Transcending Racial Barriers Toward A Mutual Obligations Approach:

Transcending Racial Barriers Michael O. Emerson, George Yancey, 2010-12-21 Despite recent progress against racial inequalities American society continues to produce attitudes and outcomes that reinforce the racial divide In Transcending Racial Barriers Michael Emerson and George Yancey offer a fresh perspective on how to combat racial division They document the historical move from white supremacy to institutional racism then look at modern efforts to overcome the racialized nature of our society The authors argue that both conservative and progressive approaches have failed as they continually fall victim to forces of ethnocentrism and group interest They then explore group interest and possible ways to account for the perspectives of both majority and minority group members They look to multiracial congregations multiracial families the military and sports teams all situations in which group interests have been overcome before In each context they find the development of a core set of values that binds together different racial groups along with the flexibility to express racially based cultural uniqueness that does not conflict with this critical core Transcending Racial Barriers offers what is at once a balanced approach towards dealing with racial alienation and a bold step forward in the debate about the steps necessary to overcome present day racism

Transcending Racial Barriers Michael O. Emerson, 2011 This work offers a balanced approach towards dealing with racial alienation The book is a bold step forward in the debate about what sort of public policies can overcome the ethnocentrism inherent in so much of the racism we suffer from

Beyond Racial Division George A. Yancey, 2022-03-15 We have struggled to effectively address racial tension in the United States While colorblindness ignores our history of injustice antiracism efforts have often alienated people who need to be involved In his model of collaborative conversation and mutual accountability sociologist George Yancey offers an alternative to racial alienation where all seek the common good for all to thrive

Contested Issues in Student Affairs Peter M. Magolda, Marcia B. Baxter Magolda, 2023-07-03 What is your level of understanding of the many moral ideological and political issues that student affairs educators regularly encounter What is your personal responsibility to addressing these issues What are the rationales behind your decisions What are the theoretical perspectives you might choose and why How do your responses compare with those of colleagues Contested Issues in Student Affairs augments traditional introductory handbooks that focus on functional areas e g residence life career services and organizational issues It fills a void by addressing the social educational and moral concepts and concerns of student affairs work that transcend content areas and administrative units such as the tensions between theory and practice academic affairs and student affairs risk taking and failure and such as issues of race ethnicity sexual orientation and spirituality It places learning and social justice at the epicenter of student affairs practice The book addresses these issues by asking 24 critical and contentious questions that go to the heart of contemporary educational practice Intended equally for future student affairs educators in graduate preparation programs and as reading for professional development workshops it is designed to stimulate reflection and prompt readers to clarify their own thinking and practice as they confront the complexities of higher education Student affairs faculty administrators and graduate students here situate these 24 questions historically in the professional literature present background information and context define key terms summarize the diverse ideological and theoretical responses to the questions make explicit their own perspectives and responses discuss their political implications and set them in the context of the changing nature of student affairs work Each chapter is followed by a response that offers additional perspectives and complications reminding readers of the ambiguity and complexity of many situations Each chapter concludes with a brief annotated bibliography of seminal works that offer additional information on the topic as well as with a URL to a moderated blog site that encourages further conversation on each topic and allows readers to teach and learn from each other and interact with colleagues beyond their immediate campus The website invites readers to post blogs respond to each other and upload relevant resources The book aims to serve as a conversation starter to engage professionals in on going dialogue about these complex and enduring challenges

Short ContentsThe 24 questions are organized into four units

I The Philosophical Foundations of Student Affairs in Higher Education explores the implications and complications of student affair educators placing learning at the epicenter of their professional work

II The Challenges of Promoting Learning and Development explores the challenges associated with learning centered practice

III Achieving Inclusive and Equitable Learning Environments addresses crafting learning environments that include students whose needs are often labeled special or students and or student subcultures that are often marginalized and encouraged to adapt to normalizing expectations

IV Organizing Student Affairs Practice for Learning and Social Justice addresses the organizational and professional implications of placing learning and social justice at the epicenter of student affairs practice

Confronting Racial Injustice Gerald Hiestand, Joel Lawrence, 2022-11-30 One of the greatest crises facing the church is the crisis of racial injustice that has so long marred the body of Christ in America Evangelicals have traditionally had a set of biblical theological and cultural tools we have used for dealing with questions about race the necessity of personal responsibility the possibility of heart renewal through faith in Jesus the transformative impact of interpersonal relationships and the bedrock conviction that every human being is made in the image of God and is thus of equal worth and dignity But in the world after 2020 the evangelical church must now recognize that our theological playbook has been ineffective in rooting out racism from the church and in confronting our own complicity in racial injustice We must now ask What other theological convictions are required of us as we consider the image bearing humanity of George Floyd Breonna Taylor Ahmaud Arbery and many others

Confronting Racial Injustice explores theological vistas to aid the church in our pursuit of racial justice

Faith, Hope, Love, and Justice Anselm K. Min, 2018-03-28 Faith hope and love traditionally called theological virtues are central to Christianity This book renews faith hope and love in the context of the many contemporary challenges in many unique ways It is an ecumenical collection of papers equally divided between Catholic and Protestant positions that seek to radically renew the classical doctrine of faith hope and love and argues for their essential connection to the praxis of justice It contains eight different approaches each represented by a distinguished theologian and addressing different aspects of the issues and followed by insightful and critical responses It does not merely seek to renew the theological virtues but to also reconstruct them in the demanding context of justice and the contemporary world nor is it simply a treatise on justice but a theoretical and practical reflection on justice as vital expressions of faith in God hope in God and love of God A non dogmatic and non ideological approach it accommodates both conservative and liberal positions and avoids the separation of the theological virtues from the demands of the contemporary world as well as the separation of justice talk from the theological context of faith hope and love It seeks above all to renew not merely repeat the classical doctrine of faith hope and love in the contemporary context of the urgency of justice and to do so ecumenically comprehensively and from a variety of perspectives and aspects

A Shared Future Richard L. Wood, Brad R. Fulton, 2015-12 At a time when participation in democratic governance exhibits a decrease among the less well off and an increase of power among the elite one big question concerns how to reverse this trend Wood and Fulton have devoted this book to finding ways to build democratic participation by low income and working families and to create cross racial alliances Here s where faith based organizations enter the picture These organizations have been significant players in shaping health care reform financial reform and immigration reform at higher levels of government aimed at benefitting working families It is a movement which directly addresses economic inequality policy paralysis and racial injustice in the United States Faith based organizing the authors show offers important lessons for an American public struggling to combine universalist democratic ideals with an increasingly multicultural reality in what will soon be a thoroughly multicultural society as new immigrant arrivals and demographic diffusion spread diversity into settings that were once bastions of white subculture Models for community organizing have been supplied over time by Saul Alinsky Cesar Chavez and Martin Luther King Jr A Shared Future has a distinctly empirical focus on one of the most important sponsoring networks for faith based organizations PICO Pacific Institute for Community Organizations which shifted neighborhood based organizations to congregation based organizations They achieved a high profile during the formation of health care policy that found its way into Obamacare legislation and have also been an important agent for addressing racial equity Wood and Fulton here address a new generation of faith based community organizers seeking to ground the movement in what they call ethical democracy and fleshing out an approach to addressing economic inequality and political paralysis

Us Versus Them Jan Doering, 2020 Crime and gentrification are hot button issues that easily polarize racially diverse neighborhoods How do residents activists and politicians navigate the thorny politics of race as they fight crime or resist gentrification And do conflicts over competing visions of neighborhood change necessarily divide activists into racially homogeneous camps or can they produce more complex alliances and divisions In Us versus Them Jan Doering answers these questions through an in depth study of two Chicago neighborhoods Drawing on three and a half years of ethnographic fieldwork Doering examines how activists and community leaders clashed and collaborated as they launched new initiatives built coalitions appeased critics and discredited opponents At the heart of these political maneuvers he uncovers a ceaseless battle over racial meanings that unfolded as residents strove to make local initiatives and urban change appear racially benign or malignant A thoughtful and clear eyed contribution to the field Us versus Them reveals the deep impact that competing racial meanings have on the fabric of community and the direction of neighborhood change

Fundamental Theories of Ethnic Conflict Kyendo, Muli wa, 2019-03-28 This book develops and expands on theories that aim at explaining the root causes of ethnic and racial conflicts. The aim is to shift focus from research policies and strategies based on tackling the effects of ethnic and racial conflicts which have so far been ineffective as evidenced by the increase in ethnic conflicts to more fundamental ideas, models and strategies. Contents extend across many disciplines including evolution, biology, religion, communication, mythology and even introspective perspectives. Drawn from around the world, contributors to the book are respected and experienced award-winning authors, scholars and thinkers with deep understanding of their special fields of contribution. The book was inspired by the conditions in Kenya where ethnic violence flared up with terrifying consequences following a disputed election in 2008. Although the conflict was resolved by the intervention of the international community, Kenyans like many other Africans continue to live in fear of ethnic conflicts breaking out with more disastrous consequences. The book will be useful to policy makers, NGOs and others involved in promoting peace. It will also be useful in guiding research and as a text book in universities and colleges. Selfless Revolutionaries Allan Boesak, 2022-01-28 At this historic moment of global revolutions for social justice inspired by the Black Lives Matter movement, the philosophy of Black Consciousness has reemerged and gripped the imagination of a new generation and of the merciless exposure by COVID 19 of the devastating long-existent fault lines in our societies. Frantz Fanon, James Baldwin and Steve Biko have been rediscovered and reclaimed. In this powerful book, Black liberation theologian and activist Allan Boesak explores the deep connections between Black Consciousness, Black theology and the struggles against racism, domination and imperial brutality across the world today. In a careful, meticulous and sometimes surprising rereading of Steve Biko's classic I Write What I Like, Boesak reflects on the astounding relevance of Black Consciousness for the current academic debates on decolonization and coloniality, Africanity and imperialism as well as for the struggles for freedom, justice and human dignity in the streets. With passion, forthrightness and inspiring eloquence, Boesak brings his considerable political experience and deep theological insight to bear in his argument for a global ethic of solidarity and resistance in the ongoing struggles against empire. Beginning with Biko's Where do we go from here, progressing to Baldwin's The Fire Next Time and ending with Martin Luther King Jr's I Have a Dream, there is no stopping short of victory. This is a sobering, hopeful and inspiring book.

Introduction to Social Work Lisa E. Cox, Carolyn J. Tice, Dennis D. Long, 2021-09-03 The award-winning Introduction to Social Work: An Advocacy-Based Profession takes students on an exploration of what social work is, what it was historically and how to be an effective advocate as a social worker moving forward. Built on a unique advocacy practice and policy model comprised of four components: economic and social justice, a supportive environment, human needs and rights, and political access, the book provides a crucial lens for viewing today's social issues. Best-selling authors Lisa E. Cox, Carolyn J. Tice and Dennis D. Long emphasize advocacy throughout all sectors of social work with a focus on environmental international and military social work The Third Edition closely aligns with the latest Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards EPAS from the Council on Social Work Education CSWE references the 2018 Code of Ethics from the National Association of Social Workers NASW and includes profound discussions of societal impacts on areas of public health policy juvenile justice race inequality social movements and self care This title is accompanied by a complete teaching and learning package

Churches, Blackness, and Contested Multiculturalism R. Smith, W. Ackah, A. Reddie, 2014-06-18 This volume assesses contemporary church responses to multicultural diversity and resisted categories of social difference with a central focus on whether or how racial ethnic religious sexual and gender differences are validated by churches and especially black churches torn between competing inclusive and exclusive tendencies

Contesting Post-Racialism R. Drew Smith, William Ackah, Anthony G. Reddie, Rothney S. Tshaka, 2015-03-24 Contributions by William Ackah Allan Boesak Ebony Joy Fitchue Leah Gaskin Fitchue Walter Earl Fluker Forrest E Harris Sr Nico Koopman AnneMarie Mingo Reggie Nel Chabo Freddy Pilusa Anthony G Reddie Boitumelo Senokoane Rothney S Tshaka Luci Vaden Vuyani Vellem and Cobus van Wyngaard After the 2008 election and 2012 reelection of Barack Obama as US president and the 1994 election of Nelson Mandela as the first of several blacks to serve as South Africa's president many within the two countries have declared race to be irrelevant For contributors to this volume the presumed demise of race may be premature Given continued racial disparities in income education and employment as well as in perceptions of problems and promise within the two countries much healing remains unfinished Nevertheless despite persistently pronounced disparities between black and white realities it has become more difficult to articulate racial issues Some deem race an increasingly unnecessary identity in these more self consciously post racial times The volume engages post racial ideas in both their limitations and promise Contributors look specifically at the extent to which a church's contemporary response to race consciousness and post racial consciousness enables it to give an accurate public account of race

Hostile Environment George Yancey, 2015-04-29 Sociologist George Yancey unpacks the underlying perspectives and root causes of Christianophobia or intense anti Christian hostility He considers to what extent Christians have themselves contributed to this animosity and explores how we can respond more constructively defusing tensions and working toward the common good

Global Identities in Transit Bouchra Benlemlih, Lahoussine

Hamdoune,2022-03-28 Global Identities in Transit The Ethics and Politics of Representation in World Literatures and Cultures explores the myriad aspects of identity formation and identity representation in an increasingly globalized world. Covering a variety of cultural and historical experiences in addition to several texts of world literatures the contributors discuss the configurations of transnationality and transculturality in our postcolonial and globalized world. Acknowledging that nationality ethnicity gender and class are continually shaped by historical processes the contributors hone in on the ways that the increase in mobility via migration diaspora and exile render identities always in transit. In the face of structural inequalities and social injustices predominant in this context the chapters reflect on the moral obligations of representation. This collection will be of interest to scholars of cultural studies postcolonial studies and world literature. Mixed Marriage

Margaret Haerens,2014-03-20 This essential volume examines the institution of mixed marriages in different global locations cultures and social climates. Readers will explore the trends of mixed marriage the factors that influence the prevalence of mixed marriage barriers to mixed marriage and some consequences of mixed marriage. Essays cycle through several world locations exposing readers to culturally based issues or stories of mixed marriage. England Canada Malaysia Japan Ireland India Bosnia Serbia Russia and United Arab Emirates are just a few of the locations that essays explore. Theological Perspectives for Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness

A. Isasi-Diaz,M. Fulkerson,R. Carbine,2013-11-07 Rather than wield religion as a weapon or a ruse in irrational appeals the book attempts to reimagine a shared American mythos and ethos by reminding us of our shared stake in creating an America committed to the life of all peoples and species and to the full developments of our capabilities as an exercise of liberty.
