Transforming Power Biblical Strategies For Making A Difference In Your Community:

Transforming Power Robert Linthicum, 2003-09-09 Based on a thorough exploration of Scripture and decades of real world experience Robert Linthicum's model of relational power provides sound practical strategies for changing individuals communities structures and systems

Making Housing Happen, 2nd Edition Jill Suzanne Shook, 2012-09-19 The growing housing crisis cries out for solutions that work As many as 3.5 million Americans experience homelessness each year half of them women and children One in four renters spends more than half of their income on rent and utilities more than 30 percent is considered unaffordable With record foreclosures and 28 percent of homes underwater middle and low income homeowners are suffering Many congregations want to address this daunting problem yet feel powerless and uncertain about what to do The good news is that churches are effectively addressing the housing crisis from Washington State to New York City where an alliance of sixty churches has built five thousand homes for low income homeowners with virtually no government funding or foreclosures This book not only presents solid theological thinking about housing but also offers workable solutions to the current crisis true stories by those who have made housing happen Each story features a different Christian denomination geographic area and model adaptive reuse cohousing cooperative housing mixed income mixed use inclusionary zoning second units community land trusts sweat equity and more Making Housing Happen is about vision and faith relationships and persistence Its remarkable stories will inspire and challenge you to action This new edition includes significant new material especially in light of the ongoing mortgage crisis

Street Signs David P. Leong, 2012-07-01 This research explores the cultural and theological complexities within the urban context as some of the most prominent societal realities shaping our cities today Cities represent the convergence of identities industries and ideologies in a dynamic urban ecosystem of pluralism and globalization Far more than just the incidental built environment that houses such phenomena the city is a living breathing organism with vital systems and infrastructure that function as a means of sustenance for its inhabitants Ultimately cities are a cultural reflection of our common humanity in all of its beauty and depravity More specifically this work critically examines the cultural and theological significance of the urban context as an exercise in missiological contextualization Through a dialectical exploration of the locality of Seattle's Rainier Valley and the universality of the street corner three different lenses are used to examine the intersection of faith and culture in the city First through developing a missional theology of cultural engagement the themes of incarnation confrontation and imagination inform a theological posture that is conversant with urbanism Second an interdisciplinary method of urban exegesis that synthesizes the symbolic systems of urban semiotics and the missional theology of cultural exegesis is applied to particular settings in Seattle's Rainier Valley as a form of observing and interpreting urban communities Third an urban contextual theology that is situated in an environment of physical density social diversity and economic disparity emphasizes the necessity of engaging the city with theologies of place neighbor and community In an effort to equip and empower the church and others to engage the city as thoughtful missional people this research seeks to cultivate a combination of critical observational skills in the urban context and a constructive understanding of the holistic Christian mission among the poor and disenfranchised in our urban communities From the street corner in the ghetto to newly gentrified enclaves of hipsters street signs are all around us they point us in the right direction toward deeper understanding alert us to the presence of injustice on the horizon and draw our attention to the redemptive beauty of the city that is revealed in the light of the gospel

A Heart for the Community

John Fuder,Noel Castellanos,2013-08-28 Our nation used to look at violence poverty and gentrification and assign those problems to urban centers Today these issues concern the suburbs too The Christian community is responding to this reality Churches and parachurch ministries are actively working to transform lives and restore communities throughout the city and suburbs In A Heart for the Community New Models for Urban and Suburban Ministry you will be challenged by a collection of voices seeking community renewal These individuals are involved in creative church planting initiatives and they are serving the growing Hispanic and Muslim populations Additional endeavors include serving racially changing communities economic development strategies and more As anyone who has been in ministry for any length of time can attest tackling some of the most challenging issues of our times is no mere academic exercise The voices within these pages write from experience and offer workable vibrant models of ministry that make a difference

Building a People of Power

Robert C. Linthicum,2015-09-15 Jesus never intended the church to become an institution he intended it to be a people of power transforming the world Power is the capacity ability and the willingness to act Most people and systems use power to dominate and control but others have used it relationally to liberate transform and even save Built around a biblical exploration of shalom Building a People of Power explains how local churches can use power to transform their communities and their cities Detailed power strategies are presented enabling churches to build productive relationships to address the primary issues of people they serve and to develop strong leaders faithful organizations and redeemed neighborhoods that live out shalom

To Transform a City

Eric Swanson,Sam Williams,2010-09-07 To Transform a City is a timely compelling book that helps readers understand how to think about cities their own city and the broad strategies needed for kingdom impact The book begins with an overview of the importance of cities in the new day in which we live The authors address the process of transformation along with examples of where and how communities have been transformed throughout history After writing a persuasive chapter on kingdom thinking the authors unfold the meaning of the whole church the whole gospel and the whole city The book ends with the need for people of good faith to work together in the city with people of good will for the welfare of the city

Stewards of Power

Dwight S. M. Mutoonono,2018-03-14 Africa's national leaders have failed the continent So have Africa's church leaders In Stewards of Power Restoring Africa's Dignity Dwight Mutoonono identifies the leadership problems plaguing the continent and appeals for good leadership in the style of the biblical Joseph rather than the xenophobic self-centred style exemplified by Jonah He offers practical suggestions for how African Christians can reject sycophancy and demand accountability from their leaders This is a prerequisite for restoring Africa s dignity with a clarion call for integrity and righteousness at a personal institutional and national level BAM Global Movement Gea

Gort,2018-04-18 Business as Mission BAM is a growing global movement Christians active in the arena of business charity and ministry are on a journey to integrate business with holistic mission But what exactly is BAM In this book Gea Gort and Mats Tunehag explain the BAM concept through theory and theology with stories to show what it looks like in real life The authors explain that Business as Mission is an expression of a much broader movement Ideas regarding mission church and charity are shifting and growing number of Christians are aiming for a missional way of living out the whole incarnated gospel in their daily lives where they work and live The inspiring stories of thirty practitioners active on all continents provide insight into how the gospel can be shared in innovative and practical ways in challenging settings in developing nations secularized Western cities or even closed countries This book will not only capture your mind and heart as you learn about Business as Mission in theory and praxis but it will also give you a broad overview of this remarkable movement This book provides insight into this global movement and is of interest for a broad range of people pioneers early adapters and leaders within church missionaries and business leaders as well as for Bible schools and universities Dr Gea Gort a trained journalist studied Transformational Leadership in the Global Urban Context at Bakke Graduate University in Seattle where she serves as adjunct faculty and regional board member She is passionate about innovative mission in an urban and global context In her hometown of Rotterdam Holland she initiated City Prayer directed a Christian leaders network and advised the government on multicultural affairs Gea has authored several books in Dutch and in English Mats Tunehag is a speaker writer and consultant from Sweden For over twenty years he has focused on developing the Business as Mission BAM concept as well as national regional and global strategic alliances of people and BAM initiatives A global lecturer he is also a BAM senior leader in the Lausanne Movement and the World Evangelical Alliance Women's Work Susan L.

Engh,2019-02-05 In Women s Work The Transformational Power of Faith Based Community Organizing Susan L Engh draws on her own experiences and those of twenty one other women who work in the field of faith based community organizing to describe how women have been transformed by their participation in organizing and how they have been agents of transformation in congregations denominations organizations and the public arena This book provides a basic description of faith based community organizing through the first person perspectives of a diverse array of women Empowering

People through Encounter Erin Brignam, Maureen H. O'Connell, 2025-09-15 A useful and enriching resource for empowering organizers rooted in Catholic Social Thought to engage the church on all levels and mobilize Catholics and other people of faith to enact social change Empowering People through Encounter presents the Catholic Social Tradition as an embodied practical and inspiring way to connect faith and action It highlights the dispositions skills and methods of faith based community organizing through a combination of interviews with Catholic organizers in the field and case studies of campaigns from a variety of national contexts Focusing on the relational praxis of organizing provides an opportunity for readers to encounter Catholic Social Thought as an integrated vision that gets lived on the ground by those closest to the pain of injustices rather than a set of abstract principles invoked by those at a distance Students and practitioners of Catholic Social Thought in a variety of contexts from the classroom and the pulpit to the one to one meeting and the public action will appreciate the introduction to the concrete skills of community organizing to encounter the Catholic Social Tradition with particular emphasis on the social teachings and synodal vision of Pope Francis For those who use this resource within the context of a university classroom or parish Empowering People through Encounter will nourish faith formation and vocation development by presenting community organizing as an expression of Catholic Social Thought and a way people of faith have been architects of Catholicism

Strong and Weak Andy Crouch,2016-02-11 Two common temptations lure us away from abundant living withdrawing into safety or grasping for power True flourishing says Andy Crouch travels down an unexpected path being both strong and weak Regardless of your stage or role in life here is a way of love and risk so that we all even the most vulnerable can flourish

Generous Justice Timothy Keller,2012-08-07 Keller explores a life of justice empowered by an experience of grace

Agents of Flourishing Amy L. Sherman,2022-05-10 God calls Christians of every vocation to participate in his redemptive mission so that every corner and square inch of society can flourish as God intends Amy Sherman offers a multifaceted biblically grounded roadmap for enacting God s call to seek the shalom of our communities showcasing historical and contemporary models of faithful and transformational cultural engagement

The Green Good News T. Wilson Dickinson,2019-12-11 When was the last time that we heard some good news For those tuned in to the ecological crisis and the daily chronicle of injustice the declaration of good news might seem synonymous with denial and avoidance The gospel of Jesus Christ helps us to face the suffering of the world and live in love and hope The only catch is it requires that we change It is only by losing our consumeristic profit seeking and isolated lives that we may save them The Green Good News finds a fresh take on the Gospels painting a picture of Jesus as a humorous and subversive teacher an organizer of alternative communities and food economies as a healer of bodies and relationships and as a prophet who sought to overturn an empire and restore a more just and joyful way of life Christ teaches and incarnates a vision for sustainable life and provides practices that mark the path toward it By exploring this always inspiring sustainable gospel we can find ways to transform our lives communities and even creation acclaimed book Christi Anarchy Dave Andrews explored the ugly ruins of Christian history and outlined the radical vision of Jesus for personal and community renewal In Not Religion but Love he shows how that vision can become a reality With poignant real life stories drawn from his Brisbane backyard Dave Andrews gives us a practical guide to working out Jesus agenda for love and justice in our own lives and neighborhoods Complete with group exercises and an ample collection of extra resources for study Not Religion but Love is a book to read at your own risk it might change your life God Loves Diversity and Justice Susanne Scholz, 2013-05-16 Both personal and scholarly in tone this book encourages readers to think theologically ethically and politically about the statement that declares God loves diversity and justice The multi religious multi ethnic multi disciplinary and multi gendered identities of the eleven contributors and two respondents deepen the conversation It considers questions such as Do we affirm or challenge this theological statement Do we concentrate on God in our response or do we interrogate what diversity and justice mean in light of God's love for diversity and justice Alternatively do we prefer to ponder the verb to love and consider what it might mean for society if people really believed in a divinity loving diversity and justice Of course there are no easy and simple answers whether we consult the Sikh scriptures the Bible the Qur'an the movies the Declaration of Human Rights or the transgender movement but the effort is worthwhile

 The result is a serious historical literary cultural and religious discourse that fends against intellectually rigid thought and simplistic belief systems across the religious spectrum In our world in which so much military unrest and violence economic inequities and religious strife prevail such a conversation nurtures theological ethical and political possibilities of inclusion and justice A Christian Justice for the Common Good Prof. Tex Sample, 2016-05-17 Do Christians bring a unique scriptural understanding of social justice to bear on the ills of society Would such an understanding reshape the way Christians engage and partner with others working to create a more just world Much of the modern conversation around creating justice focuses on ideas that too often reduce justice to human rights procedural justice and even the consumerism of the contemporary culture economy While the priorities of human rights and due process are necessary for fashioning a just world the Christian understanding of the common good is much richer and calls the church beyond fairness to forms of liberation compassion mercy and peace that are even more radical than the best notions of justice that characterize the nation state at the beginning of the 21st century A Christian Justice for the Common Good describes a Christian justice for the common good and what it looks like on the ground in real world settings Calling Christians individuals as well as communities of faith to a concrete version of social well being befitting faithful life in Jesus and God s vision of justice for the world Tex Sample drills deeper and identifies the skills that must be cultivated to do justice work with others work that will create a lasting impact while extending a Christian vision for the common good The conclusion The freedom God offers in Christ finds its place in concrete Christian efforts and the graced wherewithal of people who work generously with one another for a new and just life together Contents include 1 The Reduction of Justice to Human Rights 2 A Christian Justice 3 The Formation of a Just Church 4 Skills of Justice 5 Doing Justice with Others 6 A Justice of the Common Good Luke-Acts Improv: Biblical Narratives That Get You Into the Act Jamie Greene,2010-12 The New Evangelical Social Engagement Brian Steensland,Philip Goff,2014 Evangelicals are increasingly turning their attention to such issues as the environment international human rights economic development racial reconciliation and urban renewal The New Evangelical Social Engagement maps this new religious terrain and spells out its significance
