefs and moral commitments a trend driven in large part by the Millennials and one likely to continue with subsequent generations As a professor who has regular interactions with students of this generation the author has discovered that those who neither wish to affiliate with one particular religious tradition or community as perhaps their parents and grandparents did nor drop religion altogether fear that there are few if any truly attractive alternatives alternatives that would help them find meaning offer sound moral guidance and navigate life's most challenging times This book in part aims to show that both meaning and resources for crafting a philosophically sound moral compass can be found outside the sacred canopy These essays however are also the outcome of the author's own journey from mainline Protestant Christianity to secular humanism The primary catalyst for this transition was the onset of a serious autoimmune illness which forced him to confront various issues in philosophy of religion particularly the problem of suffering and evil This autobiographical component is woven into several chapters with the intention of showing that in a postmodern milieu we can no longer attribute major worldview shifts to solitary dispassionate rational inquiry Although essays have been composed in such a way that each may stand alone a feature of the book that allows readers to approach chapters in any order they choose they nevertheless have been arranged into four sections that reflect the author's personal journey Major topics include 1 Chronic Illness and the Death of God 2 Epistemic Limitations and Respect for Persons 3 A Humanist Approach to Reading the Bible and 4 Advantages of Ethical Reasoning without God

The Kpm of Feminism Uzoma Ukagba George

Uzoma Ukagba, George Uzoma Ukagba, 2010-02 The idea behind The Kpim of Feminism was rooted in the mind of Fada Iroegbu in 2004 following a friendly but heated argument he had with Mrs Wioletta Ukagba the wife of one of the current co editors of this book who challenged Fada Iroegbu to direct his sharp brain and pen to the defence of women especially the Nigeria women who were and still are passing through various kinds of trans valuation of values economic exploitation cultural and scientific manipulations political marginalization and irredentism and various shades of sexualisation harassment exploitation and commercialization Fada Iroegbu took up this challenge to kpimize womanhood but unfortunately was unable to completely realise his dream before death struck As it is with many great and indefatigable minds or thinkers who left behind unfinished works we his friends family interlocutors well wishers men and women of good will have come together to actualize one of his felt knowledge dreams The fight for equality between women and men can sometimes not only be exaggerated but also plunged in controversy we cannot fathom The search for the truth about the relationship that ought to exist between male and female should constitute The Kpim of Feminism Dr George Uzoma Ukagba Editor University of Benin In light of the word feminism conjuring up different images to different people The Kpim of Feminism reflects the sensitivity and objectivity to the concept of feminism by scholars drawing from their fields and life experiences The book insists that women and men be encouraged to emancipate and empower one another together Dr Obioma Des Obi Editor Imo State University The Kpim of Feminism a rare harvest of academic erudition from across the globe showcases the different modalities from which issues theories and debates on feminism and other gender related polemics past present and future could be considered Dr Iks J Nwankwor Editor University of Uyo Without mincing words this book is a welcome intellectual assembly and has come out at the right time with deep critical insights and values for students researchers and public and policy issues in both local and global prospects Patrick Iroegbu Ph D The Kpim Book Project Series Coordinator Father Pantaleon Iroegbu Foundation Grant MacEwan University Culture, Power And History Stephen J. Pfohl, 2006 This volume brings together theoretical meditations and empirical studies of the intersection of culture power and history in social life Contributors bring a diversity of critical sociological perspectives and subject matters to this important edited book My Search for Meaning Laurence C Jeffrey, 2024-11-04 The text My search for meaning was inspired by the author s early curiosity about life s meaning and his reflection on several worldly experiences traversing the continents of North and South America Europe Asia and Africa His interest in and studies of western academic philosophy provides the schema that brings to light the crux of his discovery and the text is intended to share with the reader the author s understanding of life The author hopes that by reading this text it would inspire others to explore philosophical ideas in a broader context Real Indians Eva Garrouette, 2003-07-31 At the dawn of the twenty first century America finds itself on the brink of a new racial consciousness The old unquestioned confidence with which individuals can be classified as embodied for instance in previous U S census categories has been eroded In its place are shifting paradigms and new norms for racial identity Eva Marie Garrouette examines the changing processes of racial identification and their implications by looking specifically at the case of American Indians Mediating the Message in the 21st Century Pamela J. Shoemaker, Stephen D. Reese, 2013-10-30 Hailed as one of the most significant books of the twentieth century by Journalism and Mass Communication Quarterly Mediating the Message has long been an essential text for media effects scholars and students of media sociology This new edition of the classic media sociology textbook now offers students a comprehensive theoretical approach to media content in the twenty first century with an added focus on entertainment media and the Internet Science and Narratives of Nature Jobin M. Kanjirakkat, Gordon McOuat, Sundar Sarukkai, 2017-07-05 The discourse and practice of science are deeply connected to explicit and implicit narratives of nature However nature has been understood in diverse ways by cultures across the world Could these different views of nature generate the possibility of alternate views on science Part of the innovative series Science and Technology Studies this volume looks at different conceptualizations of nature and the manner in which they structure the practice of the sciences The essays draw upon philosophy history sociology religion feminism mathematics and cultural studies and establish a dialogue between cultures through a multi disciplinary exploration of science With contributions from major scholars in the field this volume will deeply interest scholars and students of science and technology studies sociology history and philosophy of science as also environmental studies Proceedings and Addresses of the American Philosophical Association American Philosophical Association, 1999 List of members in v 1 Encyclopedia of Philosophy Donald M. Borchert, 2006 This volume covering entries from Masaryk Tomas Garrigue to Nussbaum Martha presents articles on Eastern and Western philosophies medical and scientific ethics the Holocaust terrorism censorship biographical entries and much more The Internet University Daniel Quinn Mills, 1998 Welcome to college via the Internet Because of the tremendous growth of education on the Internet students can now experience the college dream through cyberspace and put together all or part of their college education in many fields with few or even no visits to any campus The academic resources of the world are delivered to their front door through modem or network The Cumulative Book Index , 1998 A world list of books in the English language Directory of American Scholars: Philosophy, religion and law , 1999 American Book Publishing Record , 2002 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2004 Book Review Index , 2003 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Transforming the Theological Turn Martin Koci, Jason Alvis, 2020-10-14 Continental philosophers of religion have been engaging with theological issues concepts and questions for several decades blurring the borders between the domains of philosophy and theology Yet when Emmanuel Falque proclaims that both theologians and philosophers need not be afraid of crossing the Rubicon the point of no return between these often artificially separated disciplines he scandalised both camps Despite the scholarly reservations the theological turn in French phenomenology has decisively happened The challenge is now to interpret what this given fact of creative encounters between philosophy and theology means for these disciplines In this collection written by both theologians and philosophers the question Must we cross the Rubicon is central However rather than simply opposing or subscribing to Falque s position the individual chapters of this book interrogate and critically reflect on the relationship between theology and philosophy offering novel perspectives and redrawing the outlines of their borderlands Bulletin of the Philosophical Society of Washington Philosophical Society of Washington (Washington, D.C.),1892 Vols 1 14 16 include the society s Proceedings 1871 1905 1961
