Transformation Of The God Image An Elucidation Of Jungs Answer To Job:

Transformation of the God-image Edward F. The Snake and the Rope: A Jungian View of Hinduism George R. Elder, 2025-02-15 It is obvious that our culture is undergoing a major transition as are our religions that traditionally carry a culture's values even its vitality Thus it is essential that we understand how religion functions when it is alive and well Studying it elsewhere in another time and place helps us to be objective about the religious life And this survey of Hinduism serves that purpose Since our own religious traditions assume a pre modern world view it is important that we try to interpret them in a modern way Otherwise we lose their wisdom C G Jung's psychology of religion is the most creative interpretation of religion that we have today I show to what extent Jung wrote about Hinduism understood it and how we can apply his insights to our own psycho religious circumstances The Snake and the Rope A Jungian View of Hinduism is a companion to my book The Self and the Lotus A Jungian View of Indian Buddhism 2 vols that is also published by BookLocker

Consciousness in Jung and Patañjali Leanne Whitney, 2017-08-03 The East West dialogue increasingly seeks to compare and clarify contrasting views on the nature of consciousness For the Eastern liberatory models where a nondual view of consciousness is primary the challenge lies in articulating how consciousness and the manifold contents of consciousness are singular Western empirical science on the other hand must provide a convincing account of how consciousness arises from matter By placing the theories of Jung and Pata jali in dialogue with one another Consciousness in Jung and Pata jali illuminates significant differences between dual and nondual psychological theory and teases apart the essential discernments that theoreticians must make between epistemic states and ontic beliefs Pata jali s Classical Yoga one of the six orthodox Hindu philosophies is a classic of Eastern and world thought Pata jali teaches that notions of a separate egoic I are little more than forms of mistaken identity that we experience in our attempts to take ownership of consciousness Carl Jung s depth psychology which remains deeply influential to psychologists religious scholars and artists alike argues that ego consciousness developed out of the unconscious over the course of evolution By exploring the work of key theoreticians from both schools of thought particularly those whose ideas are derived from an integration of theory and practice Whitney explores the extent to which the seemingly irremediable split between Jung and Pata jali s ontological beliefs can in fact be reconciled This thorough and insightful work will be essential reading for academics theoreticians and postgraduate students in the fields of psychology philosophy of science and consciousness studies It will also appeal to those interested in the East West psychological and philosophical dialogue contemporary questions such as the Bible in sociological theological historical archaeological literary and linguistic perspectives and the influence of concerns about gender race visual culture and psychology A particular recent interest is represented by a chapter on the reception history of the Hebrew Bible in the visual arts music and literature including drama and film The concern throughout is to encapsulate contemporary currents in interpretation rather than to put forward the contributors personal views but also to suggest how biblical study may or should develop next in these areas As with previous volumes what is provided is a view of global scholarship as seen from these islands that will be useful to serious students of the Hebrew Bible throughout the world As well as describing their field the contributors also provide substantial

Jung's Red Book for Our Time: Searching for Soul In the 21st Century Murray Stein, 2022-12-10 Do we like Jung need to leave the spirit of the time and follow the spirit of the depths to call out my soul where are you through the windows of our now post modern homes We live in a digital world of incredible virtual interconnectedness but at the same time fragmented and divided on many levels including the psychological The pace of life is rapid and ever accelerating The spirit of the time is flux It twitters There is no sense of coherence in the whole The guidance of a transcendent North Star is invisible to the naked eye of consciousness Our existential crisis is not about the individual alone It infects the entire human world like the Covid 19 pandemic Wars between cultural brothers and sisters increasingly dire effects of climate change economic disruptions hunger migration these conditions affect everyone on the planet Is there a spirit of the depths that can take us through this Inferno perhaps toward the emergence of a meaningful narrative that can stabilize the global community and provide a collective sense of supreme meaning This is the search for soul in the 21st Century
